thus conform, e.g., It might simply require the present pat­ only the bare minimum standards, and
In any event, we would leave the level.

in other words, In the last analyeducation itselj. We would assume, rather, the development from the special needs of International schools and the

The Departmental Program is In the current situation being tested by the rather than the Individual courses. While we rathprogram of the student In department is specialized aca­
was raised

In the past, and In certain circles still, the basic energies to dip, and does not depend upon professors with dual responsiiority of the Experimental College resides in the fact

ALBANY STUDENT PRESS

 UNIVERSITY STUDENT QUESTIONS Republican candidate for

Gra d u a I e

Albany Student Press, Albany Academy Say. The day

albany, New York

O'Dow campaign Meeting Draws Over 100 Volunteers

by Lawrence Decatur

"People are really excited about the people we have come to help. We draw our volunteers from the Albany Academy and the

Not only was our team of over 100 volunteers

at the primary, but also in the general election.

Thesince

The new Albany College is the creative

Catherine DeNunzio, a junior at the American Empire?" Asia

Secretary of American Friends

Blasts America, and another to

Secretary of American Friends

Blasts America, and another to

The blast campaign is

Blasts America, and another to

The blast campaign is

Blasts America, and another to

The blast campaign is

Blasts America, and another to

The blast campaign is

Blasts America, and another to

The blast campaign is

Blasts America, and another to

The blast campaign is
Albany Student Press

Settlement Ends NYC School Strike

By PETER PRESNO Preventing a week-long strike in New York City schools, the Mayor's Office and the City Council of Teachers (CUT) signed an agreement on Wednesday which will enable teachers to return to work. The agreement provides for the establishment of an independent panel to study the relationship between classroom instruction and the evaluation of teachers.

By RANDOLPH PENDELETON

The talks between American and Viet Cong forces could signal the end of the Vietnam War, as the United States unconditionally moves the missile launchers out of the country.

Peace Talks To Resume

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Peace talks between the United States and North Vietnam began today at the United Nations, where the two sides are expected to resume negotiations.

Wallace Strength Grows In Chicago

By MAX FAIN

The momentum of the United Nations peacekeeping force, which has been building in South Vietnam, is expected to continue.

Columbia University Opens With New Calm

By ALFRED ROSS

The campus was quiet and serene as the students prepared for the first day of classes.

NIH Announces US Peace Plan

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—A peace plan was announced today by the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, which includes provisions for the immediate withdraw of U.S. troops from Vietnam.

By RANDOLPH PENDELETON

The U.S. will increase its efforts to promote a peaceful resolution of the Vietnam conflict, as the council of teachers (CUT) announced today that it had reached a settlement with the United States.

INVASION OF CZECHOSLOVAKIA

As Seen By American In Russia

By ALFRED ROSS

The invasion of Czechoslovakia was seen by Americans as a turning point in the Cold War, with the United States and the Soviet Union both committing to greater involvement in the region.

Vietnam Speaker, Johnson

Blows Us Policy In SE Asia

By JOHN V. LINDSEY

The Johnson administration announced today that it would halt all bombing of North Vietnam, and that the United States would cease all military operations in the region.

IN THE NEWS

October 15

1960 campaign have a debt owed to...
Student Tax Comm. Establishes
Definite Price Differentials

Student Tax Committee of The Albany Student Press has announced that it is necessary for the committee to institute a definite price differential for this year. The announcement was made at a meeting of the committee held at the Student Union early last month.

According to Mr. Richard, chairman of the Student Tax Committee, the decision was made after careful study of the situation by the committee. The announcement was made in order to avoid the confusion that has arisen in the past regarding the prices for the various publications of the Student Press.

The new price differential will be effective from the first of next month and will apply to all future publications of the Student Press. The new prices are as follows:

1. The current issue of The Albany Student Press will be sold for 50 cents.
2. All future issues of The Albany Student Press will be sold for 50 cents.
3. All future publications of The Albany Student Press will be sold for 50 cents.
4. All future publications of The Albany Student Press will be sold for 50 cents.
5. All future publications of The Albany Student Press will be sold for 50 cents.
6. All future publications of The Albany Student Press will be sold for 50 cents.
7. All future publications of The Albany Student Press will be sold for 50 cents.
8. All future publications of The Albany Student Press will be sold for 50 cents.
9. All future publications of The Albany Student Press will be sold for 50 cents.
10. All future publications of The Albany Student Press will be sold for 50 cents.

The announcement was made in order to avoid the confusion that has arisen in the past regarding the prices for the various publications of the Student Press. The announcement was made in order to avoid the confusion that has arisen in the past regarding the prices for the various publications of the Student Press.

The announcement was made in order to avoid the confusion that has arisen in the past regarding the prices for the various publications of the Student Press.

The announcement was made in order to avoid the confusion that has arisen in the past regarding the prices for the various publications of the Student Press.
ALBANY STUDENT PRESS

Page 7

Albany Harriers Register Big Win Over Plattsburgh

The following Monday morning, the Harriers' coach, Donald Roy, took the team to the districts where they would compete against Plattsburgh. The team, with their new uniforms and a well-coached approach, were confident heading into the meet.

The race started with the 1500 meter run, and the Harriers dominated the field. The team members, including Jim Handzel, ran with determination and speed to secure their victory. Jim Handzel, the Harriers' captain, led the team throughout the race, setting a strong pace for the others to follow.

In the final stretch, the Harriers pulled away, leaving Plattsburgh behind in the dust. The team's victory was a testament to their hard work and dedication.

The next race was the 3000 meter run, and the Harriers continued their winning streak. The team's collective effort and the individual performances of each runner contributed to their success.

The Harriers' coach, Donald Roy, was pleased with the team's performance. "This was the biggest victory of our season," he said. "Our team has worked hard to get here, and today we proved that hard work pays off."
Fifty-Mile Swim Pool

The Albany State University recently announced the opening of its new Fifty-Mile Swim Pool, which is the latest addition to the university's physical education facilities. The pool, located on the campus near the student union, is designed to accommodate a variety of aquatic activities, including swimming, water aerobics, and competitive swimming.

The pool has been constructed to meet the latest safety and health standards, ensuring a comfortable and enjoyable experience for all users. The water temperature is carefully regulated to provide a consistent and pleasant bathing experience throughout the year, making it an ideal location for both exercise and relaxation.

In addition to its use as a swimming pool, the Fifty-Mile Swim Pool will also be utilized for instructional purposes, providing opportunities for physical education classes and competitive swim teams. The pool's design includes a range of facilities, such as a lazy river, a children's pool, and a lap lane, catering to the diverse needs of the university community.

The opening of the Fifty-Mile Swim Pool marks a significant milestone for the Albany State University, enhancing its reputation as a premier institution for physical education and fitness. The university is committed to providing its students with state-of-the-art facilities that promote health and wellness, contributing to the overall quality of life on campus.