As Harp's Ring Honors Erin
Freshmen, Juniors Co-Sponsor Party

For J. Donald C. T. McGregor, president of the college, seems to have once made a note of the possibilities of an evening in honor of patron's Erin, and it is hoped that this note will have had some effect, for the occasion did occur, and it is expected that it was enjoyed.

To Mr. Ed Wallen, President of the Security Council:

I am writing in behalf of the students of State College, who are, I am sure, far more interested in the security of their community than in their individual personal interests. The students of State College have always shown a concern for the welfare of their fellow students and the community as a whole.
