Faculty Footnotes

The Art Department announces the posting of a new series of compositions by Joan Miro, an artist Pablo Picasso. Also, there is an exhibition of temporary artists. Among those featured will be Chambonnieres, "Les Baricades du coeur" and "L'et Coetera ou Mens d'amour" will follow. This will be presented by a local choir, directed by Betty Miller '55. The choir will have several songs from the opera "Handel's Messiah" and other sacred music. The choir will be accompanied by an APA band, directed by Stuart Shuster '53, and the program will include a reception to follow the concert. Registration will precede the concert at 8:30 p.m. Admission for the concert is $1.50, and there will be a reception for $1.00, which includes light refreshments. The concert will be held in the Van Antwerp School in Schenectady, and will begin at 8:30 p.m. The concert will last approximately one hour. The concert will be repeated on Saturday, March 12, at the Van Antwerp School, and admission will be $1.00.
Today Student Senate has called the roll of the student government and the Government Revision Committee. This committee, with the cooperation of the Senate, will hold a hearing on the second floor of the courthouse to hear the arguments of the student government. The committee will then submit its report to the Senate for consideration.

We think this plan has an advantage over the Senate's plan because it allows for discussion and debate on the issues. It also provides an opportunity for students to voice their opinions and be heard.

That the sound track of the film was not at fault. This placed the matter to the opportunity to see the evidence, and to determine if the equipment is not at fault.
