Rocky Supports Nixon

ALBANY, N.Y. - Gov. Nelson Rockefeller has said he fully supports the presidential decision on Vietnam.

"I fully support the decision of President Nixon," Rockefeller told reporters today in a Rochester hotel.

"I believe the President and the Nation must continue a policy of strengthening American democracy and strengthening American power and security."

The governor said he believes Nixon's policy is consistent with the Nixon doctrine of non-military aid to Vietnam.

"We are fully supportive of the President's decision."

Nixon did not confer with Con­gress before making the decision, Rockefeller said.

"We are fully supportive of the President and the Presi­dency."

SUMMERACT PROGRAM GUIDE

Talks & Events

Some of SUNY/Albany's distinguished faculty will lead informal discussions at weekly 'lunch-ins.' Dr. Arthur Collins of the English Dept., and Dr. Karl A.B. Peterson of the Music faculty are among the speakers.

The Snack Bar will be a weekly bill-foffer when you make your own sundae beside the Campus Center cafeteria.

Still in the planning stages are a Square Dance, a Jazz Concert series, and tours to the Saratoga Performing Arts Center.

E.O.P.S.A.

in conjunction with Student Association E.O.P.S.A. has planned a large number of excellent events. Tuesday evening films; an extensive lecture schedule; parties; and cookouts by the campus lake highlight the offerings.

SUNSTROKE

A weekly up-to-date supplement to this program guide. Sunstroke will be available in the Campus Center lobby, on Colonial Quad, and in the Library. Chieh Sunstroke for complete up-to-the-minute news on the 1972 SUMMERACT program.

SPECIAL SNACK BAR HOURS

For your convenience, the Snack Bar will be open until 10:00 pm on Sunday evenings. These extra hours are not taken advantage of, so the Snack Bar will return to an earlier closing time.

Whipped cream Sculptures

Bring out your creativity in decorating ice cream! Thursday is the day for a light lunch and a huge dessert. Ice cream sundaes - make your own sundaes - will be held every Thursday for your dining pleasure. There will be chocolate and vanilla ice cream to choose from, and a host of toppings including chocolate, strawberry, pineapple, whipped cream, and nuts. The social will start at 1:00 in the formal gardens behind the Campus Center and will run until 2:30. Those with tax cards will be able to enjoy these weekly coolers at a considerably lower price. So give yourself a treat and come before, after, or on your way to class.

Wienie Roast

Why start the summer in a rut?

SUMMERACT is presenting a weekly Roast event on Colonial Quad. This is your first time to get together before classes (and work), before there should be nothing keeping you away. Come to Colonial Quad the evening of June 26 with a packet full of change (wienies - $2.50, soda - $1.50) and high spirits and be prepared to enjoy!

The Mohawk Campus, a property owned by the Faculty-Student Association, provides an educational, recreational, cultural, and social area for use by the members of the University Community. Activities at Mohawk range from volleyball and softball to horseback riding and swimming. To promote and encourage these activities, there is a Snack Bar located in the main activities building which may be available on a cash basis during activities building which may be opportunities for boating, and social area for use by the Center lobby, on Colonial Quad, range from volleyball and Softball equipment, and field questions.

Camp Dippikill, owned by the Student Association, is located at Wartburg, deep in the heart of the Adirondacks. In its center is a 50 acre lake. There are 2 dwellings on the property, a renovated farmhouse and the Camp Dippikill Cabin. For the rugged types, there is a lean-to located on the Dippikill Lake. Two canoes and a rowboat are available; and there is also a sauna built located on the Lake.

Reservations must be made in advance for the Cabin, Farmhouse, and camping with the Campus Center staff in room 137 (457-7640).

This four-page guide to the SUMMERACT program is designed to serve you in a number of useful ways.

Hang the Center-Fold on your wall or use it as a desk blotter. Resembling quality was used for this purpose.

An easy to read calendar - play four charts - details the entire Summer's schedule. It takes a few seconds to find out what movie is being shown tonight or which group is playing on Monday.

A fifth chart lists many of the important phone numbers you might need. Why not use this area as a Summer Directory?

Oh What a Lovely War

The Trial

This summer, members of the University and Albany communities will have the chance to see live theatre performances and travel out of the city! After a 2 year lapse, Arena Theatre is back with 2 performances- Joan Littlewood's theatrical satire, Oh What a Lovely War (July 19-22) and Jean Louis Barrault's dramatization of Franz Kafka's modern classic, The Trial (July 20-29).

SUMMERACT has purchased a large number of tickets to all performances of each play, and will be selling them at a considerably reduced rate. For an activities card holder, one ticket for any performance of either production will be $1.95, and $2.25 for a non-card holder. A combination sale (ticket for each play) will be $3.50 for card holders and $3.75 without. (Regular Theatre Department price is $2.50 for a single performance and $4.00 for a combination).

Tickets can be obtained at the SUMMERACT table in the Campus Center lobby NOW. Phone reservations can be made by calling 457-6766 between 10 am and 3 pm.

Midweek Mohawk

Get away from it all, spend your Wednesday afternoons at the Mohawk Campus. SUMMERACT is presenting a mid-week lecture series in thisbcauliful setting, that should prove enlightening and refreshing.

We all know what it's like to bring in the car for a minor fender bender, only to be presented with an astronomical bill that covers everything but the original problem! Tim Smith, a local auto repairman, will speak on how auto repairmen in a folk entitled Auto mechanics; I'm the doc in town, and will be leading the discussion and will employ films and slides to illustrate.

The saying "A picture is worth a thousand words" is true only if the picture is taken correctly. On July 19, Jen Henry of the Educational Communications Center, will spend the afternoon talking about color photography. He will show some of his own work, demonstrate contact techniques and field questions.

All presentations will begin at 1:00 pm at the new Mohawk conference facilities. Directions can be obtained at the information desk or by calling 457-6757.

If you need transportation, SUMMERACT will make running a bus that will arrive at points of interest for the talks. The charge will be $2.50 with tax, $2.00 without. Watch the SUMMERACT bulletin board for further information.

The University Mourns...

by Ed Deady

Outside the Campus Center the sky was a clear blue, brushed occasionally by white. The sun glowed down on a perfect day, a lazy, breezy day. You could hear the fountain's unceasing din above the sound of people talking and a dog's bark. An excited uproar broke out briefly from one of the many groups seated and standing idle on the podium and around the fountain. It was noon and many students were spending their free moments between classes enjoying the good weather, good talk and good friendship and feeling life that only a day such as yesterday could bring.

In the Campus Center Ballroom, on the second floor at the top of the stairway going up from the main lobby, there were still vacant seats. Only a few people stood by the main doors, not from necessity, but for convenience. Finding Cockrell stopped playing the piano, and Rabbi Bernard Bloom gave the invocation for those eleven Israelis who "died on the field of peaceful competition." The Albany County District Attorney Arnold Proskin rose to speak about the eleven new martyrs and the six million old one^, who hopefully have made us all more aware of the need for brotherhood and peaceful relations among nations. He felt we had enough martyrs and "did not need any more. "Martyrdom must cease," said Proskin.

President Benezet spoke next, condemning hatred and the feuding among people and nations as being "senseless" and "without resolve." He expressed hope and prayers for the people of the world and stressed the importance of the university in working to end hatred by bringing all people together. There was silence in the ballroom.

The next speaker read a poem written with the Olympic massacre in mind. It was composed by Reverend Harvey Bates of University Chapel House and entitled "Munich and the Day of Atonement." The poem spoke of the cruel, hating and wicked ways of us human beings, and of a hope that someday we will rid ourselves of this hatred, and atone for what has been done in the past. Except for a few shedding tears, it was quiet in the ballroom.

Leonard Weiss, an attorney from the Albany Jewish Community Council and Mayor Corning of Albany also addressed the gathering and condemned the dastardly killings and the senseless wars that plague our world today. They too hoped for peace and a time of friendship and brotherhood for people of all nations. There was silence in the ballroom.

There a psalm was read and a Kaddish by Rabbi Zimand and it was quiet in the ballroom.

Outside one could hear the unceasing din of the fountain above the sounds of people talking and a dog's bark. But there is no need to go on. You cared. You were there. You know how it felt.
