"TENTH EMERGES"

The entrance roll of the class of '81 has made possible the long delayed emergence of the "tenth term." For more than three years the geniuses of the College have been working to reorganize the entering classes. Finally, the college has decided to go in for a full-fledged "tenth term." The scheme is to have an organization that will be both educational and social. The advantages must be searched extensively. A great deal of time and effort has been spent on this project. The college is confident that it will be a success.
