South East Asia Crisis Threatens Treaty Organization's Existence

By Frank Symonds

The South East Asia Treaty Organization has been threatened by the recent crisis in Thailand and Laos. This crisis has led to the possibility of the United States and other nations withdrawing their support for the organization.

Pathet Lao movement to settle their differences in its armor. The chinks appeared in its protection of SEATO. Although neither side could control the government, the United States, through the efforts of the Pathet Lao, was able to exert some influence over the situation.

States and Union IVCF members, South America confident, the United States will leave a large hole in the organization. The United States has built a dike to prevent the collapse of SEATO.

Religious Clubs Plan Week's Meetings

Religious clubs will plan meetings for the week of March 30 at 8 p.m. These meetings will include discussions on peace, justice, and unity. The theme of the week will be to promote understanding and cooperation among different religious groups.

It was quick, it was easy. Yes, the Havoc, built by the Delta Chapter of Pi Gamma Mu, is a favorite among students. This week, the club plans to hold a competition to determine the best design for the next edition of the club's newsletter.

Freedom...?

For past two weeks we have witnessed good student assemblies. Many new faces and being filled and people are up to say what they believe to be facts of the issue. This issue is basic to students and what each one of us will determine this open discussion of student issues or shall we delegate power to a few that can go and push through motions in their favor.

Last Friday a standing vote proved that the majority of students want compulsory assemblies. To make this power effective you have to back it up. That face was killed when you voted to continue the Mysticon plan for consultation.

When you decide something of great importance of yourself think of the consequences and the alternate plan which may develop. This seems to be swept by emotional speeches. Take them for what they are worth. Balance them against the facts and the good of the whole. Don't let your personal interest called freedom, defeat what is best for Student Assembly as a whole.

B Day

March any of your freshmen will be asked to consider whether or not you wish to join one of the four social fraternities on campus. For the past few years the theme of these organizations has been social acceptance. In short, you either join a fraternity or go through the rest of your college career as a misfit. The idea that everyone needs a sense of belonging is nothing. This is perfectly true, but one must realize that there are also other methods of gaining this acceptance, such as in the form of athletics or student government.

Before joining any organization you must ask yourself two questions. First, what can you gain from the good of the organization, and secondly, what can the organization gain from you? Don't let your personal interest called freedom, defeat what is best for Student Assembly as a whole.

If all the present activities mean anything, we won't have a Half-Time Assembly. Why have a compulsory assembly? Campus Commission has the power to make assembly. Why have a compulsory assembly?

KIND WORDS OF ADVICE

The Medal of the Month goes to all those kind students who answer their responsibilities, but unable to do so. They're all good of the whole. Don't let your personal laziness, called freedom, defeat what is best for Student Assembly as a whole.

The Editor:

When Student Association assembled for its first meeting in the evening, some 75 or more members were present, and many others were unable to attend because of various reasons. The executive committee of the Student Association was re-elected by the form of a show of hands. The meeting was opened by President Charles Fish of the Student Association, and was followed by an address on the future work of the association. The address was followed by a discussion on the various activities of the association, and the possibilities of the future. The meeting concluded with the adoption of the constitution and rules of the association, and the election of officers.

The editor received a letter from the Students' Association of America, enclosing a copy of the constitution and rules of the association. The letter was accompanied by a letter from the president of the Students' Association of America, expressing his appreciation of the work of the Student Association, and urging them to continue their efforts in the interest of the students.

When the songs are light
And the fire’s bright
For real delight—have a CAMEL!
—Man, that’s pure pleasure!

It’s a psychological fact—
Please help your disposition.
If you’re tired, unhappy—
—many people agree
A real delight.
No other cigarette is so rich
Tasting, yet so mild!
