U.S. Cuban Policy Seems Inegalitarian

By Gary Lucas

With the Soviet Union's recent stand on Cuba, the future of the Cuban government is uncertain. The Cuban government, under the leadership of Fidel Castro, has been a staunch supporter of the Cuban Revolution. The Cuban government has been criticized for its treatment of women, and for its lack of transparency in its dealings with the United States. The Cuban government has been accused of human rights abuses, and of suppressing political opposition. The Cuban government has been criticized for its lack of economic freedom, and for its reliance on foreign aid.

Independent on News Board Expresses Views on Greeks

The announcements of the committee investigating Greek affairs are expected to be finished sometime next week.

As an independent on News Board and in the student body, I must state that my views are based on four years of very close contact and acquaintance with these groups, a fact that may be significant to the committee.

First of all, we student members of the committee are perhaps more significant than the membership of the committee itself.

The newspaper, the public's window to the world, is an essential, integral part of the university, and a powerless student democracy. The newspaper has pasted its list of assemblymen on the bulletin board of Page Hall, and it has been the student body to write to these assemblymen with their requests in this past year, and the S.I.R. has been the catalyst for the student body to write to these assemblymen with their requests in this past year.

The absence of student criticism of the S.I.R. by the time they have received a grade, it is too late to do this. The S.I.R. has pasted its list of assemblymen on the bulletin board of Page Hall, and it has been the student body to write to these assemblymen with their requests in this past year.

We realize that the brunt of responsibility during the spring term lies with the students. But we also claim that the S.I.R. has pasted its list of assemblymen on the bulletin board of Page Hall, and it has been the student body to write to these assemblymen with their requests in this past year.

The newspaper, the public's window to the world, is an essential, integral part of the university, and a powerless student democracy.

ADELPHI COACH DEMANDS SATISFACTION FOR FORFEIT
Faherty Threatens To Break Relations With State; Feb. 2 Incident Could Effect School's Reputation

By Bill Colgan, Sports Editor

In the sport's press releases received in the Adelphi Athletic Department office this week, there is no mention of the February 2 incident in which Faherty was held up by a state trooper.

Faherty has demanded satisfaction for the incident which resulted in the State University's taking the game from Adelphi. Faherty's demand was made during a meeting with the Athletic Department.

The source went on to say that after the incident, Faherty threatened to break relations with the State Athletic Department.

However, upon consulting the incident, the source said that the trooper acted properly.
