Y. M. C. A. TO GIVE FRESHMAN DINNER

Kirby Page, Nationally Known Discussion Leader, To Be Speaker

The annual students Young Men's Christian Association dinner for freshmen will be conducted this year in the College house at 5:40 p.m. Central time on Thursday at 5:40 p.m. Robert D. Kosher, at the dinner, announced today. This is the first time that a dinner of this nature has been conducted at the Collection of industrial student and collegiate society annual meeting. Robert D. Kosher, at the dinner, announced today. This is the first time that a dinner of this nature has been conducted at the Collection of industrial student and collegiate society annual meeting. Robert D. Kosher, at the dinner, announced today. This is the first time that a dinner of this nature has been conducted at the Collection of industrial student and collegiate society annual meeting. Robert D. Kosher, at the dinner, announced today. This is the first time that a dinner of this nature has been conducted at the Collec-

Banquet Speakers

KIRBY PAGE

KIRBY PAGE, speaker, Announces Stunt Program, and Discusses "The Unemployment Question"

KIRBY PAGE, speaker, Announces Stunt Program, and Discusses "The Unemployment Question"

The student banquet will be on the second floor of the student union building. The program will include the usual features of these banquets, with special emphasis on the question of unemployment. The speakers will be Kirby Page, who will be the keynote speaker, and other prominent speakers who will be announced later.

Alfred T. Kinsey, whose book "Sexual Behavior in the Human Male" has been widely discussed and debated, will be the keynote speaker. He will discuss the problem of unemployment and its effects on society. Other speakers will include economists, social workers, and representatives of various organizations working on unemployment relief.

The banquet will be held in the College house at 5:30 p.m. Admission is free to all students and $1 per person for guests. The dinner will consist of a three-course meal, with dessert and coffee included.

State College News

BANQUET WILL BE ON $14 TAX TODAY

The student banquet will be on the second floor of the student union building. The program will include the usual features of these banquets, with special emphasis on the question of unemployment. The speakers will be Kirby Page, who will be the keynote speaker, and other prominent speakers who will be announced later.

Alfred T. Kinsey, whose book "Sexual Behavior in the Human Male" has been widely discussed and debated, will be the keynote speaker. He will discuss the problem of unemployment and its effects on society. Other speakers will include economists, social workers, and representatives of various organizations working on unemployment relief.

The banquet will be held in the College house at 5:30 p.m. Admission is free to all students and $1 per person for guests. The dinner will consist of a three-course meal, with dessert and coffee included. is about it. It has planned a four-seat office for 111 Square, and seems likely to be completed by those of greatest ability. It does not always mean popularity and ability.

It is his right and should not be withheld from him being seniors or up-going juniors.

An encyclopedic dictionary. There are some undergraduates here who are really brill sellel.

In office for 111 Square. In Albany, N. Y. Oct. 16, 1931 Vol. XVI. No. 4

AN OPEN LETTER

To Mr. Alfred B. Du Pont:

The editor of this newspaper feels that he cannot answer your recent charges without calling for an explanation of your position in relation to the whole situation. He is interested in the health of his newspaper and wants to know how he may best serve the public interest.

He will make every effort to obtain the floor in order to answer your charges and to present his own view of the matter in which Russia is governed today.

The story of Arnold is an intriguing one. William War-how is the author of "The Life of John D. Rockefeller, Jr.", and is a historian of American industry. He is a leader of this movement, and has written a book on that subject. He is a leader of this movement, and has written a book on that subject.

On the morning of the 20th of July, the British fleet was seen coming up the river. This he schemed to surrender to Washington. This he schemed to surrender to Washington. This he schemed to surrender to Washington.

The story of Arnold is an intriguing one. William War-how is the author of "The Life of John D. Rockefeller, Jr.", and is a historian of American industry. He is a leader of this movement, and has written a book on that subject. He is a leader of this movement, and has written a book on that subject.

In the afternoon a program of athletics was held. The team of the University of Michigan was defeated by the team of the University of Michigan. The team of the University of Michigan was defeated by the team of the University of Michigan.

The Freshmen Will Elect Leaders on Wednesday

The class of 1933 completed its nominations last Wednesday under the direction of Kenneth Christian, Eta Phi Beta, and Edward B. Starry, president of the Eta Phi Beta. Under the direction of Kenneth Christian, Eta Phi Beta, and Edward B. Starry, president of the Eta Phi Beta.

MAYORS MAKE STATE TRIP

The mayor of the town of New York has made a trip to the State of New York. The mayor of the town of New York has made a trip to the State of New York.

MAYORS MAKE STATE TRIP

The mayor of the town of New York has made a trip to the State of New York. The mayor of the town of New York has made a trip to the State of New York.

The story of Arnold is an intriguing one. William War-how is the author of "The Life of John D. Rockefeller, Jr.", and is a historian of American industry. He is a leader of this movement, and has written a book on that subject. He is a leader of this movement, and has written a book on that subject.

The story of Arnold is an intriguing one. William War-how is the author of "The Life of John D. Rockefeller, Jr.", and is a historian of American industry. He is a leader of this movement, and has written a book on that subject. He is a leader of this movement, and has written a book on that subject.

The story of Arnold is an intriguing one. William War-how is the author of "The Life of John D. Rockefeller, Jr.", and is a historian of American industry. He is a leader of this movement, and has written a book on that subject. He is a leader of this movement, and has written a book on that subject.

The story of Arnold is an intriguing one. William War-how is the author of "The Life of John D. Rockefeller, Jr.", and is a historian of American industry. He is a leader of this movement, and has written a book on that subject. He is a leader of this movement, and has written a book on that subject.
State College News, Friday, October 16, 1931

Educator Brought School to State

Dr. James Sullivan, Founder of Library School Here, Most Celebrated

The Library school of State college was one of the results of the work of the committee, headed by Dr. James Sullivan, who did such a splendid job of organizing the movement of Secondary Education in 1897. The Library school of State college was merged with the Library school of the University of Michigan and moved to Columbia, the site chosen for the new school. Dr. Sullivan was the first principal of the school, which he organized in January 1905.

Veteran Debaters to Oppose Each Other in English Class November 2

Two State college men will appear each in international debate this fall. Robert E. Miller, author of "The American Cleaners & Dyers," and William Miller, former editor of "The American Cleaners & Dyers," will debate before a joint meeting of the English and Philosophy societies.

Paternalism in Classrooms Will Cease

University of Chicago President Says

Dr. James E. Jackson, President of the University of Chicago, was among the speakers at the New York State Library Department's open house on Tuesday evening. The theme of his speech was "The Future of Education in America." Dr. Jackson said that paternalism in the classroom will cease, and that teachers will have the opportunity to train students according to their needs.

Dr. Sullivan was principal of the high school in Brooklyn for some years earlier, and he has served with much interest and appreciation the work of Miss Mary H. Hall. He will receive the Girls High school as a gift from the city of New York.

Dr. Sullivan is active in bringing about the most practical and thorough training for the new educators and through his influence the Library school has been given the site of the new school.

President Sullivan has been the principal of the Library school and has served the school for several years.

Dr. Sullivan was educated at the University of Illinois and the University of Michigan, and he received the degree of Doctor of Education from the latter institution.

President Sullivan is the author of several books, including "The Future of Education in America," "The Future of the University," and "The Future of the College." He is a member of the American Educational Research Association and the American Council on Education.

Dr. Sullivan is a member of the American Educational Research Association and the American Council on Education.

Paternalism in Classrooms Will Cease

University of Chicago President Says

Dr. James E. Jackson, President of the University of Chicago, was among the speakers at the New York State Library Department's open house on Tuesday evening. The theme of his speech was "The Future of Education in America." Dr. Jackson said that paternalism in the classroom will cease, and that teachers will have the opportunity to train students according to their needs.

Dr. Sullivan was principal of the high school in Brooklyn for some years earlier, and he has served with much interest and appreciation the work of Miss Mary H. Hall. He will receive the Girls High school as a gift from the city of New York.

Dr. Sullivan is active in bringing about the most practical and thorough training for the new educators and through his influence the Library school has been given the site of the new school.

President Sullivan has been the principal of the Library school and has served the school for several years.

Dr. Sullivan was educated at the University of Illinois and the University of Michigan, and he received the degree of Doctor of Education from the latter institution.

President Sullivan is the author of several books, including "The Future of Education in America," "The Future of the University," and "The Future of the College." He is a member of the American Educational Research Association and the American Council on Education.

Dr. Sullivan is a member of the American Educational Research Association and the American Council on Education.

Paternalism in Classrooms Will Cease

University of Chicago President Says

Dr. James E. Jackson, President of the University of Chicago, was among the speakers at the New York State Library Department's open house on Tuesday evening. The theme of his speech was "The Future of Education in America." Dr. Jackson said that paternalism in the classroom will cease, and that teachers will have the opportunity to train students according to their needs.

Dr. Sullivan was principal of the high school in Brooklyn for some years earlier, and he has served with much interest and appreciation the work of Miss Mary H. Hall. He will receive the Girls High school as a gift from the city of New York.

Dr. Sullivan is active in bringing about the most practical and thorough training for the new educators and through his influence the Library school has been given the site of the new school.

President Sullivan has been the principal of the Library school and has served the school for several years.

Dr. Sullivan was educated at the University of Illinois and the University of Michigan, and he received the degree of Doctor of Education from the latter institution.

President Sullivan is the author of several books, including "The Future of Education in America," "The Future of the University," and "The Future of the College." He is a member of the American Educational Research Association and the American Council on Education.

Dr. Sullivan is a member of the American Educational Research Association and the American Council on Education.

Paternalism in Classrooms Will Cease

University of Chicago President Says

Dr. James E. Jackson, President of the University of Chicago, was among the speakers at the New York State Library Department's open house on Tuesday evening. The theme of his speech was "The Future of Education in America." Dr. Jackson said that paternalism in the classroom will cease, and that teachers will have the opportunity to train students according to their needs.

Dr. Sullivan was principal of the high school in Brooklyn for some years earlier, and he has served with much interest and appreciation the work of Miss Mary H. Hall. He will receive the Girls High school as a gift from the city of New York.

Dr. Sullivan is active in bringing about the most practical and thorough training for the new educators and through his influence the Library school has been given the site of the new school.

President Sullivan has been the principal of the Library school and has served the school for several years.

Dr. Sullivan was educated at the University of Illinois and the University of Michigan, and he received the degree of Doctor of Education from the latter institution.

President Sullivan is the author of several books, including "The Future of Education in America," "The Future of the University," and "The Future of the College." He is a member of the American Educational Research Association and the American Council on Education.

Dr. Sullivan is a member of the American Educational Research Association and the American Council on Education.
COUNCIL TO BRING FAMOUS ESSAYIST HERE NOVEMBER 5

The Maryland Council on Philosophy and Art will sponsor the appearance of Christian J. Storck at a lecture and exhibition in the Peabody Music Hall on Thursday, November 5. Mr. Storck, 71, who was president of the University of California, is an authority on music who lecture will begin at 8:15.

HONORARY SOCIETY INDUCTS MEMBERS

Signum Laudis Will Have 9 Inductions on Saturday, Secretary Says

Ten seniors will be inducted into Signum Laudis, the International Honor Society, at a dinner Saturday night to be held in Fronek Hall. Mr. Herbst, president of the society, will conduct the inducting ceremonies.

The names of some of the students to be inducted are: Helen Crenn, '33, and Helen Mosher of the Sigma Chi Sorority; Elizabeth Krell, '30, Beta Sigma Gamma of Pi Beta Phi; and Elizabeth Linsell, '34, Gamma Phi Beta of Alpha Kappa Delta.

SALE OF TICKETS TO BE CONDUCTED FOR THREE DAYS

Tickets for the Edith Wyman Memorial tournament will be sold in the rotunda on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of next week.

The ticket committee consists of Helen Crenn, '33, and Helen Mosher of Pi Beta Phi; and Elizabeth Krell, '30, Beta Sigma Gamma of Pi Beta Phi.

Seniors Will Play Doubles

Next Week In Rotunda

Seniors will play doubles tennis matches next Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday in the Linwood Rotunda. The doubles team to compete is: George L. Stover, '34, and Paul E. Culver, '34.

Women Play Matches In Tennis Tournament

Seven tennis matches have been played in the Edith Wyman Memorial tennis tournament, according to Miss Markham, tennis instructor. The participating teams are: Alpha Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, and Delta Zeta.

The matches are: Ethel Backer, '33; Edith Backer, '33; Miss Markham, and Arthur J. B. Southon, '34; Betty Tall, '32, and Rose Bush, '32; and Helen Crenn, '33, and Helen Mosher, '33.

ROOFS COST $125.00

New roofs are being placed on the buildings of the college, according to Harold L. Haswell, Jr., president of the senior class. The cost will be $125.00 per roof. The roofs are made of red tile and will be placed on the buildings in the following order: creamy, natural, and natural.

Aged Stanford University Chancellor
Mourned For Valiance Of Peace Efforts

C. H. Davenport, 74, chancellor of Stanford University, was given a public funeral in Los Angeles, Calif., on October 19. Dr. Davenport was a well-known advocate of international law and peace. He was a great advocate of international law and peace, and his death was mourned throughout the world.

The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. J. H. Davenport, the well-known advocate of international law and peace. The service was held in the Stanford Memorial Church and the body was carried to the cemetery in a horse-drawn carriage.

Assembly Will Decide
Theme Of Conference

A joint meeting of the Young Women's Christian Association and the Young Men's Christian Association was conducted on Sunday, October 18, in the Memorial Church. Dr. Davenport was present and the conference was conducted by the Rev. Dr. J. H. Davenport.

The conference was attended by many prominent persons, including Dr. Davenport and his wife, Mrs. Davenport, and the Rev. Dr. J. H. Davenport.

VISIT SORORITY HOUSES

Recent visitors at the Alpha Eta Kappa Sorority house were Frances LeClair, '30, and Susan LeClair, '30, who were guests of the sorority. They were welcomed by the sorority president, Harriet Brown, '31, and the vice-president, Elizabeth Krell, '30.

The Alpha Eta Kappa Sorority house is located at 16 West Fourth Street, and is open to all members of the sorority.