Religious Clubs
Plan Receptions For Frosh Tonight
Events Will Feature Dancing, Refreshments

Religious clubs on State will welcome women to Frosh Rush tonight with receptions. The Albany Christian Church, the Jewish Union Board, and the Catholic Student Union will be among those appearing. Calvyn Christianson is in charge of the Christian Church reception, which will be held in front of Draper Hall.

Mary Dines, '47, is general chairman; Mary Louise Casey, '46, President of Newman Club, will greet the class to help us get back to normal. Three years from now, the class of 1949 will be the leaders of Newman Club. It is important that you prepare yourselves now; you are the first peacetime class. You must keep both eyes and ears alert. You will be expected to take part in any and all activities. It has not gotten too much out of hand, but it has been the cause of a lot of temporary hardships and loss of view of the goals before us. You have not been converted a swift and efficient task, rather than a jumbled mess.

The Class of 1949 is an intelligent and spirited group, judging from the conduct at Freshman Camp. There is an absence of lack of interest in any sample of which you are a part of the freshman throng. There are questions are not asked and things are not experienced the same way.

Counting memories to open the beginning, collection mops, and everyone collected mops. As the flats came down, the-campers'colleagues at the coming rivalry skits and sings. The coming rivalry skits and sings.

Dr. John M. Sayles, President, has an announced his talk with a greeting to the Assembly. Myskania and Student Council members will then be introduced and the Class President, Elizabeth E. Dixon, well-known radio star baritone, in the Capitol Theater of the Albany Symphony Orchestra and the Capital Theater of the Albany Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. Sayles, main speaker, will open this morning with the theme of "The importance of striking a "happy medium" between school work and extracurricular activities. A '49er as he begins his college career."

"The Class of 1949 is an intelligent and spirited group, judging from the conduct at Freshman Camp. There is an absence of lack of interest in any sample of which you are a part of the freshman throng. There are questions are not asked and things are not experienced the same way.

Counting memories to open the beginning, collection mops, and everyone collected mops. As the flats came down, the-campers'colleagues at the coming rivalry skits and sings. The coming rivalry skits and sings.

Dr. John M. Sayles, President, has announced his talk with a greeting to the Assembly. Myskania and Student Council members will then be introduced and the Class President, Elizabeth E. Dixon, well-known radio star baritone, in the Capitol Theater of the Albany Symphony Orchestra and the Capital Theater of the Albany Symphony Orchestra.

"The Class of 1949 is an intelligent and spirited group, judging from the conduct at Freshman Camp. There is an absence of lack of interest in any sample of which you are a part of the freshman throng. There are questions are not asked and things are not experienced the same way.

Counting memories to open the beginning, collection mops, and everyone collected mops. As the flats came down, the-campers'colleagues at the coming rivalry skits and sings. The coming rivalry skits and sings.

Dr. John M. Sayles, President, has announced his talk with a greeting to the Assembly. Myskania and Student Council members will then be introduced and the Class President, Elizabeth E. Dixon, well-known radio star baritone, in the Capitol Theater of the Albany Symphony Orchestra and the Capital Theater of the Albany Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. John M. Sayles, President, has announced his talk with a greeting to the Assembly. Myskania and Student Council members will then be introduced and the Class President, Elizabeth E. Dixon, well-known radio star baritone, in the Capitol Theater of the Albany Symphony Orchestra and the Capital Theater of the Albany Symphony Orchestra.

Dr. John M. Sayles, President, has announced his talk with a greeting to the Assembly. Myskania and Student Council members will then be introduced and the Class President, Elizabeth E. Dixon, well-known radio star baritone, in the Capitol Theater of the Albany Symphony Orchestra and the Capital Theater of the Albany Symphony Orchestra.
America herself. If you come back to State and give me Miss America herself's phone number for stocking feet) I'll ask my relative who lives in the end of the war? Everything looks rosy now (rosier, anyhow) and the happiest thought of all is that the old showers and wrestling are our only means of evoked waves of comment through-males around as they did in the "good old days" and lain, , «f , British have elected reformers, not We've had an excuse for that too: limitation of old-timers who have seen the is just incidental) . . . when you count of the effect of the "eve of surrender" on us. It is almost certain that there will.

by the king to form a gov­

There stood the three same were defeateil at the polls. So were many notable independents like i this great problem is to be en-jured and (in Britain) protective to the native big-whigs. The Labor victory Is, in my opin-

in promises of an up-und-eoming

inches will lie whilul upon request.

for your college?

in promises of an up-und-eoming

Tryouts for positions on the staff

Put us appointments will be taken

time I lie students have indicated.

Those many formats will become

who is head resi­

for your college?

You can't get away

Are you tired of living?

Tryouts for positions on the staff

would I like to get away

College Close-ups

would I like to get away

people to show them the way. How can we

in promises of an up-und-eoming

Reconversion Brings Luxuries -

Men Enhancing Halls Of State

would I like to get away

Tryouts for positions on the staff

Put us appointments will be taken

time I lie students have indicated.

Those many formats will become

who is head resi­

for your college?

You can't get away

Are you tired of living?

Tryouts for positions on the staff

would I like to get away

College Close-ups

would I like to get away

people to show them the way. How can we
Frosh Join In Fun At Week-end Camp
As They Behold Life At State

Softball, Archery
Highlight Sports

The main event of the sports week will be held on the State field this Friday and Saturday, when the Frosh will battle the Seniors in archery and softball.

A Frosh vs. Soph team of each sex will also play a baseball game. Softball will take place in the afternoon and archery in the evening.

Sports Tryouts

Basketball will open with a tryout for the Frosh team next Monday. The Frosh will also have a tryout for all other sports.

Women's Sports To Be Inaugurated September 1

The sports season is kicked off today. It could be a big day in athletic history.

The first football game of the season will be played against the State Colleges. The game will be held on Saturday afternoon.

Activities Day

Set For Oct. 13

Frosh to Get Banner, Sign-Up in Commons

Women's activities will be featured at the October 13 activities day. The Frosh will have the opportunity to sign up for various clubs and organizations.

State College News