Gov't Revision Again...

The Student Government Council met last Wednesday evening after Student Council adjourned. Although the chairman was absent (which perhaps might indicate a lack of interest) there were at least thirteen members present. The GSC heard a comprehensive report on government. The council was requested to submit a plan submitted last year by Joseph Leonard. It has been proposed to recognize the committee at the next Student Council meeting. The specific goals is apparent, as well as a need for more concentrated leadership. Now that the amended motion to dismantle compulsory assembly has been passed, the work of the committee is important to the future of government. At the present time the students are guaranteed the committee that to which it does not have to be made, as the meeting was held after a short and circumscribed discussion on the plan.

It is hoped that all students will benefit from this new system.
