They crossed swords with the wrong man when they engaged this world-feling writer in combat. It isn't hard to do in the windy, "smoke."..."smoke"...to cigarette mildness tests. But it proved their thesis was the smoking need of logic. The only way you can judge mildness is by smoking. That's the first test of cigarette mildness.

It's the second test...the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camel in your usual brand on a day after day, put after pack hole.
