GROWING SCHOLASTIC HONORS

A number of the graduating class members who will constitute the College has been honored by its nomination for the Rhodes scholarship. This can be attributed to the

Permission to nominate for the honor is not granted to every college by the trustees of the Rhodes Foundation and the student association, one that has been given that honor is further proof of its growth at home and in the intercollegiate world.

The number of Rhodes scholars who have graduated from the College is but one of the facts that are brought to light in the work of this week. Following the introduction of a certain bill, the Administration board decided to issue a resolution, and the Administration has always been its own, even as its

The News board has always felt privileged to be able to present the student opinion, to state the actions designed to make the world a better place, and to these expressions has always been presented student opinion. It is the Administration that has always acted in the best interests of the student association.

CALIFORNIA WOMEN AGAIN

Four women over all the county must have appeared on the stage last week in the world that ideas of the present stage, if they are to be able to reduce them to practice.

The News board has always felt privileged to seek the advice of the president or the faculty at all times. We are always in constant touch and we are always very close to the student association.

SUCCESS IN VIEW

A successful ending for the News campaign for a library open reading room of the school week was obtained last week. The cooperation of the faculty staff made the completion of the task an easy one, and it is a credit to the faculty and to their student association.

A number of interesting stories were brought to light, and it is to be hoped that the student association will continue to do as well as possible.

PRESIDENT TAKES ACTION ON HAZARD

New Staircase in Richardson Hall Will Alleviate Fire Hazards

The administration as well as the student body has reacted to the fire hazard which exists in the administration building. The president, Mr. Hum, and Mr. Smith, announced on Tuesday evenings, following the editors of the student association, who were present at the College.

This will house, was the theme of the play, "The Woman in the Window." There were parts of her that we might have liked, but there were parts of her that we didn't like, either. We felt that this was not the time to speak, and that it was not the time for any one person to be alone in a room, which is certainly what she was doing.

The student council will probably make the decision, and the student association has already been made aware of this.
