A recent decision by Siena College officials has given our basketball team an opportunity to step into the college basketball spotlight in the City of Albany. For years Siena has been struggling in "match-box-like" Page Gym while State has been reaping the breadths of lush spots.

The decision to move to the Albany Civic Center next season has its roots in the success of the Siena College basketball team. The team, under the guidance of Coach Mike Apps, has recently captured a third straight league title. The move to the Civic Center was made possible by the combination of several factors.

First Place went to PA on the stage two nights ago.

The decision to move to the Civic Center was made possible by the combination of several factors. The first, and most important, is financial backing. With the increased cost of operating a professional basketball team, it was necessary to effect this move which would indeed bring our basketball spotlight in the City of Albany. For years State has been struggling in "match-box-like" Page Gym while Siena has been reaping the breadths of lush spots. The decision to move to the Civic Center was made possible by the combination of several factors.

Second, the Civic Center offers a much-needed improvement in the facilities for the Siena College basketball team. The team has been without a proper home court for many years and the move to the Civic Center will provide much-needed improvements in the facilities for the team.

In conclusion, the decision to move to the Civic Center was made possible by the combination of several factors. The financial backing, the improved facilities, and the increased level of competition will no doubt benefit the Siena College basketball team in the years to come.

State Beats New Paltz, Ties Oswego, Pedmen Face Plattsburg Tomorrow

After soundly beating New Paltz last Thursday by a top-heavy 16-0 score, State's soccer team looked forward eagerly to the homecoming game with Oswego. But the team was disappointed when Oswego State had passed, and lost control of the Eastern field during the first half of the game.

Oswego was an aggressive team and in fine shape, being able to control the ball to the end. At half time the score was tied with the Peds on the north. Coach Dave Garcia fired up his team during the break, however, and in the second half, the Peds answered their superior skill by carrying the attack to the Owen and White team.

Lack was not with them, however, as they missed the final shots of their opponents in the closing moments of the game.

Mens Out-Passes APA

APA continued to roll along with one upset after another. The Peds were in the midst of another big game when they met APA at the Colgate frosh in overtime by a score of 4-2. Coach Burl-erata went to work in the air and was more than a match for the APA defense. Tempers grew hot as the game wore on, but for the most part, the action was on the ground.

The downfield march continued to the title. EEP won by a 2-0 score.

'The Stu and the Boys' at Colgate

On Saturday, at Hamilton, N.Y., Colgate proved too strong for State in the third quarter. They were in the midst of a game when they met Colgate in overtime by a score of 4-2. Coach Eqa-erata went to work in the air and was more than a match for the APA defense. Tempers grew hot as the game wore on, but for the most part, the action was on the ground.

The downfield march continued to the title. EEP won by a 2-0 score.

Potter and KB tangled in a game that was over by the end of the first quarter. Poter and KB went to work in the air and was more than a match for the APA defense. Tempers grew hot as the game wore on, but for the most part, the action was on the ground.

The downfield march continued to the title. EEP won by a 2-0 score.
