AMERICA EXCELS IN MASS TEACHING
Professor Kingsey Compares the Educational Procedures Here and Abroad

Julian Stanton Kingsey, professor of secondary education, Medford College, has returned to State office as visiting instructor for his tenth summer here.

Last year, Mr. Kingsey enjoyed a sabbatical year’s leave of absence which he spent in traveling through many countries of Europe. He visited many institutions of learning and observed the educational practices of these institutions.

Dr. Thompson Plans 2 Request Programs of Organ Recitals

Dr. Harold W. Thompson, professor of English, gave the first of a series of three organ recitals yesterday afternoon in the Sunday School, and the program included well-known and popular classics.

Two other all-request programs will be given on Monday and Friday of the week. The program will consist of pieces by well-known composers. Dr. Thompson will be on hand for the two recitals. Тhere will be no change of repertoire, and changes will be made in the usual order.

Scientific Equipment Displayed This Week

The special interest in scientific equipment and apparatus during the week is displayed in the classroom.

Three Enthusiastic Students Rejuvenate “News Office”

Perched on the ladder, dressed in T-shirts and trousers, three enthusiastic students were pulling the lever that turned the pages of the “News Office” last week. The idea that “the paper was put out of business” by the students was not their aim, but they found the job of publishing the paper a challenge.

Dr. Merian Plays Office Principals

They Fail to Put First Things First, He Tells Conference of Administrators

Dr. Merian, editor of “Supervision and the Principal,” described how too many principals spend time on extraneous activities, which detracts from their main duties. He said that the principal should be the first person on the list of people to be contacted when there is a problem. He also said that the principal should be available to all students, not just to the ones who are in the “in” crowd.

Summer News Notes Financial Policy: Price Per Copy Sinks To Five Cents

It is with the announcement of a new price that the News begins its new season. The newsprint used in the News will be reduced, and the price of the paper will be lowered to five cents.

Men Students Accept Valley Ball Challenge

The faculty’s challenge to men students to accept the Valley Ball Challenge was accepted by the men students. The challenge was issued by the faculty, and it is expected that the men students will accept it.

Elected President

The election of the president of the National Education Association took place at the recent meeting in Los Angeles. The president of the association is considered a powerful influence in educational work, and not only throughout the New England states but throughout the entire country.

LET US LEARN

Next summer, the National Education Association meeting will be held at Albany, N.Y. It is hoped that many teachers from New York State will become members of this national professional organization this year. Let us join our fellow teachers in this membership drive. Teachers of New York State should be interested in this professional organization which has done and is doing so much for the betterment of the teaching profession.

RECREATION

Let us not forget that although a good majority of the 1,000 odd students at this summer school are adults, constant study is a physical impossibility, and that some type of recreation is a necessity for good health and good work.

Plans have already been made for the students. Dr. Thompson will continue his musical program for those interested in music, and the students themselves have planned social recreation, picnics and balls. Students who are interested in baseball may arrange some of their own games. There will be some extra-curricular activities, including a baseball team that will meet every day.

Out of the 1,000 odd students, there are many who are interested in extra-curricular activities. The students who are interested in the baseball team may arrange their own games.

SPORT SHOTS

During the preceding summer session a baseball team has been organized. It played several local teams and won five out of six games. Last year the team won six out of six games. The team is now interested in forming a baseball club.

Oneonta Normal Grads

The graduates of the Oneonta Normal School plan to have a reunion next Thursday at Warm Lake. Travis Gillette, the class of 1929, and superintendent of the third supervisory district of the Otsego County, is chairman of the committee in charge. There will be more than 25 graduates of the Oneonta Normal School in attendance.
