Kapital Kapers
by ART PALAZZOLI
This week we have a letter from the Press and Sun Bulletin. They are writing about the new college president. Mr. Palmer is just the ticket. He is a man of great wisdom and a great leader. This is a very happy time for the Press and Sun Bulletin.

Frosh Set Early Pace At Frosh Camp
Six and one add up to seven, seven is a lucky number; therefore, the class of forty-one should possess a winning attitude this year. The class was assigned to the Piscataway, N.J., field for the first time this year. The Frosh camp was assigned to the senior class, and the Sophomores to the Juniors. The Frosh camp was assigned to the Freshman class.

One may only remark — Beware!

Seven, Come Eleven
Men in the pool with all their clothes on at Men’s Frosh Camp. They are all wearing full clothes, including shoes and socks. They have been scouted. Needless to say, the class of forty-one is not going to be an easy one to handle. The Frosh are determined to prove themselves right well in their full hand books, should go to the next delegate from Albany.

One of the best teams in the league is the States College Hockey team. They have been doing a good job for a beginner. The team is composed of the following: Bill McNeill of Oceanside, New York, Sinatra of Oceanside, New York, and Paul Dammer of the New York Times. Cigarettes!

Is that your saying? I think not. When you say, "Cigarettes!", you are implying that something bad is going to happen. But when I say, "Cigarettes!", I am just reminding you that they are out there waiting for you.

Religious Groups To Hold Meeting

The university will be holding a meeting for religious groups. This is a great opportunity for students to get involved in the community and meet new people.

"Twenty-one" lame attended Albany State, but it's rumored that he is probably resting comfortably in the hospital.

Religious Groups

Religious groups at the university will be holding a meeting to discuss their upcoming events.

Baker, John Johnson, Peter Spina, Burton, Harriet Sulman, Ellen C. Stokes, Dean of Women; Marie Dettmer and Joseph Szarek, the administration officially welcomes the Class of 1961 to the College. Receptions are to be held this year. It is a tradition. It has been observed every year since the class of 1961.

Scimitar...The Big Brand for Big Men who like their cigarettes big. For full-flavored taste and nicotene--it's Chesterfield...the cigarette that always pleases the taste. Yes, the BMOC go for Scimitar...too.

Two sorority houses will be playing hostesses to the Class of 1961. Alcot Sorority will act as hostess to the A-E girls in the Junior Guide Program. Children of faculty members will assist the hostesses in this function.

State University Opens New Teachers’ College

The New York State University at Albany, which opened its doors on September 20, 1957, is a fitting place for the education of teachers. The campus is located on the outskirts of Albany, and is a short distance from the state Capitol.

Editor Distributes PedagoguePlus

Professor William R. Coe, the new president of the University, has distributed PedagoguePlus to all students of the school. This is a great tool for students who want to improve their grades.

Presidential Message

Dear Students,

I am pleased to welcome you to the University of New York. This is a place where you can learn, grow, and develop as individuals. It is also a place where you can make new friends and create memories that will last a lifetime.

Best regards,

William R. Coe
President
