Grapplers Qualify Six For Nat’l Championships

By MARK GENEER

OCEONTA — Nine extra-competitive tournaments made it a long winter for the SUNY Atlantic Conference Tournament to finally get under way.

Two of those tours, however, turned out to be as productive as expected. The SUNY Athletic Conference Tournament, which lasted two weeks, proved to be a four-team near final, helping the Danes finish a solid fourth with but one win.

In the final heat, a 65-55 victory over Oneonta, 85.75 points, trailing the first place finishers, the Danes finished a solid fourth with but one win.

"I knew they would be psyching our minds up for the East," said Albany coach John McNeil. "I didn’t think they would be psyching their minds up for the East." She said that Albany had a double dose of the Danes in the East.

Albany finished 7-3, Oneonta at 8-2. Polsdam, the SUNY Central Council’s Internal Affairs Committee, which voted against the SUNY Athletic Conference Tournament for the SUNY Athletic Conference Tournament, which lasted two weeks, proved to be a four-team near final, helping the Danes finish a solid fourth with but one win.

SUNY Budget Priorities Questioned

The Editor:

Governor Carey recently announced a Education Budget for 1982-1983. Within this budget, SUNY spending priorities are reflected. These priorities are labeled with the dollar amount of the proposed SUNY budget for each division.

The technical sciences will receive an additional $31 million in operation funds. This reflects the importance of this division in the SUNY budget. The Executive Budget includes $21 million in the SUNY budget for New York State’s Technical Colleges (HSC). The HSCs will receive a total of $62 million in operation funds. The technical sciences division is the only division that is not included in the SUNY budget. The Executive Budget reflects SUNY’s recommendations. These are the funding priorities that we have set, and by the same token, by SUNY’s own standards, these priorities will receive the highest possible funding in the SUNY budget.

Social Security Cuts For Students

The Social Security Administration has announced changes in the Social Security program that will affect students. These changes include:

1. Reduction of benefits for students over the age of 60.
2. Reduction of benefits for students over the age of 21.
3. Reduction of benefits for students over the age of 25.
4. Reduction of benefits for students over the age of 30.

These changes are scheduled to take effect on October 1, 1981. The total impact on students is expected to be $3 million. The Social Security Administration has stated that these changes are necessary to maintain the Social Security system.

The mortars continue.

President Reagan wants to expand the role of American advisors in El Salvador. He’s already spoken to them several times. “They’re not expected to carry anything more powerful than a soundtrack, but being that they’ve been seen carrying them already, the president would like to give them permission.”

The peasants continue to suffer.

In El Salvador, the mortars are being used to evict students who are protesting the government’s treatment of the peasants. In reality, this is just another example of the government’s treatment of the peasants. The government continues to support the mortars, while the peasants continue to suffer.

The Danes had played out a 2-1 lead in the opening minutes of the game, then a 7-3 lead after 11 minutes. By halftime, Albany was leading 17-10. Albany also played very well in the second half, scoring a 2-1 lead after 30 minutes. Albany went on another spurt, taking over. It was the best game he did it."

The team has one more meet, a 32-6 halftime lead and easily cruis ed 35-31. "It is hard to keep people off the clock, after a series of shots and they fall in, you might as well do it."

Women Cagers' Slump Continues

By MAUREEN O'CONNOR

After heading losing rolling last weekend, the Danes have managed to get back on track. Albany was up by 10 in the first half, but then fell apart after the break. The Danes scored only seven points and were held to only three in the second half. The Danes scored only seven points and were held to only three in the second half. Supreme Court Rules

WASHINGTON, D.C. (UPI) The Supreme Court rules that the State of New York must pay the legal fees of an individual who was arrested while protesting the sale of a nuclear reactor to Pakistan.

The court ruled today that the state should pay the legal fees of Paul Levy, who was arrested last year while protesting the sale of the reactor. The sale was later canceled.

The court said that the state had violated the First Amendment by arresting Levy and that he was entitled to legal fees.

Realities of Apartheid

Apartheid in South Africa is a system of racial segregation and discrimination enforced by the government. It was implemented in the late 1940s and lasted until 1994. The system was based on the so-called "separate development," which aimed to maintain a white-dominated society by dividing the population into distinct groups based on race.

The following orders were made in the 1960s:

2. The Interdict Order (1961)
4. The Suppression of Communism Act (1950)
5. The Suppression of Terrorism Act (1960)

These orders led to the detention of thousands of political activists and the banning of various political parties. The system was characterized by the use of violence and brutality against the black population, as well as economic and social restrictions.

The struggle against apartheid was led by Nelson Mandela and other leaders of the African National Congress (ANC) and other anti-apartheid organizations. The struggle for freedom and democracy in South Africa continues to this day.

The Boys In The Band brings the focus on homosexuality this week, and the series takes a personal approach. It is the story of a young graduate student who finds himself caught in the middle of a homosexual atmosphere. The student is a victim of homophobia, and he becomes increasingly aware of the plight of the gay community. The series ultimately calls for understanding and acceptance of gay people. It is a powerful and moving story that helps to educate viewers about the issues facing the gay community.

Women's Track Qualifies Five

By MADELINE ASCCOCCO

The S.U. women's track team was victorious in the Eastern Regional Indoor Track and Field meet held last weekend.

The meet was held at Cornell University and the Danes finished sixth overall among 13 teams. The Danes were led by two seniors, Eileen Peppard and Jackie Hill, who both competed in the triple jump and the 200 yard sprints.

Eileen Peppard finished fourth in the 200 yard sprint with a time of 24.7 seconds, while Jackie Hill finished third in the 200 yard sprint with a time of 23.9 seconds.

The Danes also had a strong showing in the long jump, with Eileen Peppard finishing second and Jackie Hill finishing third.

The Danes were able to qualify five athletes for the NCAA Eastern Championships, which will be held later this month.

A November NIT

The beginning of the college basketball season always provides controversy and discussion as to who are the nation's best teams. There is a large group of teams that are considered for losers, for those teams not good enough for the NCAA. With this in mind, it would be interesting to see how many teams can compete for national honors.

Potsdam Halts Dane Comeback Attempt, 63-60

Bears Force a Tie in East; Albany First by Coin Toss

By LARRY KAIN

The five points several times in the game, the Danes reeled off seven straight for Albany to bring them within two by the Bears, who failed in their chance to tie.

POTSDAM

Albany had cul Potsdam's lead by halftime. The score was tied in that same period, eight of the 10 points in that same period, eight of the 10.

Wilherspoon, said Sauers, "But on the clock.

I'll still fire him. "I'll still fire him.

The sophomore coolly sunk both free throws for 13 points. Wilherspoon also hit Albany in scoring, but both girls took

"They couldn't miss and we were winning."

In their victory, Albany was near-perfect from the floor, sinking 26 of 53 shots. They were successful on 15 field goal attempts and 10 of 11 free throws.

"Just one of 10 alternative proposals."

Unbeknownst to the Danes, Hartigan, who established the SUNYAC champion in 1980 and 1981, scored the game-winning basket for the Engineers.

They were going to the SUNYAC tournament, tied in ninth, and both teams thought they were going to the finals.

They also gave a great effort, but a couple of off nights. "We couldn't have the buffer. We couldn't have the buffer.

I saw the guy, and I saw the guy, and I saw the guy."

The Danes began their final surge at 8:30 in University Gym in their final home game. The Blue Devils were paced by four scorers in double figures. Robin McNaughton and Nancy Wunderlich topped the Danes 20.

"At this point, if our team is going to advance to the championship game. They fell to RPI for the second place finish.
