STATE COLLEGE NEWS, MARCH 4, 1927

A WISE DECISION

The students of State College will welcome the assurance from Intersorority council that there need be no fear that the ruling will in any way be unfair. The ruling will be upheld unless it is unfair to any group wanting to go on production. It is a fact that the council could not have announce this until six weeks ago, without awaiting logic and the time necessary for all to fulfill the promise to which the council agreed. The council’s announcement will act as a deterrent to those who would try to extend the ruling by the council. So long as it is not applied, it matters little whether it be upheld or not.

THE STUDENT FORUM

FALCON UNGLEMMASLEY, Says WOLNITE

Now is the time for State College to act. The students are in a position to demand victory. The council has been assured by President Shriver that the council has been given the necessary authority to act, and that the council is the one to decide this matter. The university has a right to know what is going on. The council should tell the university what is going on.

The Lamplighter

GOOD old Leerie, the lamp­lighter, worked cheerfully to make the streets bright. And the lamps sputtered a friendly glow into the darkness.

The citizens of the country have taken Leerie's job. They are the lamplighters of today, and they spend 3/4 of each tax dollar that their streets may be bright.

Good street lighting means more flourishing business sections, safe traffic, convenience, and protection.

Leerie, the faithful, has gone—but streets still need lighting.

And in whatever communities college men and women elect to live, they should take a lively interest in civic improvements—including street lighting.

FALLON UNLENTIMATELY, SAYS WOLNER

Editor of the News

Dear Mr. Fallon:

Mr. Fallon sees the light. He has finally decided that he is no longer completely ideologically dedicated. His latest column, 'Blazed Trail,' proves that he is capable of change and growth. He has even begun to question his own beliefs. This is a significant step forward. We are proud of him.

Editor of the News

Dear Mr. Fallon:

Your latest column, 'Blazed Trail,' was a disappointment to us. We had high hopes for your ability to bring about significant changes in the interosority scene. However, your article seems to be a rehash of the same old arguments without any new insights. We urge you to consider the advice of your peers and reevaluate your position on this matter.

Sincerely,

COLLEGE PRESS MEETING

But perhaps a more direct importance of the debate is to be their own round table discussion. Here the students will outline what they believe to be the ideal student newspaper. The various problems of editor, publisher, and promotion will be put out in the open and the experience of one will be of interest to all.

Mr. Murphy, who has had charge of the Columbia Student Press association's activities since its inception in 1925, believes that this will be the largest of all conventions. He pointed out that it was the only one of its kind in the world to be held in 1927.
