BOOKS: \( \text{Dr} \) Von Wright \( \text{Story of Mark} \) \( \text{Twen}'s \) \( \text{America} \)

For sale at the Central
Mark Twen's America. By Erinn Von Duro. 350 pp., $2.00. University of Oklahoma Press, 1010 Telephone Avenue, Norman, Oklahoma.

Erinn Von Duro of Utah and the Harvard Yacht has criticized one of the most beautiful, deep-sea logs on the globe. The book is an exploration, salute, truly, a masterpiece of scholarship, of the background that marks Mark Twen, a townsperson of the greatest American writer, and the history of the writer who gave us "quixote" and "prehistoric" and "the derby." It's a memoir of the book's author, a man who has been described as "the man who made the book." The book takes as its foundation the assumption that the book is a masterpiece of scholarship, and that its author is a man who has been described as "the man who made the book." The book is a masterpiece of scholarship that is a representation of its author's commitment to the book. THREE OF FACULTY TALK AT RECENT TEACHER MEETING

Professor George M. York, head of the commerce department, Miss Mary E. Smith, instructor in French and Latin in Ribeau High school, and Miss Mary F. Chick, supervisor of practical training in Ribeau High school, addressed the students of the northern section of the State Teachers' Association at Potdau, N. Y., yesterday.

Professor York spoke on the commercial values of the commercial field, giving emphasis on the importance of the study of foreign languages and economics. Teach­ers, he said, should be prepared to direct students in the study of the commercial field, and should have knowledge of the field in order to be of real help to their students.

Miss Smith discussed the French language and literature, and the importance of a knowledge of it in teaching French. She also discussed the work of the French club and the French department in the school.

Miss Chick spoke on the importance of the study of Latin in Ribeau High school, and the work of the Latin club.
