200 Spectators See Annual Football Thriller At Academy Field

Urged on by the cheers of 200 spectators, the freshmen and sophomores football teams battled to a scoreless tie in the second annual gridiron meeting of the two rival classes, last Friday afternoon at the Albany Academy field.

has the smallest male population, it had the largest representation at a recent Young Men's Christian association state-wide council meeting, conducted last Friday and Saturday, October 17, 18, 19, according to Lloyd Mordern, '31, official gates to the conference included:

Rochester; Cornell university, St.
Lawrence university, and Heart college.
The delegation was entertained by the Hobart college Christian association.
The convention was led by Mr. Rue Sweetman, executive secretary of the New York state council, and Mr. Bill Wilson, executive secretary of the Middle Atlantic field council. Mr.
Sweetman visited the university in recent weeks, and spoke to the men at the Y.M.C.A. To Entertain Freshmen, November 6 Invitations were extended to freshmen home and abroad. He was chaplain of the New York State police, and is now on the speaking staff of the Y. M. C. A. Mr. Edle is particularly interested in college positions.

Mr. Edle attended the freshman outing two years ago at which time he discussed the problem of sex relationship, growing out of marriage.
Mr. Edle claims that education does not contain pritically in getting a degree, but that it comes only when the student of today learns how to cope with reality of modern civilization. Out of these three modern and present day problems is that which concerns itself with our experiences and those of others, and the organization of life on that basis.
"The dinner will be in the College calendrier at 5:00 o'clock. It will be served by Emmons. Unquestionably it will be enjoyed by everyone reading
