Kaufman Champ Defeats Zippin In Three Games

With a flush of pride and zeal in his eye, George Kaufman, the 114-pound heavyweight from the WAA office manager, and his 115-pound opponent, Jack Zippin, the doubles sect leader, squared off at the Memorial Coliseum on Friday evening. The Kaufman-Zippin bout, which was part of the weekly bowling league sponsored by the MAA, was well attended and provided a thrilling night of sportsmanship and competition.

In the opening round, Kaufman demonstrated his superior technique and control, outmaneuvering Zippin and securing a decisive victory. The second round was equally exciting, with Kaufman maintaining his lead throughout. The final round was a nail-biting contest, but Kaufman's experience and skill proved overwhelming, earning him the victory and the respect of the audience.

The double's sect leader, Jack Zippin, fought bravely but was unable to match Kaufman's skill and stamina. However, Zippin's performance was admirable, demonstrating the strength and determination of the doubles sect. The match was a testament to the spirit of sportsmanship that characterizes the WAA office manager and the doubles sect's rivalry.

Several weeks ago the sports game 21-15. The third game developed into a complete rout, Kaufman had easier going from here on in. pen's best effort. He grabbed an
