Debaters Sponsor Panel Discussion

The debate college is proud of the growth of its personnel and its ability to sponsor a variety of activities, as shown in the discussion of voting systems in other countries. The panelists will be given a chance to have their say in the debate, and more than one voice will be heard on this important subject.

Posting of Election Results

Common in Nation's Colleges

Almost every college has a method of posting the results of an election, whether it be by a bulletin board or by some other means. The college in this case is no exception, and in a recent election the results were posted immediately after the polls closed.

No Tax—No Vote
Mr. Merk's amendment comes up again today after postponement from last Friday's assembly. The lack of clearness about the future of this Campus concerning this legislation it seems that there is no lack of support for the amendment. The issue involved makes a considerable tax bearing. Perhaps a discussion concerning the present tax system might serve to square out this thinking on this matter.

Undoubtedly, the students of SUNY State College for Teachers... shall become members of the state or city tax agencies:

1. All regularly enrolled students of SUNY State College for Teachers shall become members of the state or city tax agencies.
2. Only holders of tax cards receive the benefits from student association activities and vote in all association meetings.
3. Past residue of tax cards is contested and assessed.
4. The committee that participates in the voting (vote must have at least two members of the same election).

Mr. Merk's amendment is passed:
1. "All regularly enrolled undergraduate students of SUNY State College for Teachers shall become members of the association." Further, the holders of tax cards shall receive the benefits from student association activities and vote in all association meetings.
2. Past residue of tax cards is contested and assessed.
3. The committee that participates in the voting (vote must have at least two members of the same election).

The other amendment is defeated:
1. "If Mr. Merk's amendment is passed:
   a. "All regularly enrolled undergraduate students of SUNY State College for Teachers shall become members of the association." Further, the holders of tax cards shall receive the benefits from student association activities and vote in all association meetings.
   b. Past residue of tax cards is contested and assessed.
   c. The committee that participates in the voting (vote must have at least two members of the same election)."

That this amendment be referred to the Finance Board for consideration.

Communications

The student association has received a letter from Mr. Merk, asking that we distribute his announcement to the student body. We will be happy to do so, and will be glad to hear from him at any time.

The question of the possibility of a dance on the campus has been raised. We would like to know what the student body thinks about this possibility and whether they would like to see a dance on the campus. We would appreciate any suggestions or ideas that you might have on this matter. We will be glad to pass them on to the student association.
State Maidens Paint Pictures Of Ideal Man Of Their Dreams

by Alice McMillan

You know men's ideal is what they would like to be, but what do women want from a man? The student members of the Kappa Delta sorority found answers to this question last night when they held their first annual "Dream Makers." The event, one of the series held by the sorority, was sponsored by the State College Women's Council.

"When a girl reaches her senior year in college she is already planning her life in the sense that she wants to marry and have a family," explained the chairman of the committee. "She decides what she will do after college, and then she plans her future." The chairman went on to say that the "Dream Makers" were an attempt to give women an idea of what a man is looking for in a wife.

The event consisted of a series of pictures painted by the women members of Kappa Delta. Each picture represented a different characteristic of the ideal man. The pictures were displayed in the Student Lounge of the State College and were open to the public. The event was a success, and the sorority members were pleased with the turnout.
