To the Editor:

I am writing to express my concern regarding the recent events at our school. As a member of the student body, I have observed a growing sense of dissatisfaction among my peers, particularly with regards to the administration's handling of certain issues.

Specifically, I believe there is a need for greater transparency and accountability. The recent changes in the student council have raised questions about the selection process and the criteria used to choose new council members. I urge the administration to provide clearer guidelines for future council appointments.

Additionally, I have noticed a lack of engagement from the student body in recent discussions about the university's policies. There is a need for more inclusive and open forums where students can voice their concerns and ideas.

I encourage the administration to consider implementing a feedback mechanism that allows students to regularly input their ideas and suggestions. This could be achieved through regular town hall meetings or an online platform where students can submit comments.

Sincerely,
