Feature Editor Searches Albany For Nijmegen's Burgermeister

Do you know a man who might be a suitable candidate for Nijmegen’s Burgermeister? We are eager to hear from you about your suggestions. In the meantime, we have information on the events of Nijmegen last year and the current planning for this year. The Burgermeister is an important figure in the city, and we believe that it is crucial to have someone who understands the needs of the community. Please share any details you have.

---

Crowning Of Twenty Sixth Campus Queen

To Climax Traditional Ceremony Tomorrow

Sally Johnson To Place Crown On Successor

New Court To Reign Over Soph-Fresh Skills

The twenty-sixth Campus Queen will be crowned tomorrow evening to start the traditional ceremony. Sally Johnson will place the crown on the successor, who will be a Sophomore-Freshman. The new court will be presented with their duties and responsibilities.

---

List Activities For Candidates In “Who’s Who” Assembly To Select Representatives Today

In order to select representatives, the candidates from the “Who’s Who” assembly will be evaluated today. The candidates will present their ideas and visions for the student body, and the assembly will vote on the most suitable representatives.

---

State College Nominees For Queen At Russell Sage Will Participate In Fall Meeting

The State College nominees will participate in the Russell Sage meeting. They will present their ideas and contribute to the discussions.

---

State Preview Of D&A For Assembly

The State Preview of the D&A will take place on campus today. The students will present their ideas and engage in discussions with the assembly.

---

Crowning Of Twenty Sixth Campus Queen

To Climax Traditional Ceremony Tomorrow

The twenty-sixth Campus Queen will be crowned tomorrow evening to start the traditional ceremony. Sally Johnson will place the crown on the successor, who will be a Sophomore-Freshman. The new court will be presented with their duties and responsibilities.

---

Feature Editor Searches Albany

last year's Nijmegen drive? Well, as a result of this city's generosity, one of the papers in this city that porter was not able to be there at

---

Frances Sowa, '48, Secretary; Marternoon searching in order to find requirements for membership and secure an interview with the around the circle in front and over ped in at that point and drove the evening. However, Lady Luck step­ planning to resume her task that
---

Swinyer, Charles Trim, Gerhard
Seniors Stanley Abrams, Eugenia
and William Duncan, freshmen.
---

Marian Hancock, '48, President of
---

Boyleville Pandora News, FRIDAY, OCT. 17, 1947
---

Students Nominate Queen

---

Robert Wilcox, '40, Chairman of
---

Sixth Campus Queen

---

Two apologies by freshmen David
---

News" will come out Wednesday, Marela Quinlan, Lots Oraden and
---

Will Present Plays

To Present Plays

---

For Pedagogue

---

To Take Orders

For Pedagogue

---

Always Buy CHESTERFIELD

---

BOULEVARD CAFETERIA

---

Boulevard CAFETERIA

---

STATE COLLEGE NEWS, FRIDAY, OCT. 17, 1947

---

PAGE 4

---

CHRISTMAS CARDS

PERSONALIZED

ASSORTED

CONTACT B. J. Vaughn
By Student Mall or CALL 2-1847

BOOBS

STATIONERY

STATE COLLEGE CO-OP

CARDS GIFT$
Blind Man’s Bluff

by EDVIGE MACAULAY

During the war years, a good deal was done at that time by the Young Women’s Christian Union of the Red Cross, which seemed to have auburn hair and a hot disposition.

The New Board

By ALICE WILLIAMS

Communications

To the Editor:

We have been asked to write a letter to the editor about the recent collegiate "Wostest". We have discovered it appears to be a popular form of entertainment.

States College News, Friday, Oct. 14, 1947

Boulevard Cafeteria

PHONE 2-9153

"MEAT AND EAT AT THE BOWL"

100 CENTRAL AVENUE

ALBANY, N. Y.

Madison

Sweet Shop

275 MADISON AVENUE

ALBANY, N. Y.

OTTO R. MENDE

SWEET SHOP

109 CENTRAL AVE.

ALBANY, N. Y.

State College News, Friday, Oct. 14, 1947

Witches Howl, Student Dance As Commuters’ Soc-Hop Nears

By COLETTA FITZMONT

State College News, Friday, Oct. 14, 1947

Poll Discloses Student Interest In New Course

State College delegates recently attended a Red Cross Conference at New Rochelle in the interest of joining an activity they are really interested in, or of a type they are interested in, and feel that this could be an opportunity to do some good.

Society Activities For Who’s Who

by ROBERT WILCOX

Donnelly Reports On New York Conference Plan

On October 14, the Board of Directors of the State College of New York at the college of the state university will hold a meeting at the students’ center which will be attended by representatives of the various colleges of the state university of New York. The purpose of this meeting is to discuss the problems of the various colleges and to consider ways of improving the facilities of the state university of New York.

5 Please

Ask for it to order way... find real-world uses more than any other.
For Future Events

women to wear longer skirts. On gram In Assembly will include a de­ more Colleges in the near future.
son on November 3, when a team
George Christy, Sophomores. The invited to come to the next meeting a debate conference to be held on vision station.

Next Friday, October 31, the pro­
State will also send two teams to State. We will send a one-man team to Scheco. The banners must be hidden banners must have been hidden at
Day and not before.

BANNER HUNT ON CAMPUS DAY.

This event will be run as a 30-yd.
all, proving the wisdom of caution.
spike in both football leagues. Repercusscious, by the name of "Bye" sales. Only one en­ sent representatives and Manager of Intra­ ent off the books." Only one en­
"out of business."
Post St. Mary's Election Results

In an election held Thursday at St. Mary's Housing Project, a private residence was chosen from each house by a representative of the Housing Project. After the casting of the ballot, the results were announced at the beginning of the evening by President Peterson. The five students chosen were:

1. C. Rogers Nielsen '48, Editor of the State College News.
2. John Younger, '47, Resident Assistant to the President.
3. Jerry Dunn, '46, Secretary of the Senior Banquet.
4. David Miller, '45, Chairman of the Senior Banquet.
5. Donald B. Swanson, '44, Chairman of the Senior Banquet Committee.

These students were elected to serve as representatives of the Housing Project.

Assembly Today Will Feature Debate On Skirts

Freshmen Will Vote For Class Officers

In a historic first at State, a debate on the question of skirts will be presented by Ocean Crow and John Younger. The debate will be held in the Physical Education Building at 7:30 p.m. Freshmen will vote for the Class Officers to be selected from the field of candidates in a separate election.

Kappa Phi Kappa Names Pledges For This Year

Kappa Phi Kappa, the national sorority for women, has named pledges for the coming year. The new pledges are: Betty Cooper, '48; Margaret Fields, '48; and Mary A. Rega, '50.

Students Elect “Not Plain Jane” Campus Queen

Not Plain Jane campus queen was crowned at a ceremony on Friday afternoon. The election was held in the Physical Education Building, and the winner was announced at the beginning of the evening. The new campus queen is a student in the College of Arts and Sciences, and she is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Assembly Today Will Feature Debate On Skirts

Freshmen Will Vote For Class Officers

In a historic first at State, a debate on the question of skirts will be presented by Ocean Crow and John Younger. The debate will be held in the Physical Education Building at 7:30 p.m. Freshmen will vote for the Class Officers to be selected from the field of candidates in a separate election.

Kappa Phi Kappa Names Pledges For This Year

Kappa Phi Kappa, the national sorority for women, has named pledges for the coming year. The new pledges are: Betty Cooper, '48; Margaret Fields, '48; and Mary A. Rega, '50.

Students Elect “Not Plain Jane” Campus Queen

Not Plain Jane campus queen was crowned at a ceremony on Friday afternoon. The election was held in the Physical Education Building, and the winner was announced at the beginning of the evening. The new campus queen is a student in the College of Arts and Sciences, and she is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Assembly Today Will Feature Debate On Skirts

Freshmen Will Vote For Class Officers

In a historic first at State, a debate on the question of skirts will be presented by Ocean Crow and John Younger. The debate will be held in the Physical Education Building at 7:30 p.m. Freshmen will vote for the Class Officers to be selected from the field of candidates in a separate election.

Kappa Phi Kappa Names Pledges For This Year

Kappa Phi Kappa, the national sorority for women, has named pledges for the coming year. The new pledges are: Betty Cooper, '48; Margaret Fields, '48; and Mary A. Rega, '50.

Students Elect “Not Plain Jane” Campus Queen

Not Plain Jane campus queen was crowned at a ceremony on Friday afternoon. The election was held in the Physical Education Building, and the winner was announced at the beginning of the evening. The new campus queen is a student in the College of Arts and Sciences, and she is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Assembly Today Will Feature Debate On Skirts

Freshmen Will Vote For Class Officers

In a historic first at State, a debate on the question of skirts will be presented by Ocean Crow and John Younger. The debate will be held in the Physical Education Building at 7:30 p.m. Freshmen will vote for the Class Officers to be selected from the field of candidates in a separate election.

Kappa Phi Kappa Names Pledges For This Year

Kappa Phi Kappa, the national sorority for women, has named pledges for the coming year. The new pledges are: Betty Cooper, '48; Margaret Fields, '48; and Mary A. Rega, '50.

Students Elect “Not Plain Jane” Campus Queen

Not Plain Jane campus queen was crowned at a ceremony on Friday afternoon. The election was held in the Physical Education Building, and the winner was announced at the beginning of the evening. The new campus queen is a student in the College of Arts and Sciences, and she is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Assembly Today Will Feature Debate On Skirts

Freshmen Will Vote For Class Officers

In a historic first at State, a debate on the question of skirts will be presented by Ocean Crow and John Younger. The debate will be held in the Physical Education Building at 7:30 p.m. Freshmen will vote for the Class Officers to be selected from the field of candidates in a separate election.

Kappa Phi Kappa Names Pledges For This Year

Kappa Phi Kappa, the national sorority for women, has named pledges for the coming year. The new pledges are: Betty Cooper, '48; Margaret Fields, '48; and Mary A. Rega, '50.

Students Elect “Not Plain Jane” Campus Queen

Not Plain Jane campus queen was crowned at a ceremony on Friday afternoon. The election was held in the Physical Education Building, and the winner was announced at the beginning of the evening. The new campus queen is a student in the College of Arts and Sciences, and she is a member of the Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.