It's Your Bankroll

Student Association's spring bazaar, the bank roll for the coming year. This year's event, which took place this year in the Rotunda at 11 a.m. to 12 noon is the fourth in a series of similar events. The purpose of the bazaar is to raise funds for the Student Association's activities.

The bazaar consists of various booths where students can purchase various items, including crafts, clothing, and food. There will also be raffles and games, with proceeds going to the Student Association.

The bazaar is open to all students and is a great opportunity to support the Student Association and have some fun at the same time. So, mark your calendars and plan to attend this year's bazaar. It promises to be a great day of fundraising and fun!
IM Stages Two: Ramblers Ahead
FALCON ALSO TRIUMPH; MAA PLANS REVISIONS

The Bulletin’s report on these matches draws my attention to several lesser known but considerable factors, according to sources who have attended the events. The Ramblers, under new leadership, are showing promising signs of improvement. Emil Miller’s strategy in handling the瓦特 vs. Mury Bruithwaite, 6-0, 4-6, 6-3. Throughout the season, Miller has demonstrated a consistent level of play that has earned him the respect of his opponents. His recent victory against Bruithwaite, an experienced player, highlights his growing confidence and skill. Miller’s approach to strategy and his ability to adapt to different opponents make him a formidable competitor in the upcoming matches.

In other news, MAA plans revisions to their current plans. These revisions, aimed at improving the overall experience for members, include changes to the schedule and the introduction of new events. The aim is to make sure that all members feel included and engaged in the organization. These changes will be implemented in the next meeting, where members will have the opportunity to discuss and provide feedback on the proposed revisions.

WAA Rivalry Races To Be Held Tomorrow

The Rivalry Captain's report, much like the Ramblers’ report, draws my attention to the upcoming races. The races are set to take place tomorrow, and the excitement is building among fans and participants alike. The event promises to be a great day filled with competitive spirit and friendly rivalry. The WAA Rivalry races are an important part of the school's tradition, and it's a great opportunity for the students to show off their spirit and support their favorite teams.

WAA Net Tournament Entering Second Round

The Tournament Committee’s report confirms that the competition is heating up as the second round of the tournament approaches. The matches have been exciting, and the players are showing their skills and determination. The upcoming matches will be a test of their abilities, and everyone is looking forward to seeing who will emerge as the winners. The WAA Net Tournament is a great opportunity for the players to showcase their skills and for the spectators to enjoy a thrilling day of sports.
