Sailing Club Victorious; Set For Cornell Races

The Albany State Sailing Club won first place in the Inaugural Intercollegiate Invitational regatta at Manhattan College. The team of John T. Caples and John W. Stiefel managed to take the lead early on and never relinquished it. The second place winner was LeMoyne College, followed by Stevens Institute of Technology and Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. The races were held on the Hudson River on October 19th.

Interact Begins Programs For Community

Interact, the University club for high school students, is beginning its programs for the year. The club is organizing various events and activities to engage the local community. The first event is scheduled for next month, which will include a community clean-up day and a presentation by local historians. More details will be announced in upcoming issues of the student newspaper.

Faculty Ratings To Be Disclosed

The results of the faculty rating survey will be disclosed in the upcoming issue of the student newspaper. The survey, conducted by the Student Senate, aimed to gather feedback from students on the quality of instruction and overall experience at the university. The results will be analyzed and published in a comprehensive report to provide insights into the performance of faculty members.

Central Council Hold Referendum

The Central Council is holding a referendum on the student budget for the upcoming academic year. Students are encouraged to participate and express their opinions on various budget allocations. The referendum will be held online, and the results will be announced shortly.

Vote On The Pueblo Crisis

The University community is being asked to vote on the Pueblo Crisis referendum. This issue is a significant one for the university, as it involves the allocation of funds for a community service project. The referendum will be held online, and the results will be announced soon.
