ROYAL KNOX, '31,

ROYAL KNOX, '31, IS THE FIRST MEMBER OF THE SEVENTH CLASS TO ARRIVE AT COLLEGE THIS FALL, AND HE WILL BE THE FIRST MEMBER OF HIS CLASS TO ATTEND THE ANNUAL SUMMER SESSION OF THE STATE COLLEGE FOR TEACHERS.

KAPPA PHI KAPPA
TO HAVE SPEAKER ON TUESDAY NIGHT

Miss Rayburn, will address the members of the University of Kansas chapter of Kappa Phi Kappa society.

Art Council Will Pick
New Members May 15

Two students will be chosen on May 15th, as members of the Art Council. Any student may be selected.

Springtime Brings Reunion

"Babe" Capehart, '22, is visiting friends in New York City, and will be present at the spring reunion of the Kappa Phi Kappa society. He will be present this Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

KAPPA PHI KAPPA
TO HAVE SPEAKER ON TUESDAY NIGHT

Miss Rayburn, will address the members of the University of Kansas chapter of Kappa Phi Kappa society.

KAPPA PHI KAPPA
TO HAVE SPEAKER ON TUESDAY NIGHT

Miss Rayburn, will address the members of the University of Kansas chapter of Kappa Phi Kappa society.

Library

STATE COLLEGE FOR TEACHERS

ALBANY, N. Y.

State College News

Vol. XV No. 25

State College For Teachers, Albany, N. Y., April 10, 1931

25c per Year, 32 Weekly Issues

DIRECTOR REPORTS SUMMER SESSION

Dr. Milton G. Nelson announces News of Summer Session During Summer Session of the State College for Teachers, Albany, N. Y., July 20 to August 21, 1931, and for the following summer session, Dr. Nelson announces:

EITHER OF TWO BRUNETTES WILL BE QUEEN OF CARNIVAL

Helen Henderson and Mary Marston, seniors, were tied in the selection of the queen of the annual carnival of the State College for Teachers, Albany, N. Y., May 13, 1931.

Pygmalion to be Presentation of Dramatic Class

The advanced dramatic class will present "Pygmalion," by George Bernard Shaw, in its annual presentation on Wednesday, May 13, in the auditorium of Page Hall.

Man and Women Have Play Leads

Willoughby Schneider and Robert Zuckerman will be the heroes and heroines in the annual musical comedy which the College's Athletic Association will present next Friday and Saturday nights in the auditorium of Page Hall.

ROYAL KNOX, '31, RECEIVES POSITION

ROYAL KNOX, '31, is the first member of the seventh class to receive an appointment this year. He will be the first member of his class to attend the annual summer session of the State College for Teachers.

ROYAL KNOX, '31, RECEIVES POSITION

ROYAL KNOX, '31, is the first member of the seventh class to receive an appointment this year. He will be the first member of his class to attend the annual summer session of the State College for Teachers.

ROYAL KNOX, '31, RECEIVES POSITION

ROYAL KNOX, '31, is the first member of the seventh class to receive an appointment this year. He will be the first member of his class to attend the annual summer session of the State College for Teachers.
State College News

Established in 1910 by the Class of 1910
The Student Newspaper of State College for Teachers

THE NEWS BOARD

Neta Miller, Editor-in-Chief George P. Rice, Managing Editor

CATHERINE E. BROOKS... Associate Managing Editor

AJAX, 1931... Assistant Editor for Boys

PAUL B. HUNTER... Assistant Editor for Girls

Printed by Miller Press

Published monthly during the school year by the Students of the State Teachers College of Pennsylvania

THE NEWS does not necessarily endorse the opinions expressed by students writing articles. Solicited advertisements are not included in the above statement.

State College News, Vol. XII, No. 20, Thursday, April 13, 1933

State College News

Polish Delegation Blocks League Action; 1932 Meeting Will Be At Rochester

Withdrawal of the Polish delegation from the League of Nations has forced the 1932 meeting from Czechoslovakia to Rochester, New York, the site of the annual meeting of the American Association of University Women.
Seven nominated for 1932 Leader

Candidates for President, Secretary, and Treasurer

The Columbia Spectator took a poll of 200 students in the street to find out their opinion of college.roles, and discovered that the general idea was that the college student spent most of their time in the dining hall.

Only one freshman in four has a chance to stand the grind of college life; according to the president of the Michigan Union.

BUREAU MAY AIDS
SUCCESS OF 1932 LEAGUE MEETING

An attempt to insure the success of the 1932 meeting of the Model League Nations assembly is being assisted by means of correspondence among the various members of the League, to inform related today by the members of the local assembly.

Miss Charlotte Loeb
To Be Hostess at Tea

Miss Charlotte Loeb, head of the French department, will be the chairwoman of the tea and hostess to the students in the Lounge in Richardson hall from 3:30 to 5 o'clock, Wednesday.

The campus commission has requested that all students or organizations advertise in the lower corridor of Husted hall, and to the commission, Avennum, 82, Miss Joan Kline, to advertise in the lower corridor of Husted hall.

It is necessary that in order that the news may be sold to the different organizations, Miss Joan Kline, to advertise in the lower corridor of Husted hall.
Navajo Indians Will Exhibit May 5-9:
Weaving, Sand Painting Are Their Arts

The Navajo Indians and their crafts, which will be brought to State college by Mr. Berton I. Staples, will be exhibited in the dramatics and art department of the college from May 5 to 9. Mr. Staples, who has spent the winter in the Indian reservation, will be in charge of the exhibit which will show the artistry of the Indians in their arts of weaving and sand painting. Mr. Staples is the director of the drama and art department of the college.

He explained their religion and their language, saying that the Navajos are a religious people. They have a great spirit who is called the Mother Earth. They have a belief in this spirit and they also believe in the power of the land. They have a chief who is called the president of the council. The chief of the council is Mr. Staples and he is in charge of the exhibit. He will be on hand to answer any questions about the Navajo Indians and their crafts.

Mr. Staples is a member of the dramatics and art department of the college and he has been working on the exhibit for several weeks. He has been working with the Indian reservation and has been able to obtain a large collection of Navajo Indian arts and crafts. The exhibit will be open to the public and will be located in the dramatics and art department of the college.

WELLSVILLE Art Exhibit
To Be At State Studio

The Wellsville Art Exhibit will be held in the dramatics and art department of the college on May 5-9. The exhibit will feature the works of the Wellsville Art Group and will be open to the public. The exhibit will be located in the dramatics and art department of the college.