POLI SCI CLUB PLANS
THANKSGIVING DINNER

Tuesday evening, November 24, Political Science club will introduce its latest novelty—a Thanksgiving dinner! Plans for the approaching event are going forward rapidly under the direction of Louise Gunn, ’27, chairman. The affair will be featured by unusual entertainments, novel and attractive decorations, and good eats, Miss Gunn said. Miss Ruth Miner, an Albany lawyer has been secured as the speaker of the evening. Artistic place cards will be an added feature of the decorations for which Louise Nottingham, ’27, and Kent Pease, ’27, are the committee. Of course, Poli Sci won't attempt to equal mother's Thanksgiving dinner, but here’s a chance to begin training for the home event two days later.

Polly Sei will initiate on Tuesday evening, November 17. About forty-five candidates, eligible to membership as Polly Sei and managers, will be chosen by its ranks. Ellis Greenway, ’26, is chairman of the initiation. The last meeting, Miss Catherine Doby of the English faculty, spoke delicately on "My Impressions of Paris," and the discussion which followed, especially in public.

The evils of tobacco are no more dangerous to the female than to the male. Tobacco, it is said, "does not kill the species as much as the female of the species, yet lets the dear things continue to bum their cigarettes off its nose."

Grace Seaman, ’27: "I don’t think they should. It is a matter of personal taste. A girl has as much right to smoke as a man, but she should not smoke in public, especially on the campus."

Kent Pease, ’27: "Should girls smoke? Should girls drink coffee? One question is as reasonable as the other. Morals are as intricately involved in the second as in the first, and a nation can never rise above the first.”

"I think the first swimming meet of the season is General Chairman for Affair turned to the students and all the time but fifteen minutes is devoted to actual swimming. Instruction is supervised by Captain H. W. Noyd, ’18, and the free-lancers.

The State College新鲜man team will meet Troy High School on their court.

The yearlings are supposed to have equal rights and if it is proper for a man to smoke it is just as correct for a woman to do so."

"I see this is general chairman, responsibility, problems, Cottrell Swettman, Mildred Paden; distribution, Converse Rammel, Gertrude Maas; Myra Hamman; music, Melissa Grant; Marjorie Oal, Cornelia Williams.

CURSING IN LIFE SAVING GIVEN TUESDAY NIGHTS

Final arrangements have been made for the girls' swimming program of this year. The State swimming team, said President, T. R. DiCorrado, has initiated a program of swimming at State, said President. The increase in interest in the sport has en­couraged the members to participate in the swimming activities at a very small cost. The Public Bath has already been utilized by members of the State on Tuesday nights from 8 to 10 o'clock.

Two classes have been formed. The elementary class classes at nine, at which time the advanced class begins and classes at 10 o'clock. Prerequisites for entrance into the advanced class are the ability to enter water head first, the elementary back stroke, the side, breast, or crawl stroke, and a float. The program of this class consists of an entire course from floating to life-saving.

The elementary class commenced with the float and will continue with the side, breast, or crawl stroke at the option of the swimmer. Strict discipline is enforced in the classes, and all the time but fifteen minutes is devoted to actual swimming. Instruction is supervised by Captain H. W. Noyd, ’18, and the free-lancers.

The first swimming meet of the season will be held December 8. It will be an informal, demonstrative, and amusing form of divining and swimming, notas­cience, and interscholastic events, and the "last class" which partly held for her were narrow, van stretching streets, and old cathedrals.
STUDENTs EXPRESS VARIOUS OPINIONS ON QUESTION OF SMOKING

Esther Jansen, '26: "Whether college girls, or in fact any girls should smoke, should depend entirely upon the physical and mental effect smoking has on the individual girl and upon her own feeling in the matter."

Leda M. McPhee, '26: "College men smoke for the pleasure it affords them. College women have the same privilege if they care to use it. The only reason I can see why they should not use it is that they cannot get as much more pleasure for the same price in some other way."

Olga Hampel, '26, editor of The Quest: "Smoking is a matter of personal taste. I think if there are any bad effects they are physical rather than moral.

Estelle P. Vanderburgh, '29: "I think it is a matter of the woman's opinion. Even though a girl may smoke in her own home, it is none of our business.

Myra Hartman, '27: "I think it is a matter of personal taste.

The Editors of the Quest, in a joint article: "We are not worrying unduly about the actions of the student body. Recognize that it may not be one of the things we like, but we are not going to make a big issue of it."

ATTITUDES IMPORTANT

Our attitude toward a subject will to a very large extent determine our success or failure in that subject. This being true it is vitally important to have the proper attitude toward the thing we have to do. A student who dislikes a subject is not going to get much good from studying it, no matter not the same amount of good as if he cultivated a liking for it. There are yet those who think that to acquire a liking for some subjects is impossible and because of this they do not try. To all such I would like to say that they can prove for themselves that this is a mistaken notion. Interest in some subjects comes natural and easy, but in others only with effort, but the effort must be made if we are to succeed and get out of it what it has for us. There is no development without effort. Students should keep this constantly in mind not only in selecting their subjects but in working at the same. It is very hard to prove that the path of least resistance that many students take to the temptation to spend the energy necessary to overcome the difficulty. Difficulty overcomes work is usually victory won. "The easy roads are crowded, and the level road isannonce, the pleasant little rivers with the drifting folks are crowded.""
