of these groups. For once you may "sit on the experiences of your life. It can give you a well-rounded personality or it can leave you with opinions that have no real basis.

Since there is no valid excuse for its delay, since it loses a bit of the tension and fun that come with the first impressions and advice, asked and unasked. You will be confronted with many new experiences such as life in the dormitories, membership in a college organization or other group. Many of these are part of the State College experience.

This issue of the NEWS is primarily devoted to a combination of the experiences of the freshmen. That is as it should be for the NEWS is the mouthpiece of the freshmen.
