Hunt Addresses Social Studies Teachers Group

"Peace is a way of life and though I respect facts I believe that it would be better to have the facts than to believe them. It is not enough to have peace; we must also make peace. Peace is not an end in itself, but a means to an end. It is not a goal, but a process. Peace is not a state of affairs, but a state of mind. Peace is not a thing that we can have, but a thing that we can be."

A New Board

Another column on this page curious several suggestions to the recent annual meeting and the work of many organizations on campus.

As the situation now stands, all activities must be open to criticism. The statement was made that Women's and the final decision as to what should be open to criticism was made. The President of the Women's Council said that there was a desire for the women to be left alone and that the women should be allowed to take care of the women. Mrs. Mallick, the President of the Women's Council, pointed out that the women were not satisfied with the present situation and that the women should be allowed to take care of their own affairs.

Last semester, Hilli, the President of the Women's Council, returned to the Women's Council and requested that the Women's Council be made more responsible. The Women's Council was then scheduled to be held.
