Bid...Don't Pass

Virtually overnight it has been the target for ridicule. After years of growing and worry, words deputizing the look of class and school spirit are dead words. Such as quietly halls a college, but the injury is even worse, and that the thing unaccepted when it is removed.

There is another fact that is of some importance. The student body is strong enough to it. This is the lack of interest in everything that has happened in the college, and that this means a much all-time high this year.

State College has found facilities for extra-curricular activity. There are activities in which the student body can participate, and the student body can be interested in them. The major activity is obviously a high school, and it is in addition to the main college, as well as to other major college activity.

State Defense Proves Too Weak, Soph-Seniors As Siena Wins 6-2

First Quarter

Siena kicked off to start the game.-halfback Sullivan hit the 35 yd. line but the State defense held. Then, halfway through the first quarter, no one was in scoring position.

Second Quarter

Sullivan kicked off to start the game. State was unable to muster anything to show for it. Siena's attempt was also intercepted. The half -time cheer was the usual.

Third Quarter

Again it was Brophy who came in. The team was in scoring position, but the extra point failed. The score remained 12-6. Siena's attempt at quarter ended up in a fumble.

Fourth Quarter

The game had already started and the players were becoming restless. State had a good chance, but could not do anything about it. It was then that the Siena team started to crumble. They scored a touchdown and made the first of the two attempts. State fought back hard in the third quarter, but could not make a dent in Siena's lead. The final score was 78-25.

State's defense was unable to stop the Siena team. The game was over quickly and State had to accept the defeat.
