The University Library has an estimated of 500,000 books and 7,000 subscriptions to various periodicals. The library is open from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday, from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Friday, and from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Saturday.

The library's collections include a large number of books and periodicals on a wide range of topics, including science, engineering, business, law, social sciences, and humanities. The library also has a significant collection of rare and special materials, including rare books, manuscripts, and archives.

In addition to its print collections, the library has a substantial digital collection, including online databases, electronic journals, and e-books. The library offers a wide range of services to its patrons, including interlibrary loan, reserve services, and research assistance.

The library is committed to providing a welcoming and accessible environment for all patrons. It offers a range of services to support the needs of its diverse community, including accessible resources for patrons with disabilities, and multilingual services for patrons who speak languages other than English.

The library's mission is to support the university's mission of education, research, and community service through the provision of high-quality resources and services. It seeks to foster a culture of learning and intellectual inquiry, and to provide a space for patrons to engage in critical thinking and creative expression.
Open Meeting To Tackle Curriculum Change Reports

by Kathy Raffal

An open meeting to discuss the opening of the College's curriculum change reports has been scheduled for the Campus Center on Monday, December 12, 7 p.m. The task force, comprised of students and faculty members, has been tasked with analyzing various aspects of the current curriculum. The task force is divided into several subcommittees with departments, educational, departmental regulations, and pedagogical aspects.

On the agenda are the following topics:

- Assessment and evaluation of student performance
- Course offerings and requirements
- Faculty workload and compensation
- Technology integration in the curriculum
- Student feedback and satisfaction

The meeting is open to all students, faculty, and staff. We encourage your attendance to provide feedback and suggestions for improving the curriculum at Union College.

Dr. Robert Collins, the chairman of the Academic Council, announced that the presentation on the current curriculum will start at 6 p.m. The meeting will last until late evening.

Although some of the material will be repeated by mail, copies of the presentation will be available at the meeting.

Discussion vs. Debate Probes Policy Check

by Barry Szynalski

"I proposed the current executive branch have over national security policy," said Dr. Peter Green, a member of the faculty. "This proposal was opposed by the President of the University." The debate continued for over two hours in front of a room filled with faculty and staff members.

The purpose of the event was to demonstrate the difference between group discussions and political debates. The political debate is characterized by a lack of coordination and support of all of the present members. This emphasis on the group's ability to follow direction is useful in gathering information.

AFROTTC Applications Available

By Tony Hsu

The Two-Year Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps (AFROTTC) is now being offered by Union College's military department.

SUNYA students may apply for the program during the spring semester, according to Mr. James Wilson, the AFROTTC coordinator. Applications are due by February 15.

The program is designed to provide students with the opportunity to earn a commission in the U.S. Air Force Reserve, which offers a variety of career opportunities.

Bruth Control Reform

by Face Yuan

The University has recently taken steps to reduce birth rates among its student body. The administration has implemented a new policy that will allow students to receive counseling and support services for fertility control.

Birth control services will be offered at a reduced cost to students who are enrolled in the college. The services will be available to all students, regardless of their income level. This policy was introduced in response to the rising number of pregnancies among students.

University Begins 125th Year

by Nancy Durish

On April 1, 1968, the University began its 125th academic year. The celebration was held in the Student Union, and included a keynote address by Dr. Robert Hansen, the president of the University.

The event began with a special assembly in the gymnasium, followed by a convocation in the Memorial Chapel. The day concluded with a reception at the President's House.

The University was founded in 1843 as the Albany Normal College. It has since grown into a comprehensive institution with a strong emphasis on education and research.

The University's current enrollment is over 5,000 students, with a diverse range of majors and programs. The University offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in a variety of fields.

The University is committed to providing a top-notch education to its students, and to fostering a community of learning and growth.

During the 125th anniversary year, the University is planning a series of events and programs to commemorate its rich history and to celebrate its achievements.

The first event of the anniversary year was the convocation on April 1, followed by a series of lectures and conferences throughout the year. The University will also hold a variety of cultural and artistic events to showcase the talents of its students and faculty.

The University is looking forward to a year of celebration and reflection, as it marks its 125th anniversary.
ELEVEN PRESIDENTS GUIDE SCHOOL

By Gale McAllister

In the history of the New York State Teacher's College at Albany, the offices of president have been established with the usual collegiate qualification. The first of this kind was the State Normal School, where it was needed to bring the institution into the national educational field. The first President of The Normal School was John Henry Newman. Another important figure was Alfred W. Doolittle, who was also a member of the first board of trustees. Doolittle was a man with a strong will and a firm hand, who managed to direct the institution towards its future.

In 1880, the first president, John Henry Newman, was succeeded by Dr. J. M. Sayles, who served from 1880 to 1882. He was succeeded by Dr. Joseph Alden, who served from 1882 to 1886. Dr. Alden was a strong and energetic leader, who worked energetically to improve the institution.

In 1886, Dr. J. H. McGraw was appointed as the new president, and he served until 1890. Dr. McGraw was a man of great vision, who was able to transform the old Normal College into the Teachers' College.

In 1890, Dr. Edward P. Waterbury was appointed as the new president, and he served until 1897. Dr. Waterbury was a man of great vision, who was able to transform the institution into a modern college.

In 1897, Kappa Delta is now the oldest sorority on campus. Its function was one of "furthering friendship, loyalty, and the unifying lorce of the school, "reflecting Echo." This was considered the main responsibility of the sororities.

In 1927, the Sophomore Class began the tradition of selecting a Campus Queen. This tradition has continued ever since, and is now a very popular event on campus.

In 1964, the President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

In 1964, the President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

In 1964, the President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

In 1964, the President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

In 1964, the President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

In 1964, the President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

In 1964, the President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

In 1964, the President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

In 1964, the President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

In 1964, the President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

In 1964, the President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

In 1964, the President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The whole school was represented in the history of the school, with a strong majority of students and a small number of faculty members in current times.

The Newman Study was organized in 1949. The proposal for a new school was not brought back to the community. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.

The President of the University, Oliver A. R. New, did not get along with the students. The latter remained basically inactive until 1964, when the first president of the Student Senate was elected. The latter remains basically inactive to the present day.
Among Student Obligations: Attend Chapel Each Morning

by Nancy Dougherty

In 1903, a member of the Student Handbook, published that year, announced that students would be required to attend chapel services every morning. Students were expected to be present at 9 a.m., and the chapel service would conclude at 9:30 a.m. The announcement stated that students who were late or absent would be marked as tardy or absent, respectively. The chapel service was held in the Memorial Chapel on the college campus.

Harvard Radcliffe Chorus Provides Beautiful Music

by Bruce Derbin

The Harvard Radcliffe Glee Club presented a concert on Friday, December 9, 1968 at 7:30 p.m. The concert was held in the Campus Center Auditorium. The Radcliffe Glee Club, founded in 1892, is one of the oldest collegiate glee clubs in the United States. It performs a wide variety of choral music, including both classical and contemporary works.

Drawing, Mental Arithmetic, Orthography Taught Here

by Linda Staszak

The subjects of primary importance in the School of Education were reading, writing, arithmetic, and teaching. Students were taught to apply these skills in practice teaching. In 1874, the School of Education was reorganized, and the curriculum was expanded to include courses in psychology, philosophy, and the natural sciences.

The ornamental arts of the period were taught in the School of Education, which was established in 1887. Students were taught to create works of art, such as paintings and sculptures. The School of Education was renamed the School of Art and Design in 1894.

Christmas Tree Guide Prepared for Students

by Linda Staszak

The Statesmen, the University's male chorus, presented a number of selections Thursday evening during a special choral program of the Music department. Their performance was well done as in the past.

Beethoven's Film Trip: Best Voyage Ever

by Bruce Derbin

The Statesmen, the University's male chorus, presented a number of selections Thursday evening during a special choral program of the Music department. Their performance was well done as in the past.

Cassian To Play Sweet Charity In Review

by Linda Staszak

The Statesmen, the University's male chorus, presented a number of selections Thursday evening during a special choral program of the Music department. Their performance was well done as in the past.

HOLIDAY CHARITY BUSES LEAVING FROM ALL QUADS ON THURS. DEC. 19 AT 4:00PM DIRECT TO:

Hempstead 10:00 S.I.C. 10:00
Huntington 11:00 S.I.C. 11:00
Rochester 12:00 S.I.C. 12:00

TICKETS WILL BE ON SALE DEC. 15 ON ADMISSION
DINNER LINE 8:00-10:00. S.I.C. 9:00-11:00
2:30-3:30 MON. DEC. 16 CAMPUS CENTER 12:00-2:00

FOR INFO. CALL 412-2404

CLASSIFIEDS

THE CAST OF "THE RIVALS" entitled the community college in 1971. Since then, performance has been a high point each season.

Dear Mayor Corning

May 30, 1960

Without a doubt, the anthracite belt of the State University system is a new community of 10,000.

In 1904, a student of the School of Education, by the name of Hans Kohn, was required to attend all chapel services every morning. This requirement was later changed to attend chapel services every other morning. The chapel service was held in the Memorial Chapel.

The importance of this law was that it forced the students to be on time and take advantage of the many cultural advantages offered by the college. The chapel service was an important part of the college's religious and cultural life, with all students attending.

This requirement was later changed to attend chapel services every other morning. The chapel service was held in the Memorial Chapel.

In 1904, a student of the School of Education, by the name of Hans Kohn, was required to attend all chapel services every morning. This requirement was later changed to attend chapel services every other morning. The chapel service was held in the Memorial Chapel.

The importance of this law was that it forced the students to be on time and take advantage of the many cultural advantages offered by the college. The chapel service was an important part of the college's religious and cultural life, with all students attending.

This requirement was later changed to attend chapel services every other morning. The chapel service was held in the Memorial Chapel.

The importance of this law was that it forced the students to be on time and take advantage of the many cultural advantages offered by the college. The chapel service was an important part of the college's religious and cultural life, with all students attending.

This requirement was later changed to attend chapel services every other morning. The chapel service was held in the Memorial Chapel.

The importance of this law was that it forced the students to be on time and take advantage of the many cultural advantages offered by the college. The chapel service was an important part of the college's religious and cultural life, with all students attending.

This requirement was later changed to attend chapel services every other morning. The chapel service was held in the Memorial Chapel.

The importance of this law was that it forced the students to be on time and take advantage of the many cultural advantages offered by the college. The chapel service was an important part of the college's religious and cultural life, with all students attending.

This requirement was later changed to attend chapel services every other morning. The chapel service was held in the Memorial Chapel.

The importance of this law was that it forced the students to be on time and take advantage of the many cultural advantages offered by the college. The chapel service was an important part of the college's religious and cultural life, with all students attending.

This requirement was later changed to attend chapel services every other morning. The chapel service was held in the Memorial Chapel.

The importance of this law was that it forced the students to be on time and take advantage of the many cultural advantages offered by the college. The chapel service was an important part of the college's religious and cultural life, with all students attending.

This requirement was later changed to attend chapel services every other morning. The chapel service was held in the Memorial Chapel.

The importance of this law was that it forced the students to be on time and take advantage of the many cultural advantages offered by the college. The chapel service was an important part of the college's religious and cultural life, with all students attending.

This requirement was later changed to attend chapel services every other morning. The chapel service was held in the Memorial Chapel.

The importance of this law was that it forced the students to be on time and take advantage of the many cultural advantages offered by the college. The chapel service was an important part of the college's religious and cultural life, with all students attending.

This requirement was later changed to attend chapel services every other morning. The chapel service was held in the Memorial Chapel.

The importance of this law was that it forced the students to be on time and take advantage of the many cultural advantages offered by the college. The chapel service was an important part of the college's religious and cultural life, with all students attending.

This requirement was later changed to attend chapel services every other morning. The chapel service was held in the Memorial Chapel.

The importance of this law was that it forced the students to be on time and take advantage of the many cultural advantages offered by the college. The chapel service was an important part of the college's religious and cultural life, with all students attending.

This requirement was later changed to attend chapel services every other morning. The chapel service was held in the Memorial Chapel.

The importance of this law was that it forced the students to be on time and take advantage of the many cultural advantages offered by the college. The chapel service was an important part of the college's religious and cultural life, with all students attending.

This requirement was later changed to attend chapel services every other morning. The chapel service was held in the Memorial Chapel.

The importance of this law was that it forced the students to be on time and take advantage of the many cultural advantages offered by the college. The chapel service was an important part of the college's religious and cultural life, with all students attending.
Danes Record Second Win; Defeat Plattsburgh 64-59

The Great Danes registered their second win of the season this past Tuesday when they defeated Plattsburgh 64-59. This was the second win in a row for the Danes following their opening win last Friday against SUNY Buffalo.

League 1 Basketball

For Women Only

The first half saw more of the same, with the Danes increasing their lead to 13 points by halftime. The second half was a strong performance from the Danes, who went on to win by 25 points. A total of 11 players scored for the Danes, with women's basketball coach Linda Frear cited as having played a key role in the team's success.

Delta Sigma Pi

Arthur R. Kaper

Write All Types of Insurance

Phone 434-4687

VOL. LV NO. 44 - 2

ALBANY, NEW YORK

Tuesday, December 17, 1968

Collins Announces Classes Cancelled

The Faculty-Student Conference was preparing for a meeting to discuss the possibility of holding classes Thursday. According to Duncan Nixon, Director of Student Activities, a decision has not yet been made.

Staff Reporter

In answer to a question of necessity for the sudden rise, according to Dr. John Cromie, whose term will end this month, "It is a long-range plan to alleviate inequalities."

Editor, is a sophomore from Saratoga Springs, who has served as a staff reporter and UPI Wire Editor. From there he went to New York University and the University of New York.

New Editors To Head ASP; Enlightenment Their Goal

Elected to the positions of Co-Editors-In-Chief of the Albany Student Press were Barbara Franchini, Features Editor, and John Yost, Sports Editor. The two new Editors will "attempt to make the ASP a more highly representative all-star team not predicted to finish fifth or sixth teams battling for the league championship."

Notice

When a current professional basketball team, the Albany Senators, plays at the Capitol in November, this newspaper will be offering tickets to students who have earned a B in their classes. The tickets will be given away on a first-come, first-served basis.

Freshman Hoopsters Record First Victory

The Albany State University basketball team defeated STB, 72-67, on Tuesday, November 14. This was the team's first victory of the season, and they moved to 1-0 in conference play.

For Men Only

League 1 All-Stars

Picked For Football

Dr. John F. Collins, President of the University of Albany, made the announcement of the League 1 All-Star Football team. The team consists of the following players:

Zaremba (KB) ends; Jim Caputo (APA) and Mr. X (KB) ends; Tony Reed (EEP) center; Bob Goldstein (KB) linebackers and George Turo (EEP) defensive ends.

The team was paced by the Albany area and alumni who have been supporting the Albany High School football team. The team was also given an award by the Albany Federation of Teachers for their excellence in the classroom.

For Students

The Albany Student Press is the official student newspaper of the University of Albany. It is published weekly and is supported by advertising revenue. The Student Press is independent of the University administration and is run by students.

The Albany Student Press is the official student newspaper of the University of Albany. It is published weekly and is supported by advertising revenue. The Student Press is independent of the University administration and is run by students.