Radio Chess Match Halted
When Washington Says No

by Pete Marchild

As radio personnel of the State College's Station WSKY go about their daily business for the next few weeks, the extended rhythm of the Electric Game, which has been running all afternoon, will be replaced by a deceptively conventional type of broadcast. In the past the WSKY Chess matches have been the most popular segment of the daily program, but this change is not the result of a lack of interest in chess. During the week of March 21st, the station will be featuring the Radio Chess Match — but no chess. Only a commercial or spot advertising for an exhibit or product will be heard from 1:00 to 2:00 and from 5:00 to 6:00. The reason for this is that the WSKY Chess Match is being used to promote a similar tournament to be held in Albany.

Sports Editors Expected

A significant of the interest and excitement all summer at Manhattan College is the fact that additional activities will be introduced by the various sports editors of the college. These includes the planning of a series of events for the benefit of the college, which will be announced soon.

Mr. Van Schultze, '44, was instrumental in getting Coach Bee to speak at the Manhattan College Men's Banquet. The report of the Freshman Orientation Assembly is both a business meeting and a social event. Coach G. Elliott Hatfield's varsity basketball team was selected fair flatbush as the scene of its annual basketball tourney. The seniors, led by Oksala's quartet, having been in all three major events of basketball, baseball, and football, were selected fair flatbush.

FRIDAY, MARCH 28, 1941

VOL. XXV, NO. 10
Swing of the Pendulum

Tomorrow night, the male members of State College's senior honorary campus leadership society, Mykola, will present their annual social and due in their stead, bright colored feathers, bronze, black, rainbow and scarlet bands. Having elected to change in an effort to boost RFC, Mykola has demonstrated itself in the eyes of the student body and has invited to move away from the Great Tradition.

However, in their attempt to demonstrate their organization, they have created a question in the minds of members of Student Association. In their capacity as the judicial body of State College, the Student Association has the power to outlaw the organization because of its affiliation with the Supreme Court. Here, too, there is the question—will Mykola, in their attempt to demonstrate their organization, go to the other extreme and forgo the purposes for which they were originally founded? Will they, in gaining popularity, neglect their other duties?

Their Crises Have Been Answered

The Class of 1941, although faced with a less than brilliant future due to State College's financial straits, has managed to meet its obligations in a most remarkable fashion. It has been stated that the student body is the only group which has taken any real steps toward solving the problem of the financial crisis. The student body has shown a willingness to cooperate with the administration and has demonstrated the ability to solve problems.
