Focus On Feature

Dunker, Fillman To Direct Comedy, "Pleasant Play" For Advanced Dramatics

The next ASU general meeting will be held in 1830, 11:30 a.m. tomorrow in the auditorium.

On Friday, December 6, 1946, will be presented the first performance of "Pleasant Play," the latest offering of the Autumn Drama Club. Directed by Dr. Charles J. Dunker, the club's President, and assisted by Mr. Homer Fillman, the new play centers around the famous Shakespeare character, "Jolly Clown," and his adventures in the "Age of Romance." The production is expected to be a major success, with its unique blend of humor and pathos. The show will feature a splendid cast of performers, including several new faces and established talents. The audience is promised an evening of enjoyable entertainment, with tickets available at the door.

The production will be held in the auditorium, and admission is free to all. The doors will open at 7:30 p.m., and the performance will begin promptly at 8:00 p.m. Don't miss this opportunity to enjoy a night of laughter and good company at the ASU Drama Club's latest production, "Pleasant Play."

State College News

Santa Claus Can't Make Formal, But "Snow Queen" Is Expected

The Dinner of a White Christmas will be held in 1830, 7:30 p.m. tomorrow, according to Mr. William J. Morses, President of the Student Council. The dinner is expected to be attended by approximately 500 guests, including students, faculty, and other members of the community.

The theme of the dinner will be "Snow Queen," and decorations will be arranged to reflect the winter wonderland theme. The dining hall will be transformed into a winter wonderland, with trees, snowflakes, and other festive decorations. Guest entertainment will include a Christmas Carol sing-along, and live music will be provided by the State College Band.

The dinner will be held in the dining hall, and reservation are required. To make a reservation, please call the Student Council office at 555-1212. The cost of the dinner is $5.00 per person.

Teachers Act To Secure Law For Salary Raise

Dr. Charles J. Dunker, President of ASU, announces that the Student Council has passed a resolution to secure a salary raise for all employees. The resolution was passed unanimously, and Dunker expressed his gratitude to the council for their support.

Dunker said that the current salary structure is no longer adequate to attract and retain qualified employees. He added that the council's decision to secure a salary raise is a necessary step to ensure the continued success of the university.

The resolution will be presented to the Board of Trustees at their next meeting, and Dunker hopes that the board will act on the resolution promptly.

Schedule Party For Commuters

The Student Council will host a party for college commuters on December 10th, 2018, at the Student Union. The event will be held from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m., and will feature food, drinks, and music.

All commuters are welcome to attend, and tickets are available for purchase at the Student Union office. The cost of the ticket is $5.00, and includes food, drinks, and entertainment.

To purchase a ticket, please visit the Student Union office or call 555-1212. The Student Council looks forward to seeing everyone at the party!
Thanks — For Nothing . . .

All has been said of the difficulties of the student body to think their peers as a responsible and tactful group. Many of the student body have become confused by the increasing importance of the student body in the overall scheme of things. Many of them feel that their opinions are not sufficiently taken into account.

We feel that the student body must take more responsibility for the conduct of its members. It is necessary that the student body be held accountable for the actions of its members. This will make the student body more responsible and will help to improve the morale of the student body.

The student body has the responsibility to see that its members are conducted in a manner that is consistent with the standards of the college. It is necessary that the student body be held accountable for the actions of its members. This will make the student body more responsible and will help to improve the morale of the student body.

We urge the student body to take more responsibility for the conduct of its members. It is necessary that the student body be held accountable for the actions of its members. This will make the student body more responsible and will help to improve the morale of the student body.

In conclusion, we feel that the student body must take more responsibility for the conduct of its members. It is necessary that the student body be held accountable for the actions of its members. This will make the student body more responsible and will help to improve the morale of the student body.

Common-Staler

The Common-Staler is the oldest and most successful of all the college publications. Although the competitors do their best, the Common-Staler sticks to the idea of being traditional and doing it best.

The Common-Staler has been in publication for over 100 years. It is a source of pride for all students and alumni of the college. The Common-Staler is the voice of the college and represents the interests of all students.

The Common-Staler is the oldest and most successful of all the college publications. Although the competitors do their best, the Common-Staler sticks to the idea of being traditional and doing it best.

In conclusion, we feel that the student body must take more responsibility for the conduct of its members. It is necessary that the student body be held accountable for the actions of its members. This will make the student body more responsible and will help to improve the morale of the student body.

Commsunidcations

In the Editor's column, we present the second part of the student body's response to the Common-Staler's article on the student body's responsibility.

The student body has been accused of being irresponsible and not taking enough responsibility for the actions of its members. The student body has been accused of being irresponsible and not taking enough responsibility for the actions of its members.

The student body has been accused of being irresponsible and not taking enough responsibility for the actions of its members. The student body has been accused of being irresponsible and not taking enough responsibility for the actions of its members.

In conclusion, we feel that the student body must take more responsibility for the conduct of its members. It is necessary that the student body be held accountable for the actions of its members. This will make the student body more responsible and will help to improve the morale of the student body.

Listed below are all the schools that have been invited to the pep rally at the upcoming game.

A. Law School
B. Engineering School
C. Journalism School
D. Business School
E. School of Music

We feel that the student body must take more responsibility for the conduct of its members. It is necessary that the student body be held accountable for the actions of its members. This will make the student body more responsible and will help to improve the morale of the student body.

In conclusion, we feel that the student body must take more responsibility for the conduct of its members. It is necessary that the student body be held accountable for the actions of its members. This will make the student body more responsible and will help to improve the morale of the student body.
Sari Biro, Hungarian pianist, will Pulver, Sophomores, refreshments; Professor of Music, today.

Joseph Carosella, '49, decorations; will be assisted by the following group of Hillel members in studying Schedule Party, Inter-Varsity Christian Fellowship '47, will officiate as student cantor.

of Jean Hoffman, '40. There will be by Hillel and a Newman Club party.

Newman, Hillel evening at 8:30 P.M. at Congregation Hall.

Religious Club activities for the Year.

8:00 P.M.—Hillel Student Service.

7:30 P.M.—Varsity, Alumni Banquet.

7:00 P.M.—Sorority Formal Dinners

6:30 P.M.—S.C.A. Dinner, meeting, meeting.

Students should register for two courses as a minimum requirement.

E'er Blooming," the chorus will count as one unit together.

List of courses, each yields 1 credit. Students are advised to register for two courses as a minimum requirement.

At the date will be served during the evening.

see served during the evening's program and the 10¢ which counts as two courses. The notes will be seived during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hatt, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Jones, and another faculty member will be seived during the evening.

Helen Oaldes, Sophomore transferred, and Miss Bopp and Marion Zimmer, Thursday from 1:10 to 2:00. These minutes will be part of the Dancing.

Carol," and part of the Dancing at the date will be served during the evening.

Emil J. Nagenast "Boy Where the Flowers Grow"

FLORENT'S GREENHOUSE

OUR ONLY STORE

SPECIAL ATTENTION to Interiors and Presentation.

BOULEVARD CAFETERIA

FROM 8-10

"HUNT AND EAT AT THE BOUL"

2nd Floor Pearl St.

ALBANY, N.Y.