Class Rivals Plan 'Hickling' Debate

The Finance Board is considering the possibility of a debate on the topic of "Isolation," to be held in the Student Union. The debate will be conducted in the form of a "Hickling" style, which is a form of debate that is popular in the United States. The debate will be held on the second floor of the Student Union, and will be open to all students.

Competition

The following is a "first edition" of "Test Book," a product of the press of State college, which was recently plastered on the walls of our campus.

"Publish the thoughts of minorities, and is bound to seize the last rope and hog-tie them," was recently stated by one of our faculty members. This statement is a direct quote from the book, and it is one of the few that have not been altered by the press.

Under no circumstances should the following be repeated: "Opening up "cloned corporation*.

In conclusion, it is the story of a young Negro who has been unjustly treated by society. But, as with many other stories, the truth is always stranger than fiction.

Policy

It would seem from the above paragraph that the State College News is biased, unwilling to publish the truth. The News Bureau states in its charter that it is the duty of the bureau to publish all news that is in the public interest, and this is not the case.

Duke Daley's Dozen Will Divert
Dancers at Sororal Celebration

Duke Daley, senior, was entertained recently at the banquet and for the last time by the sorority, Kappa Phi Kappa. At the closing, a surprise party was held in honor of Duke Daley. It was the first time a sorority in this college has held a surprise party for a senior. All of the sorority members and a few of the fraternity brothers attended the party.

The sorority members were: Doris L. Smith, treasurer, and Kappa Phi Kappa representative; Mary E. Smith, president; Dorothy M. Smith, vice president; and Wanda M. Smith, secretary. The fraternity brothers were: Stanley Smith, president; and Donald M. Smith, secretary.

The sorority members were entertained by the fraternity brothers, who presented them with gifts and a farewell message. The sorority members were also treated to a midnight snack and a midnight show. The sorority members were then presented with a car, which was the highlight of the evening. The car was donated by the fraternity brothers and was presented to the sorority members as a token of appreciation.
