1933 ROUND TABLE
WILL OPEN FRIDAY
IN 11:10 ASSEMBLY

The third event in interclass rivalry will take place in the 11:10 assembly meeting when the forum entrees and freshmen compete in the singing of original and college songs. Helen Horton, '33 president of the forum, will serve as chairman for the song. The seniors will be seated on the left side of the auditorium and the freshmen on the right. The first song, "From this City," will be sung by both groups after which each class will sing its class song. An original song, "State Song," will be sung by the seniors. The song leaders, who will sing solo, are: Miss Sherry, accordionist of Park Hill, Miss Virginia W. Wilson, 20, and Miss Ethel, organist of the same school. Dr. H. W. C. Bodoni, director of music, will instruct the seniors, and Miss Agnes F. Van Wyck, director of music, the freshmen. Mr. H. C. Hruska, principal, and Mr. M. F. Thompson, assistant principal, will conduct the music. These dormitories will be given immediately after the assembly and the living hall, music council, will serve as chairman for dormitory interclass rivalry. The present classes are: for seniors' dormitories the third event in interclass rivalry was held; present classes are: for freshmen' dormitories, the third event in interclass rivalry was held.

FRIENDLY RIVALRY

The in-class singing in the student assembly this morning marked the second important phase of rivalry between the freshmen and sophomore classes. The note is rivalry in its truest, fairest, and most healthy form.

The friendly feelings and interests which are brought out in the rivalry contests, and the spirit of co-operation which engenders their friends and supporters, are the best guarantees of a wholesome type of college life.

The fresh-some and sophomore classes have not been idle this week. The Freshman class participated in the Monday evening meeting of the state college news in the Linden room, and the Sophomore class participated in the Tuesday evening meeting, which was devoted to the planning of the Sophomore class officers.

The Sophomore class officers were elected by secret ballot, and the Sophomore class met in the Linden room for the election of their officers. The candidates for office were as follows: President, Beulah R. Dyer; Vice-President, Charles W. Smith; Secretary, F. C. King; and Treasurer, L. M. Johnson.

Cigarettes, like Foods — need Seasoning

That's the part Turkish Tobaccos play in making Chesterfields Taste Better

SMOKERS notice a certain "touch" in Chesterfields that comes from having just enough Turkish tobacco in them ... a spicy, aromatic flavor that's much the same to a cigarette as seasoning is to food.

For only by blending and cross-blending the right amounts of mild Domestic tobaccos with the right amount of Turkish can we get the flavor and aroma that Chesterfield smokers enjoy.

Next time, ask for "The Cigarette that Satisfies" — you'll get Chesterfields, with Milder, Better Taste.
THE COLLEGIATE WHIRL

The coaching staff at the University of Texas trains the athletes by having them make rounds of the campus to pick up stray pieces of paper. A student at the University of Texas received news of being selected as a member of the baseball team in the first person. One of the papers he received was entitled "Adam."
