DR. BRUBACHER SPEAKS AT NEWBURGH

Dr. Brubacher went to Newburgh last Tuesday as the principal speaker of the Go-to-School Week celebration of the Chadwyck Club. A National Go-to-School Week has been organized by Commissioner Claxton, and all schools and civic bodies are recognizing it with programs.

CHRISTMAS RECESS OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED

FROSH AND SOPHS ERECT HOCKEY RINK

Coach Snavely fixed up the Frosh-Soph gym class for our practical work last week. His strong-arm squad turned out in force, and soon had the boards for the hockey rink on the Campus. Our new welter-weight losing champion, Flynn, chose the weaving with his plow, and the sledge hammer as a part of his training for his bout with "Knockout." Mr. Sprague in another of our physical education classes reported him as carrying one plank entirely unaided from the science building to the gym.

The Coach's cohorts were all invited workers, but showed a sad neglect in the art of using a hammer in pulling spikes. The manager found several without heads scraping the ground after the session.

So far the weatherman has been unable to make any predictions upon our chances for a snow sign, but in all probability before the New Year's vacation ends the risk will be in shape for scaling and interclass hockey games.

Drummond devises a game for the 8th of January at Clinton with the State College team, but this early date may not be acceptable because of the uncertainty in organizing the team. Several other colleges have written for games, but no definite schedule has as yet been arranged. Coach Snavely predicts a greater interest this year in hockey than ever before. A class schedule will be posted soon after vacation.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR JUNIOR PROM

To be Held at Ten Eyck

The Junior Promenade will take place shortly after Christmas vacation. Everyone should come back prepared for its as well as for mid-year examinations. The committee is working to make this grand all that it should be and one of the best that State College has ever held. It will be held on February 4th, in the Ten Eyck hall room. An exceptionally good orchestra has been engaged and the prom is expected to be a great success.

Some new and original ideas will be shown in the orders. The events are to be more unusual than usual, and the arrangement on the inside will be novel.

Since the ancient Junior Class is small, there will be a larger number of ties than usual for Sophomore and Seniors, who probably won't have to be urged to take this opportunity of going to a Junior prom.

The price of bids is four dollars, and everyone is asked to sign up as soon as possible.

State loses close game to Union

Purple and Gold Quiet Pentad Outscores Garnets in Second Half.

Union won a first game from State College in the Union College gymnasium last Saturday against a superior team. The contest was interesting and exciting throughout, and the issue was in doubt right up to the final whistle.

State College basketball management provided charters for the Purple and Gold back- ers, and many of them journeyed to Schenectady to support their team. While the two quintets were racing up and down the court in pursuit of the ball, the rooters from both colleges gave some spirited cheers, especially in the second half. The Garnet five came back and threatened to take the game away from the Garnets.

Brucker started the game for Union, guarding the ball from the Purple and Gold for a few seconds. Then, by a brilliant attack, Union gained a five-point lead before State broke into the scoring. John son opened up for the Purple and Gold from the foul line, and Hatherlin followed with a field basket. The Garnet five regained their speedy offensive, and by a series of difficult plays they forced State's own defense. Johnson opened up for the Purple and Gold from the foul line, and Hatherlin followed with a field basket. While the two quintets were racing up and down the court, the Purple and Gold were leading by two points. Brucker started Union off with a field point, followed by a few points. The Garnets followed this up with two field baskets before State struck the pace again.

Cassavant came through with a neat basket from the side of the court. Brucker followed it with a spectacular overhead shot. State scored on a foul and then Johnson made a sensational basket on a fast break from the front line, and Hatherlin followed with a field basket. The Garnet five regained their speedy offensive, and by a series of difficult plays they forced State's own defense. Dr. Finley Speaks in Student Assembly

We commemorate the tercentenary of the landing of the Pilgrims in student assembly on Friday, December 10. The choral, under the direction of Dr. Thompson, gave "The Hymn of the Pilgrims." Dr. Brubacher expressed his own love for State College, and introduced Dr. Finley. Dr. Finley thought that it was not appropriate for him to speak on this occasion, but his words were very interesting to those who were present. He spoke of the need for keeping the faith, and the necessity of having the spirit of the Pilgrims in all things.

STATE COLLEGE MEN HOLD SMOKE

The men of State College held the first of their annual smokers and get-togethers last Friday night in the college gymnasium. Promptly at seven o'clock all the men, both faculty and students, gathered to break the clack of gentlemen and peacefulness, which are characteristic of our faculty, and cheer games in full swing and sparkling apple wine flowing freely. The Union basket was converted into a typical bachelor's basket, and the men's committee turned it into a ranabout.

THE ALBANY INSTITUTE AND HISTORICAL AND ART SOCIETY OPEN TO STATE COLLEGE STUDENTS

When once is taken the prescribed course of study for a definite objective, there come times when one gets weary with going over and over the same things, and there are two ways of seeking relief and enjoyment: one is to get well away from the familiar and the other to turn to different interests and, even though this can be only a brief diversion, it has an invigorating and educative effect. The student is just so much better equipped. Albany offers both of these remedies. There is a great bit of fresh, Albany air; outdoors, one of the few things in this city the college students can get for nothing, and the other is access to the splendid art collections of the Albany Institute, which is just as fresh as the air. This Society asks the student body to make use of not only in the essay contest will comprise essays of not less than 600 words, and may be written by anyone who is a member of the college. The essay must be on some subject assigned to the schools by the committee, which is composed of the judges, who are to be announced. The essays will be judged on the basis of originality, coherence, and quality of expression. The student who submits the best essay will receive a prize of $50, and the second prize will be $25. The final had passed through the "helpless feeling" stage, you would and by the time you had thoroughly angry with yourself. But what would that avail? It would not prevent the trip—especially if there be no cure.

Do we at State College look upon our Alma Mater as a friend who waits for us, and starts us on our journey without making any demand? I think we do. And we're the one to blame if we ever forget her when the spirit of the Class of '21 is upon us. We love our Alma Mater, and our love for our friends.

Now is the acceptable time: put "Gift for Alma Mater" at the top of your list now, and avoid possibilities of remorse in the future.

Myself, I don't think we can do much about that.

For the kind of gift? Something that always seems kindly received—Why not you? We have here is hardly an organization that needs you as much as State college orchestra. Than a year ago it was born of the spirit of the Class of '21. To-day it is the alma mater of 100 members, and the college orchestra, and the college makes it a reality. The next event was a volley ball game between a faculty and a student team. Birchenough, Boyson, Brown, Hastings, Kennedy, and Risley, played for the faculty, while Baldwin, Gray, Hill, Neuner, Osborne, and Strain played for the students. The faculty put it all over the students, as is their habit, to the tune of 21 to 11. Coach Snively refereed the game, and Putnam acted as scorer.
