Fresh Diamond Dams Face Hard Schedule

Continued from a previous page... The annual women's basketball tournament sponsored by the New York State Athletics Conference will begin on Monday, April 16. Eighteen teams are competing in the event, including North Adams, Plattsburgh, Henry's Jewelers, Owego, and Chemung.

Two members of the SUNY Albany basketball team are expected to participate in the tournament. Faye Nolan and Patrice Johnson will be part of the SUNY Albany team. Nolan is a senior forward and Johnson is a junior guard.

Gal Hoopsteppers End Season

The Gal Hoopsteppers ended their season with a 13-3 record. They lost in the first round of the NCAA Tournament to the University of Pennsylvania. The team finished second in the America East Conference.

Contact Your Legislators Oppose the Budget Cut

SYMMETRY - FROM $1.25

Three interested in hosting women's basketball teams as part of the NCAA Tournament. They include the SUNY Albany team, the SUNY Stony Brook team, and the SUNY Buffalo team.

Over 1100 Students and Faculty Turned Out for a March on the SUNY Budget

Over 1100 students and faculty turned out for a march on the SUNY budget on April 6. The rally was held on the campus of SUNY Albany and was part of a statewide protest against state funding cuts to SUNY. The rally was organized by the SUNY Student Senate and was attended by SUNY students from across the state.

Committee Approves New Housing Policy

The Committee on Student Housing has recommended a new policy that allows students to live off-campus next semester. The policy will go into effect when approved by President Evan Collins.

Student Council Approves Student Housing Policy

The Student Council has approved the new policy recommended by the Committee on Student Housing. The policy will go into effect when approved by President Evan Collins.

Council Meets Tomorrow To Receive Final Reports

The Council will meet tomorrow to receive final reports on a number of important issues, including the budget, student housing, and academic affairs. The Council will also discuss the possibility of forming an advisory committee to handle student housing issues.

SUNY Student Budget Cut Protest

The SUNY Student Senate has launched a protest against state funding cuts to SUNY. The protest includes a series of rallies and events, including a march on the SUNY budget on April 6.

Scope to Sponsor Voter Rights Rally Sunday Afternoon

The Scope Community Organization will sponsor a voter rights rally on Sunday afternoon. The rally will be held on the SUNY Albany campus and will feature speeches from local community leaders.

Call for a Graduate Student Union

The SUNY Albany Graduate Student Union has called for a meeting of all the graduate students on campus to discuss the possibility of forming a union. The union would represent the interests of graduate students and would work to improve their working conditions.

Submit your comments to the editor at NEOC 1st Floor, SUNY, Albany,
SCOPE Organizes for Rights Project

Issues Call for Money, Members

The SCOPE Organization held a meeting on Thursday, November 29, to discuss the rights project. The project is aimed at raising funds and members to support the rights movement. SCOPE is a student organization that works to advance the rights of marginalized communities.

Academic Calendar Announced

Provides for New Campus Shift

The State University of New York at Albany has announced the academic calendar for the 2018-2019 academic year. The new calendar includes a shift to a semester system, with the fall semester starting on August 27 and the spring semester starting on January 8.

Golden Eye Panel To Discuss Poverty

Issues Call for Money

The Golden Eye Panel is organizing an event to discuss poverty and its ramifications. The panel will include three members who have dealt with poverty: Marilyn Golden, executive director of the Golden Eye Panel; Richard Colman, executive director of the Golden Eye Panel; and Robert Hayes, executive director of the Golden Eye Panel.

Forum Discusses Population Rise

Other materials in pamphlet form will be distributed to the audience. The forum will address issues related to population rise and its effects on the environment.

Counseling Service Circulates Booklet

The Counseling Service is circulating a booklet to inform students about the services offered. The booklet includes information on how to access counseling services and the benefits of seeking help.

Cooperative Loan Association Selects Officers

The Cooperative Loan Association has selected officers for the upcoming academic year. The officers include Board Chairman, William Levar; Chairman of the Board, William Levar; and Secretary, William Levar.

The forum will consider the vast changes in the population and the implications for education and society.

Sororities Host Recruitment Sessions

Members of sororities are involved in recruitment sessions to welcome new members. These sessions are an opportunity for potential members to engage with current members and learn more about the sororities.

Some articles are relevant to current discussions and debates on rights, poverty, and population rise. The forum comments on population rise and its effects on the environment while the booklet from the Counseling Service offers guidance on accessing counseling services.

Exciting New Designs

The 'UNIVERSITY RING'

The 'UNIVERSITY RING' is now available at Gerald's Drug Co. in Albany, N.Y. The ring is a symbol of university pride and can be ordered online or in store. The ring is priced at $100 and is available in various sizes.

A new line of student union snacks is also available, including shrimp steak with French fries and lettuce & tomato. The snacks are available at the Student Union snack bar.

Knot your Mother's Day and Father's Day gifts now

Knit N' Time Yarn Shop at 32 Western Ave. has a variety of gifts for Mother's Day and Father's Day. Choose from a wide selection of yarns and knitting supplies to create unique and thoughtful gifts for your loved ones.

How to Plan Your Engagement and Wedding

The Albany Student Press is delighted to announce the launch of a new section dedicated to engagement and wedding planning. This section will provide valuable resources and tips for the soon-to-be-married, from choosing the perfect ring to selecting the ideal venue.

Editors Announce Distribution

Distribution of 'Student Science Journal' will be expanded to increase its reach and impact in the scientific community. This expansion will include new distribution points and partnerships with leading universities and research institutions.
Students, Faculty Join in Protest-Budget Cut

The proposed $66.8 million legislative reduction in the budget of the State University of New York at Albany presents a great deal of interest on this campus last week. Throughout the efforts of Provisional Council's Committee on Budget for the Restoration of the Proposed Legislative Cut of the SUNY budget, much of this bitterness was channeled into constructive action on the part of the students and faculty.

This committee, under the chairmanship of Harold Lynne, worked throughout the weekend distributing fact sheets, urging students to contact their parents, local school boards and anyone else who might be able to exert pressure on the legislators, publicizing the SUNY budget issue through local newspapers, radio and television, and making the final preparations for the march.

Most of the initial preparations for the march had been done by a group of students at the New Campus.

March Inspires University

Eleven hundred students of the university showed the change that has come over the campus in roughly the last six months. Students and faculty combined for several hours last Monday to complete a successful march in protest of a crisis that they all hold in common.

Although the march was organized and publicized in a comparatively short space of time, it proved to be very well done. It was indeed a "uniquely orderly and well-disciplined" attempt on the part of the entire university community to demonstrate its base of academic excellence.

Surrounding the event of the march was an aura of hesitancy emanating from many aspects of the student body and faculty. Various conflicting opinions concerning the relevancy and objectiveness of a march were continually discussed. However, by the time the march began from Decker Hall, we detected an increasing attitude in the arts, one of uncertainty and perplexity. We could almost see the bonds of apathy being shaken off, producing an enthusiastic flourish.

The fact that many faculty members marching in the support of the students-initiated idea served to create a real understanding between both groups that normally carry on nothing but "dialogue." Pride in the faculty of the State University of New York at Albany produced an animation and desire to see the issues through on all sides.

Administrative support for the protest of the budget cut was the necessary addition for the complete success of the march. Once the students demonstrated the new identity of the university, it was a matter of the students taking control from the powers that be and demonstrating the right to the campus and to the university; something that the students have to recognize.

At the last of the journey around the capitol, Marchers were met by a large crowd of faculty and students with a great spirit of enthusiasm and pandemonium.

Marchers and Marching

Students and faculty combined for a successful march in protest of the SUNY budget cut. The march proved to be "uniquely orderly and well-disciplined." Both students and faculty demonstrated their bases of academic excellence.

An Open Letter

An Open Letter to Students and Faculty

We would like to take this opportunity to express the numerous demands for a march, and we would like to commend the students who have done an outstanding job in organizing and maintaining the march.

Housing Policy Sound

The recent survey conducted by the Committee on Student Housing to obtain reactions from the students on the campus was very revealing. The majority of the students strongly favor the University's policy of housing students in dormitories.

The fact that many faculty members marching in the support of the students-initiated idea served to create a real understanding between both groups that normally carry on nothing but "dialogue." Pride in the faculty of the State University of New York at Albany produced an animation and desire to see the issues through on all sides.

Administrative support for the protest of the budget cut was the necessary addition for the complete success of the march. Once the students demonstrated the new identity of the university, it was a matter of the students taking control from the powers that be and demonstrating the right to the campus and to the university; something that the students have to recognize.

At the last of the journey around the capitol, Marchers were met by a large crowd of faculty and students with a great spirit of enthusiasm and pandemonium.
Zing into spring! in a new Chevrolet

Summerhill Student Controls School Of Pedagogical Learning

By Larry Gamble

A 1. 1965-1966 Student Controls School Of Pedagogical Learning, a program of the Student Government of Summerhill, will meet on the proposed 1965-1966 academic year. The program will be held on Tuesday evenings at 8:30, at the Institute of Education, 1148 Western Avenue, Albany, New York.

The program will consist of a series of lectures, discussions, and informal gatherings, designed to provide an opportunity for students to learn more about the principles and practices of pedagogical learning. The program will be open to all students interested in the field of education, and will provide a forum for the exchange of ideas and the development of new ideas.

The program will be divided into three parts: (1) the Summerhill philosophy of pedagogical learning, (2) the practical applications of pedagogical learning, and (3) the evaluation of pedagogical learning. Each part will be presented by a group of experts in the field, and will be designed to provide a comprehensive understanding of the principles and practices of pedagogical learning.

The program will be held on Tuesday evenings at 8:30, at the Institute of Education, 1148 Western Avenue, Albany, New York. To register for the program, please contact the Student Controls School Of Pedagogical Learning at 1148 Western Avenue, Albany, New York, 12203.

Saul Bellow Wins Book Award

By Robert Ryn, Time FYA

Saul Bellow, the popular novelist, has been awarded the 1965-1966 Book Award by the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. The award, which is given to the author of the best novel of the year, was presented to Mr. Bellow for his novel "Humboldt's Gift," which was published last year.

The award was presented on Tuesday, April 10, at the Academy's annual meeting in New York City. The award was presented to Mr. Bellow by the Academy's president, H. L. Mencken, who praised Mr. Bellow's "Humboldt's Gift" as a "lyrically written and masterfully crafted" novel.

The award is given annually to the author of the best novel of the year, as determined by a panel of judges selected by the Academy. The judges, who are chosen from among the Academy's members, include prominent novelists, writers, and critics.

The award is given to the author of the best novel of the year, as determined by a panel of judges selected by the Academy. The judges, who are chosen from among the Academy's members, include prominent novelists, writers, and critics.

The award is given annually to the author of the best novel of the year, as determined by a panel of judges selected by the Academy. The judges, who are chosen from among the Academy's members, include prominent novelists, writers, and critics.

The award is given annually to the author of the best novel of the year, as determined by a panel of judges selected by the Academy. The judges, who are chosen from among the Academy's members, include prominent novelists, writers, and critics.

The award is given annually to the author of the best novel of the year, as determined by a panel of judges selected by the Academy. The judges, who are chosen from among the Academy's members, include prominent novelists, writers, and critics.

The award is given annually to the author of the best novel of the year, as determined by a panel of judges selected by the Academy. The judges, who are chosen from among the Academy's members, include prominent novelists, writers, and critics.

The award is given annually to the author of the best novel of the year, as determined by a panel of judges selected by the Academy. The judges, who are chosen from among the Academy's members, include prominent novelists, writers, and critics.

The award is given annually to the author of the best novel of the year, as determined by a panel of judges selected by the Academy. The judges, who are chosen from among the Academy's members, include prominent novelists, writers, and critics.

The award is given annually to the author of the best novel of the year, as determined by a panel of judges selected by the Academy. The judges, who are chosen from among the Academy's members, include prominent novelists, writers, and critics.
Talented Ped Netkoms
Strong in Team Depth

Departmental, a rare occurrence in the doubles championship by defeating the hoopsters clinched the WAA basketball championship.

The women of MYSKANIA

John Costello will be battling it out for first place in a foul shooting contest. John DeNeef and Vincent Quinn tied for first last year.

On April 9, 1937, sharpshooters finished second in their attempt to equal last year's mark of 8-2.

On April 8, 1927, a chess club opened at the New Campus.

By Ray McCloot

A Look into Sports History

Win a Honda just for being born

Two programs on the Student Affairs Committee budget were approved by the Finance Committee and then sent to the Student Association for approval. The Student Association then sent these programs to the Finance Committee of the Provisional Council for approval.

JUNIOR VARSITY Two heroes about to make a tremendous shot in a doubles match during last year's season.

ASp * Sports

Win a Honda just for being born

A Look into Sports History

Win a Honda just for being born

Two programs on the Student Affairs Committee budget were approved by the Finance Committee and then sent to the Student Association for approval. The Student Association then sent these programs to the Finance Committee of the Provisional Council for approval.

On the return trip, a stop will be made at the New Campus.

Included in the ASP budget are the following:"