SUNYA Bus Service Reduced
Wellington and Trailways Route Cut

by Susan Milligan

The loss of two SUNYA buses, one to the College of New Rochelle and one to SUNY at Brockport, has hit the campus hard. This month, Wellington and Trailways will be operating the SUNY bus system, leaving the SUNY students in the dark about the new schedule. The students are concerned about the safety of the new riders, as well as the possible increase in the service fee.

Wellington and Trailways have taken over the SUNY bus system, with the exception of the Pine Hills route. Although Stevens feels the loss, he believes it is the best solution for the riders.

The change most angering riders, however, is the increase in service fees. Stevens has said that the increase will be $100 over the next few years if the SUNY Board of Trustees goes through with its plan to increase the service fee.

According to Stevens, riders on Wellington and Trailways routes have the option to take the SUNY bus and then a Wellington bus, or vice versa. The riders have the flexibility to choose the best option for them.

The new schedule will be released soon, and the students are urged to check it as soon as possible.

SUNYA is committed to providing the best service possible to its students. The SUNYA Board of Trustees is working hard to ensure that the students are well taken care of.

For more information, please contact the SUNYA Bus Service Department at (518) 585-4171.

Poles Strike On

WARSAW, Poland (AP) More miners across Poland have demanded higher pay, increasing the political and economic problems for President Lech Walesa. The miners are demanding that wages be raised to 40% above the current level, and that they be paid in dollars instead of the local currency. The strikes are spreading across the country, with thousands of miners protesting in various locations.

First Freshmen Picnic Popular

Over 1,000 freshmen attended the first Freshman Picnic, held on campus, sponsored by the S.A. and the Central Council Chair. Four hundred freshmen turned out for the picnic, which included games, music, and food. The event was a great success, and plans are already underway for next year's picnic.

SUNYA Parking Fines Increased

SUNYA Parking Fines will be raised to $5.00 per ticket, or $25.00 per ticket for those who receive over 12 tickets in a year. The increase was necessary due to the rising costs of running the parking program. The new fines will take effect immediately.

WDCB Alterations

WDCB has made several changes to its program schedule. The changes include moving the morning show to a later time, and adding a new music program in the afternoon. The alterations were made to better meet the needs of the listeners, and to provide a more diverse range of programming.

Check Cashing

As of June 23, SUNY will accept cashing personal checks. However, check cashing will remain open until 12:00 noon on Saturdays. The change was made to provide better service to students and staff.

Albany Molester Continues Through Summer

by Trina Ferella

The continued sexual attacks in the city are of concern to many in the community, particularly to those who believe that the attacks are related to the recent move of the Albany Police Department. Several residents have reported seeing a man with a suspicious appearance in the neighborhood, but the police have not been able to locate him.

Despite this, some residents have expressed concern that the police are not doing enough to investigate the attacks. "I think they need to be doing more," said one resident. "I feel like they're just not taking it seriously." Others have suggested that the police should be more proactive in their approach to these incidents.

However, the police have defended their actions, saying that they are doing everything they can to find the perpetrator. "We're doing everything we can," said a police spokesperson. "We're putting out a lot of resources to try to find this person." The police have also encouraged residents to be vigilant and to report any suspicious activity to them.

The attacks have caused a great deal of fear and anxiety in the community. Many residents have expressed a desire for the police to be more visible and to take a more active role in protecting the neighborhood.

Students Win One Year On Senate

by Susan Mulligan

The Undergraduate Academic Council (UAC) has approved a proposal to give students one year on the Senate, starting next fall. The proposal was supported by a majority of the council, and it has been referred to the Senate for consideration.

The proposal would allow students to serve on the Senate for one year, rather than the usual two-year term. This would provide students with more opportunities to participate in the decision-making process and to develop leadership skills.

However, some members of the Senate have expressed concerns about the proposal. "We're worried that students won't have enough time to learn the ropes," said one Senate member. "They'll be here for only one year, and then they'll be gone." Others have suggested that the Senate should consider a longer-term solution to this problem.

The proposal has been referred to the Senate, where it will be considered in more detail. The Senate is expected to make a decision on the proposal in the coming weeks.

Trustees Delay Certifications

by Patricia Boezer

The Board of Trustees for the State University of New York (SUNY) has delayed the certification of two SUNY administrators, Frank T. O'Leary and Nicholas J. Fine. The trustees have asked for more information about the administrators before they can be certified.

The administrators are being asked to provide more information about their qualifications and their experience in higher education. The trustees have also asked for more information about the administrators' roles and responsibilities.

The certification process is an important one, as it is necessary for administrators to be able to serve in their positions. The administrators have been asked to provide this information in order to ensure that they are qualified to serve in their roles.

Carey Vetoes Alumni Bill

by Andrew Carroll

Governor Hugh Carey has vetoed a bill that would establish an alumni association at the State University of New York (SUNY). The governor cited concerns about the financial implications of the bill, as well as the need for greater student input into decision-making processes.

The bill, which was introduced by Senator John Haggerty, would have established an alumni association at SUNY. The association would have been funded by alumni contributions and would have had the power to make decisions about the university's policies and programs.

The governor cited concerns about the financial implications of the bill, as well as the need for greater student input into decision-making processes. The governor has expressed concerns that the bill might lead to increased costs for students and that it might take away from the authority of the SUNY Board of Trustees.

The governor has asked for more information about the financial implications of the bill before it can be considered further. He has also asked for more information about how the alumni association would be funded and how it would make decisions about the university's policies and programs.
Off-Campus Election Involved

By Bill Scott

The SUNYA Student Council held its Fall 1980 elections, according to the Student Senate's Bylaws. However, according to Chief Justice Brad Rothbaum's report, the Student Senate did not have proper authority to conduct these elections.

The case was brought to the SUNYA Supreme Court by the Student Senate, which ruled in a majority 4-0 decision on September 9, 1980. Chief Justice Brad Rothbaum said, that student political activity is not a part of the Mandates of the SUNYA Senate.

Cashing In On Horror In '80

This summer's movies left the producers smiling

Robert Blake's role which almost did not have a sequel is a classic example of how a甘甜的 threat can be used to create suspense. The actor has been working on a string of films recently, including a sequel to his previous hit, "Psycho." His performance in the sequel was praised by critics for its ability to create a sense of fear and anticipation.

Ed Pinka

Pinka, the star of the hit series "Dance," has been the subject of much speculation recently. Some have suggested that his success is due to his unique style and ability to engage with an audience. Others have speculated that his popularity is a result of the rise of the horror genre in recent years.

Blotto, The Transfer And The Albany Sounds

Rich, punk rock with a lot of vocals. "Flamingos on campus, September 21." This is a popular student song, which has been sung at college events for many years. It speaks to the idea of "flamingos," or trendy, hipster students who are a part of the college scene.

Blotto, the Transfer, and the Albany Sounds are three popular bands on campus this fall. Their music is a mix of punk and rock, with a lot of energy and raw emotion. They are known for their high-energy performances and their ability to connect with their fans.

Blotto's latest album, "Flamingos on campus," has been well-received by critics and fans alike. The band's sound is raw and intense, with a lot of energy and emotion. Their live performances are even more intense, with fans often singing along and jumping around in excitement.

The Transfer's latest album, "Dance," is a blend of punk and rock, with a lot of energy and raw emotion. The band's sound is raw and intense, with a lot of energy and emotion. Their live performances are even more intense, with fans often singing along and jumping around in excitement.

The U.S. Defense Department is spending $500,000 a day which is described as "the most efficient weapon ever invented."

The U.S. military has a program called "Thought Probe" that involves the use of "psychic" agents to "read" the minds of enemy generals.

The British Ministry of Defense has a project called "Psychic Cold War" that involves the use of "psychic" agents to "read" the minds of enemy generals.

Dopey Law

Some people wonder whether the law is wrong.

The Pennsylvania Senate has a bill that would make it illegal to sell marijuana to minors.

Some legislators apparently don't know what a bong or a chillum is.

A group of nobel laureates has written a letter to Ronald Reagan to ask him to sign the Dopey Law.

Hayman says that people who use marijuana should be treated as "criminals with a health problem."
A Brand New SA With Some New Ideas

by Sue Gold, SA President and Artie Banks, C.C. Vice-Chair

SA Should Act on Controversial Issues

For those who don’t know Central Council, it is the legislative branch of the student government. It is here that Central Council has the power to pass legislation, which then becomes policy if it is approved by a majority vote of the Legislative Assembly. SA should act on controversial issues, i.e. the student health services. This year the Student Action Committee sponsored legislation that would have let the student health service charge students for an additional $15 per year. This legislation was defeated, but it did bring to the forefront the issue of student health services. SA should have acted on this issue and brought it to a vote.

Central Council Opposes Proposals

Central Council, the executive branch of the student government, has opposed some proposals made by SA. For instance, the Student Action Committee proposed a bill to create a programming board. Central Council opposed the bill, saying it would be too costly and would duplicate the existing programming services. SA should not have passed the bill without the approval of Central Council.

New Committee Formed to Propose Alternatives

Central Council has formed a committee to propose alternatives to the Senate’s package of changes. This committee will be responsible for making recommendations to the Senate on the changes that are being proposed. SA should support this committee and work with it to find solutions to the problems facing the university.

Central Council Expands Committees

Central Council has expanded the number of committees it has. This is to allow for more involvement and participation in the decision-making process. SA should be involved in the decision-making process and should work with Central Council to expand its committees.

Central Council’s Decision

Central Council’s decision to expand the number of committees is a step in the right direction. This will allow for more involvement and participation in the decision-making process. SA should support this decision and work with Central Council to expand its committees.

Not to be missed:
Gather ideas and current folks with across campus corners, frats and fraternities. And people look so damn beautiful.

And—now—for that final question. How was your summer? It seems to be the most talk about topics on campus and in the last few days, I have been talking on the podium with a t-shirt that read, "Don’t ask, it was fine." That seems it to me.

Yes, we’re back. And It’s the time of year we’ve been clinging to—and to preserve—before the Albany chill and natural bumbling attempt to rob our natural anxiety.

Please notice the bold new signs around the campus—

Oftentimes, we make decisions that affect students lives. Such decisions should be made by students who understand the issues and are aware of the potential consequences.

- The buying power of the 65 Tech Hifi stores.
- The reason why Tech Hifi has better prices than Tech Hifi is no dealer keeps quality components in such a large volume as the 65 Tech Hifi stores.
- You'll find our prices are as good as anybody's and often better on some brands.
- You might expect to pay extra at Tech for all the extra things we offer. But you won't.
- At Tech Hifi we back what you buy. When you make any big investment like quality stereo, make sure you're getting sound guarantees. Tech Hifi gives you guarantees most stores don't. And we'll give them to you in writing, right on your sales slip.

Harriers Face Tough Campaign

By Jeff Schaffer

The Albany State cross-country team lost five of its top six runners last year. "We have a gigantic schedule ahead of us, so last year was almost a rebuilding year," Albany coach Bob Munsey.

The team entered the 1980 season with a new coaching staff and a new look, but with the same optimism that has characterized the program so far.

The team has been working hard in the off-season, and Munsey is excited about the potential of his squad.

"We're definitely going to be competitive," Munsey said. "We have a lot of talent, and we're going to be tough this year."
Soccer Team Could Challenge For Top Spot

Improving Defense Needs Unity

by Marc Shapero

The Albany men's soccer team is the key to the Capital Preservation with four key returning players, plus the addition of some nationally recognized stars. Albany is ranked number two in the Northeast and number three in New York. The team is looking to challenge in 1980 for their first SOC tournament title, after finishing second last year.

One of the reasons for this optimism is the return of Larry Liotz, who had three goals and a total of 5.9 points last season. Liotz is expected to continue his strong performance in the midfield this year.

Larry Lioz: a key player for the team.

Liont is expected to score well, along with other returning players such as John Smith and Mark Johnson. The team also has a strong defense, led by goalkeeper Alex Pagano, who had a total of 12 saves last year.

The team also has a strong bench, with players like Jason Davis and Brian Taylor providing depth. The team is looking to improve their overall performance this year, with a focus on defense and teamwork.

Great Dane Gridders Need To Find Solutions

Face Supreme Challenge;
Nat’l Champ Ithaca Invades

by Brit Bellflower

The Albany football team is not to be taken lightly. The Danes have finished the last three seasons in the top ten and are looking to improve on last year’s third place finish in the Liberty Conference.

The Danes have been ranked number one in the nation for the last three years, and there is no reason to believe that they will not continue to be a strong team this year.
