For the first time in at least three years, two yearling candidates for the baseball team appeared in the starting line-up for State. Mr. Corn and Detlefson, the players referred to, displayed a lot of ability and are improving steadily. These four men will pick up much experience this year and should prove invaluable in coming seasons.

It was strange to see Dick Whitson, veteran backstop of the past three years, casting it on the right field. It is true that he was not given an opportunity to show his abilities, but he is also putting a lot of fight in the game as a whole. He showed a slick bit bat.

If Allan can maintain his early season form through the remainder of the season, he will give a fine lift to the team's attack. He is in the prime of his form at this time and will be a valuable addition to the team.
