Choralets To Perform Publicly At Annual Christmas Programs

The choralettes, a group of select female voices, will make their annual appearance in the annual Christmas program tonight. The program will be presented in the First Presbyterian Church, Orange, Calif. The program will feature music of various eras, including carols, madrigals, and a selection from Handel's "Messiah." The performance will be conducted by the director of music, Mr. Jones. The program is open to the public and admission is free.

Greeks Schedule Parties; Release List Of Pledges

The Greek fraternities and sororities have been busy scheduling parties and releasing their pledge lists. The fraternity of Phi Delta Theta has scheduled a formal dinner dance for next week, while the sorority of Alpha Xi Delta has released their list of pledges. The list includes a variety of students from different classes and majors. The fraternities and sororities have been working hard to make their parties memorable and to strengthen their brotherhood and sisterhood.

Open Door Policy...

Because of many questions raised by SA members, and a request in last week's News for a clarification on the new Myskania ruling, the State College News would like to comment on its meetings to dates.

Myskania is a student-run organization and its meetings are open to the public. Any organization meeting must be open to the public unless the organization makes other arrangements that organize meetings to close their meetings. Every organization meeting must be open unless the organization makes other arrangements that organizations meet in closed meetings.]

John Sturm, Assistant Professor of Library Science, reports that the first party for the younger children from four to five in the afternoons from 9:10 a.m. Monday, January 3, to 1 p.m. next Friday and will close at 1 p.m. next Friday will be held at the Albany Home for Children. The library is currently featuring "Christmas vacation period" and Miss Bialow was Chairman of the annual meeting of the New York State Council of State Libraries at the Albany Capital Building. The meeting will be held Wednesday at the Albany Home for Children. The purpose of the conference is to discuss the organization of state library systems, and to consider the problems of library education and training. The conference will be attended by librarians, library educators, and other interested persons from throughout the state. Miss Bialow will be the main speaker at the conference, and will be assisted by other speakers who will discuss various aspects of the conference topic. The conference will be open to the public, and all who are interested in library education and training are invited to attend.
