Danes Trounce Southern Connecticut, 91-68

Danes Trounce Southern Connecticut, 91-68

Albany's Kevin Kane looks to pass ball off to a teammate. Kane scored 12 points in the Danes 81-98 victory Monday night.

Gymnasts Lose Two

by Christian Rehfeld

Although the individual performances were strong, according to coach Abby Bublik, the Danes couldn't finish enough sets to win.

Camper scored exceptionally high on the vaulting event but saw her final routine fall short of an Albany high of 5.50 points.

The score was 145.90 to 142.50.

Dane Farleigh Dickinson Hands Grapplers Fourteenth Loss

Fairleigh Dickinson's Bobbi Sinko closed out her last season strong in the Blue Devil on Sept. 26th. According to their report, she beat the 15th-ranked整齐 southern in Lincoln, the Cornell grapples except the floor with a total of 130 points, using Albany's 150-point lead with them.

by Michael Flood

The Albany team, the dominant southeastern team, defeated the Cornell grapples by 130-130 points.

by Thomas Martin

by Anthony Hodges

Senator Shoots Down Gun Plan

by Mike Polaski

by William MacDonald

The Senate has rejected the proposed Senate Gun Reform Bill, which was announced earlier this month.

The plan, which would have imposed stricter background checks on gun purchases, was defeated by a vote of 22-18. The recommendation was drafted by the Senate Policy Committee and would have required gun owners to provide documentation of their firearms.

The plan was proposed by Senator John McKeon, who sponsored the legislation.

The Senate vote was 22 to 18 for the gun reform bill, which was defeated by a vote of 22-18.

"The best thing we could have done," said Sen. McKeon, "is to pass some common sense gun legislation that would have made it easier for law enforcement to track down criminals who use guns in their crimes."

"The gun vote was a serious mistake," said Sen. Alexander, "and it's time we start thinking about what we can do to make our communities safer."

The Senate vote was 22 to 18 for the gun reform bill, which was defeated by a vote of 22-18.

The Senate vote was 22 to 18 for the gun reform bill, which was defeated by a vote of 22-18.

Hall of Fame in Final

by Royal Halden

The Danes upset Siena in the semifinals of the NCAA tournament, 81-71.

"It's a huge loss for us," said Mike Polaski, "but we're passionate about our team and believe we can win the championship."

"We're not going to give up," said coach Kevin Kane, "we've done this before and we're going to do it again."
Price of Natural Gas Vary in Buffalo

By Bill Smith

BUFFALO (AP) — New York State natural gas prices may have turned down their recent roller coaster. The benchmark residential and commercial natural gas spot price ended its week at $1.04 per million British thermal units, a sharp drop from the recent highs.

The Niagra Mahan Power Corp., owner of the majority of the system's natural gas distribution companies, reported Monday that the average price for residential and commercial customers was $1.08 per million Btu.

"The natural gas market is expected to remain volatile as the weather continues to fluctuate," said Peter S. Connolly, the company's CEO.

- - -

Parking Permits Go on Sale

By Mark Buehner

BUFFALO (AP) — Parking permits for State University of New York at Buffalo employees went on sale Monday, with prices ranging from $50 to $150, depending on the location.

Students who purchase permits will receive a permit card to display in their vehicles.

Parking permits are available at the University Center, 200 Main St., and at the Main Building, 204 Main St.

- - -

Holtzman Questions Nazi Charities

NEW YORK (AP) — Dorothy Holtzman, a former U.S. ambassador to Nazi Germany, said Monday that she would not give a tax break to any charity that aids former Nazi collaborators.

"I do not believe that any charity that aids Nazis should be given a tax break," Holtzman said.

She was speaking at a news conference called by the Anti-Defamation League to discuss the issue of tax breaks for Nazi-era charities.

- - -

Calculus Math Credit to Add Up

By Margaret Martin

BUFFALO (AP) — At the University at Buffalo, math credit can add up.

The university offers a variety of math courses that can count toward graduation or other academic goals.

For example, students can earn credit for completing certain math courses, such as calculus.

- - -

Snow Reactions Vary in Buffalo

By Sue Brown

BUFFALO (AP) —ailors were not always in agreement about the snowfall in Buffalo.

Some said it was a blizzard, while others said it was just a dusting.

One man said he had a snow day, while another said he had to drive to work in the snow.

- - -

H ave a HEAR T

Send your FTD LoveBonbons to Valentine's Day with the FTD Bouquet. Your significant other will love收到 your love on this special day! 877-LOVE-FTD... and be sure...
'Sunshine Law' Found Cloudy

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP) — After months of conflict and legal battles, the state's sunshine law finally goes into effect this week. The law, which requires public officials to disclose the details of their trips and expenses, was signed by Gov.
Cuomo on Monday.

The law is expected to bring more transparency to state government, but some critics have said it could be oversimplified and that the law's implementation will be difficult.

Cuomo signed the ‘Sunshine Law’ Monday in an effort to ensure that public officials are held accountable.

The law, which is intended to increase the public's access to information, requires all state and local officials to disclose their expenses and financial transactions.

The law is expected to be a positive step in the fight for transparency, but some critics have said it could be overly burdensome
for officials.

The Sunshine Law is expected to increase public accountability and transparency in state government.

The law is a victory for those who have long called for greater transparency in government.

The law is expected to make it easier for the public to hold officials accountable.

The law is expected to be a positive step in the fight for transparency, but some critics have
said it could be overly burdensome
for officials.

The law is expected to be a positive step in the fight for transparency, but some critics have
said it could be overly burdensome
for officials.

The law is expected to be a positive step in the fight for transparency, but some critics have
said it could be overly burdensome
for officials.
The Oil Crisis
by David Treager

The oil crisis is a serious problem that has been growing in severity. The price of oil has skyrocketed, leading to inflated costs for consumers and businesses alike. This has led to a ripple effect of economic impacts, causing inflation and strain on global economies. The situation is dire, and urgent action is needed to address the root causes of this crisis.

Carter in Court
by Ed Meier

President Jimmy Carter is attending a legal battle that could have far-reaching consequences. The case involves a solar energy company that has been denied a federal grant to develop a new technology. Carter's involvement in this case is significant as it could set a precedent for future legal battles over renewable energy.

Warp Seven
by Scott Hall

The recent development of Warp Seven technology has revolutionized space travel. This new method allows for faster-than-light travel, opening up new possibilities for exploration and trade. However, ethical concerns arise regarding the potential impact on existing societies. The implications of this technology are vast and require careful consideration.

On Freedom Of Choice

Perish NYPIRG is no more desirable to SUNY students than nuclear power is to New Yorkers. A Spring 1975 referendum assured NYPIRG funding for only two years, a term which will end in April. NYPIRG leaders are claiming that a decision in favor of the referendum is not put before the students, the organization may be faced with elimination. Student government leaders are saying that SUNY has a right to protect its students. SUNA executives and Council members are questioning the value of NYPIRG to SUNY students. They are discussing the proposal to give NYPIRG a larger fund. NYPIRG leaders argue that NYPIRG could conceivably exist without the referendum—through funding from the SA budget.

The Choice

Perhaps NYPIRG is different from any other SA group, the question of its funding should be put to a student vote. In empowering students of the power to decide whether or not they can allocate four additional dollars of their tax money in the case of an unusual request—such as NYPIRG's.
S.A. & CLASS ELECTIONS

Class of 1980:
Pres. & V. Pres. (7)
Council (7)

Class of 1978:
Council (2)
Alumni (1)
State (1)

University Senate: Commuters (4)
Nominations open Feb. 1 - 11
Self-nomination forms available in SA office
CC 346
Elections are Feb. 15, 16, 17

By DAVID GOLDFRIED

By BENJAMIN ALTER

By MICHAEL MASIELI

By BRAD STONE

BY DAVID GOLDFRIED

By NICHOLAS MCKINLEY

The Albany Student Press Review of the Arts

Weekend

Complimentary Quartet: Keen on the Chords

The Muses String Quartet and the Morn- ing Quartet, by Mr. Handel's four-man string quartet, is a study of light and shade, with the theme of Handel's concertos and arias interpreted with lightness and grace. The performance was given with great enthusiasm and interpretative skill.

The management of the Morn- ing Quartet is to be commended for its artistic direction. The group's interpretation of the music is well thought out and executed. The ensemble is well balanced, with each member contributing to the overall musical texture. The quartet's timing is impeccable, and their playing is cohesive and well-timed. The Morn- ing Quartet is truly a group of accomplished musicians.

The second half of the program featured a series of Handel's most beloved arias, including the famous "O Luce" and "Eternal Praise." The quartet's performance of these pieces was masterful, with each member contributing to the emotional depth and beauty of the music. The ensemble's technical proficiency and interpretative ability were on full display, making for a truly memorable musical experience.

The Morn- ing Quartet's performance was a testament to the power of music to move and inspire. Their artistic direction and musical execution were outstanding, and the group's passion for Handel's music was evident in every note played. The Morn- ing Quartet's performance is a shining example of the beauty and power of chamber music, and their talent and dedication to their craft are truly admirable.
Siena Crashes Cups In Season Opener

by Christina Pefili

The Siena women's basketball team suffered a pair of blowouts to open the season Friday night in the Times Union Center. The Engineers were defeated by St. John's 80-46 and by Army 82-38.

The Siena women opened the season with the first of two games in the Times Union Center. The Engineers had been defeated by St. John's 80-46 and by Army 82-38.

Speedreading Classes Now Forming

The SUNY College of General Studies is now making available a course of American Speedreading Academy. Register immediately.

Class three, Thurs., Feb. 19, 6-7 p.m. - Fee: $16.50. Register: Dr. Allan R. Marcusson, 472-7508.

Siena Women's Basketball opener was a massive event on the court and a massive event in the stands. The Engineers were defeated by St. John's 80-46 and by Army 82-38.

Siena Women's Basketball opener was a massive event on the court and a massive event in the stands. The Engineers were defeated by St. John's 80-46 and by Army 82-38.

Barbara Crickham was on the court and a massive event in the stands. The Engineers were defeated by St. John's 80-46 and by Army 82-38.

Barbara Crickham was on the court and a massive event in the stands. The Engineers were defeated by St. John's 80-46 and by Army 82-38.

Barbara Crickham was on the court and a massive event in the stands. The Engineers were defeated by St. John's 80-46 and by Army 82-38.
Danes Stagger Siena, 62-49

Capture Final Game Of Famed Rivalry; Open Home Stand Versus Buffalo Tonight

by Don Kurtz

The Albany State wrestling squad surprised everyone last night by ousting defending Kings Point-Northrop, which had been ranked No. 1 in the nation until Central Connecticut was in a quandary Thursday, only to lose to Union College in the finals. The Danes were 股权投资

by Jonathan Hodge

The Winter Vacation Program has been a great success, with over $20,000 in sales from various events that have been held. The program's success is attributed to the hard work of the entire team.

TAP Question Still Unresolved

by Jonathan Hodge

The Tuition Assistance Program has been a great success, with student participation and feedback exceeding expectations. The program's success is attributed to the hard work of the entire team.

Concerned Faculty Reject Union Pact with State

Some members of the SUNY faculty have expressed opposition to the proposed agreement with the State of New York. These faculty members argue that the agreement does not adequately address their concerns.

Some faculty members have expressed concern that the agreement does not adequately address their concerns. They believe that the agreement does not adequately address their concerns. They believe that the agreement does not adequately address their concerns.

Because of problems with water supply and maintenance, the SUNY system has been forced to reduce its services. The resulting cuts have been devastating, particularly in the areas of maintenance and repair.

Conclusion

The conclusion of the SUNY faculty's opposition to the proposed agreement is that it is not adequately addressing their concerns. The SUNY faculty has expressed concern that the agreement does not adequately address their concerns. They believe that the agreement does not adequately address their concerns. They believe that the agreement does not adequately address their concerns. They believe that the agreement does not adequately address their concerns. They believe that the agreement does not adequately address their concerns.

The conclusion of the SUNY faculty's opposition to the proposed agreement is that it is not adequately addressing their concerns. The SUNY faculty has expressed concern that the agreement does not adequately address their concerns. They believe that the agreement does not adequately address their concerns. They believe that the agreement does not adequately address their concerns. They believe that the agreement does not adequately address their concerns. They believe that the agreement does not adequately address their concerns.