Mary Vedder Stars In "Icebound" Sat.

"Icebound," that brilliant realistic New England drama, by Owen Davis, will be presented by the Advanced Dramatic and Musical Society this evening, May 30, at the Voorhees Institute as the crowning production of State's dramatic season. The play won the Pulitzer Prize and is a particularly strong example of the best modern American drama. However, it represents a departure from the usual presentations of advanced dramatic classes in the fact that it is not a society drama, but a vivid portrayal of a peculiar phase of American life—the New Englander at home. The play is intensely human. It offers opportunities for strong characterizations and comedy bits, which are rollicking ninth-weekers. Niles Hight, 26, in the role of Henry Jordan, a man fifty years of age, is at his funniest.

"Icebound" has attended Broadway success as a vehicle for some of the best professional actors and actresses. Tomorrow evening it will be presented under the auspices of the Dramatic and Art Association as a performance in which some of State's best will shine as dramatic stars. The entire cast follows: Niles Hight, chairman, Ethel Perske, house, Ethel Perske, Ethel Perske, Ethel Perske, Ethel Perske.

"Icebound," that brilliant realistic New England drama, by Owen Davis, will be presented by the Advanced Dramatic and Musical Society this evening, May 30, at the Voorhees Institute as the crowning production of State's dramatic season. The play won the Pulitzer Prize and is a particularly strong example of the best modern American drama. However, it represents a departure from the usual presentations of advanced dramatic classes in the fact that it is not a society drama, but a vivid portrayal of a peculiar phase of American life—the New Englander at home. The play is intensely human. It offers opportunities for strong characterizations and comedy bits, which are rollicking ninth-weekers. Niles Hight, 26, in the role of Henry Jordan, a man fifty years of age, is at his funniest.

"Icebound" has attended Broadway success as a vehicle for some of the best professional actors and actresses. Tomorrow evening it will be presented under the auspices of the Dramatic and Art Association as a performance in which some of State's best will shine as dramatic stars. The entire cast follows: Niles Hight, chairman, Ethel Perske, house, Ethel Perske, Ethel Perske, Ethel Perske.

State Oldest Teacher Training College

IN EIGHTY-SECOND YEAR

State College is eighty-one years old and is the oldest teacher training institution in the State and the third oldest in the western hemisphere. Established December 18, 1844, as the Albany Normal School, State became the State Normal College in 1890, and the New York State College for Teachers in 1914.

State College has had nine presidents, has occupied four different homes, and its progress has been marked by four changes in purpose.

"The History of State College," according to President A. R. Brubacher, "considers a long period in American education. It begins with the early efforts of the American commonwealth to train teachers. State College has been a pace-setter in education, first in the training of elementary teachers; second in developing the graduate school of education; and at the present time, in the demonstration that the high school teacher needs a liberal education in arts and sciences, followed by a thorough professional preparation.

In eighty-one years the enrollment has grown from twenty-nine to 1026 students. For the year 1921-22, Edwin A. Bryant, '22-'23, Aime A. Daly; '23-'24, Alfred T. Daily, '24-'25, Marion Schrader; '25-'26, Martha Hall; '26-'27, Aime A. Daly; '27-'28, Mary Vejder; '28-'29, Aime A. Daly; '29-'30, Aime A. Daly; '30-'31, Aime A. Daly; '31-'32, Aime A. Daly; '32-'33, Aime A. Daly; '33-'34, Aime A. Daly; '34-'35, Aime A. Daly; '35-'36, Aime A. Daly; '36-'37, Aime A. Daly; '37-'38, Aime A. Daly; '38-'39, Aime A. Daly; '39-'40, Aime A. Daly; '40-'41, Aime A. Daly; '41-'42, Aime A. Daly; '42-'43, Aime A. Daly; '43-'44, Aime A. Daly; '44-'45, Aime A. Daly; '45-'46, Aime A. Daly; '46-'47, Aime A. Daly; '47-'48, Aime A. Daly; '48-'49, Aime A. Daly; '49-'50, Aime A. Daly; '50-'51, Aime A. Daly; '51-'52, Aime A. Daly; '52-'53, Aime A. Daly; '53-'54, Aime A. Daly; '54-'55, Aime A. Daly; '55-'56, Aime A. Daly; '56-'57, Aime A. Daly; '57-'58, Aime A. Daly; '58-'59, Aime A. Daly; '59-'60, Aime A. Daly; '60-'61, Aime A. Daly; '61-'62, Aime A. Daly; '62-'63, Aime A. Daly; '63-'64, Aime A. Daly; '64-'65, Aime A. Daly; '65-'66, Aime A. Daly; '66-'67, Aime A. Daly; '67-'68, Aime A. Daly; '68-'69, Aime A. Daly; '69-'70, Aime A. Daly; '70-'71, Aime A. Daly; '71-'72, Aime A. Daly; '72-'73, Aime A. Daly; '73-'74, Aime A. Daly; '74-'75, Aime A. Daly; '75-'76, Aime A. Daly; '76-'77, Aime A. Daly; '77-'78, Aime A. Daly; '78-'79, Aime A. Daly; '79-'80, Aime A. Daly; '80-'81, Aime A. Daly; '81-'82, Aime A. Daly; '82-'83, Aime A. Daly; '83-'84, Aime A. Daly; '84-'85, Aime A. Daly; '85-'86, Aime A. Daly; '86-'87, Aime A. Daly; '87-'88, Aime A. Daly; '88-'89, Aime A. Daly; '89-'90, Aime A. Daly; '90-'91, Aime A. Daly; '91-'92, Aime A. Daly; '92-'93, Aime A. Daly; '93-'94, Aime A. Daly; '94-'95, Aime A. Daly; '95-'96, Aime A. Daly; '96-'97, Aime A. Daly; '97-'98, Aime A. Daly; '98-'99, Aime A. Daly; '99-'00, Aime A. Daly; '00-'01, Aime A. Daly; '01-'02, Aime A. Daly; '02-'03, Aime A. Daly; '03-'04, Aime A. Daly; '04-'05, Aime A. Daly; '05-'06, Aime A. Daly; '06-'07, Aime A. Daly; '07-'08, Aime A. Daly; '08-'09, Aime A. Daly; '09-'10, Aime A. Daly; '10-'11, Aime A. Daly; '11-'12, Aime A. Daly; '12-'13, Aime A. Daly; '13-'14, Aime A. Daly; '14-'15, Aime A. Daly; '15-'16, Aime A. Daly; '16-'17, Aime A. Daly; '17-'18, Aime A. Daly; '18-'19, Aime A. Daly; '19-'20, Aime A. Daly; '20-'21, Aime A. Daly; '21-'22, Aime A. Daly.

State College has had nine presidents, has occupied four different homes, and its progress has been marked by four changes in purpose.

"The History of State College," according to President A. R. Brubacher, "considers a long period in American education. It begins with the early efforts of the American commonwealth to train teachers. State College has been a pace-setter in education, first in the training of elementary teachers; second in developing the graduate school of education; and at the present time, in the demonstration that the high school teacher needs a liberal education in arts and sciences, followed by a thorough professional preparation.

"The History of State College," according to President A. R. Brubacher, "considers a long period in American education. It begins with the early efforts of the American commonwealth to train teachers. State College has been a pace-setter in education, first in the training of elementary teachers; second in developing the graduate school of education; and at the present time, in the demonstration that the high school teacher needs a liberal education in arts and sciences, followed by a thorough professional preparation.

State College has had nine presidents, has occupied four different homes, and its progress has been marked by four changes in purpose.
Published weekly during the college year by the Student Body of the New York State College for Teachers at Albany, New York.

The subscription rate is three dollars per year. Advertising rates may be had on application to the business manager.

(Continued from column 3)

May 29, 1925 No. 28

State College News
Vol. IX

News Board Adopts Constitution; Hastings
To Act As Adviser Of Next Year's Staff

Moving-Up Day, As Seen By A Freshman

May 29, 1925

Moving-Up Day is a big day for seniors, but it is equally exciting for freshmen. Last Friday, for the very first time in their lives, they "moved up," and what an experience it was.

All this year, from last November till May, they have been more or less delicately obeying upperclassmen. They have been routed from the rotunda and turned back from the front steps. They have faithfully worn the badges of their infancy and immaturity; meanwhile, they have persistently, patiently, and obediently waited.

Now all that is over. Next year they will be sophomores. Then it will be their turn to uphold State's traditions. They will do it to the best of their ability, for last Friday they realized more fully than ever before just what a wonderful privilege it is to belong in S. C. T.; therefore, they have also learned how important it is to accord her due respect in every particular.

(Continued to column 4)

Official Duties Of
News' Staff Listed

(Continued from column 3)

The Copy Reader shall refer all questionable material to the Editor-in-Chief.

The Copy Reader shall teach the Reporters to read proof and arrange for the reading of the proof each week.

C. Members of the News staff
1. There shall be at least one Assistant Business Manager and one Assistant Subscription Manager.
2. There shall be at least four Associate Editors, who may be chosen from the senior and junior classes, and this number may be increased at the discretion of the electing board.

3. There shall be at least six reporters chosen from the freshman or sophomore class or both, at the discretion of the electing board.
4. Miscellaneous
   1. All promotion shall be in accordance with merit.
   2. No one shall be raised to a major position or office of the News Board, without formally having appeared on the News Staff list in that department, for at least one year preceding such election.
   3. A paper shall be issued each Friday, as specified in the contract, and one issue shall be produced each year to the New York state high schools, and to be given to the student body.
   4. Pens, chosen by the Major Officers of the News Board, shall be awarded to the Editor-in-Chief, the Managing Editor, the Business Manager, the Subscription Manager, and the Copy Reader.
   5. At least ten cubs shall be "promoted" each year for reportorial duties.
   6. One member of the faculty, preferably from the English department, shall be chosen as a faculty adviser.
   7. Criteria and rules for the news from the faculty and the student body shall be followed.

E. Amendment
This Constitution may be amended by a majority vote of all Officers, and when approved by the News Board, consisting of the Editor-in-Chief, the Managing Editor, the Business Manager, the Subscription Manager, and the Copy Reader. When this constitution is adopted by the present Management Board, it shall take the place of all previous constitutions.

KATHLEEN E. FURMAN, Editor-in-Chief
HARRY S. GREGORY, Managing Editor
RUTH E. BARTON, Business Manager
GWENDOLYN JONES, Subscription Manager

ADIOS
This is the last piece which the State College News of 1924-25 will produce. During the past year we have endeavored to supply the students with an interesting and "newsy" paper. Cubbs know how dangerous we have been, but we hope that the seniors could tell of "news" hold-ups. We hope that we have been partially successful, and yet we realize that, if we have had any success, thanks is due both to the faculty and to the student body for their assistance and backing. We, as a staff, have enjoyed our work and the company with whom we have worked. And now, in our good-byes, we wish ever-increasing success to the college and to the incoming staff.
Moving-Up-Day Features Dormitory Parade

Sophs Win Final Victory In Rivalry

State College's 1925 Moving-Up Day was observed May 15 with all the usual features and a parade of one thousand students to take in the Residence Hall campaign for $400,000.

The famous ceremony of "moving-up" is the college's most important holiday and marks the senior class numerals as well as the school of life. 11 is attended annually by important ceremonies, including the selection of the next year's Myskania, the governing council of seniors.

The parade started with the college orchestra and TL. Moore, Florence Craddock, after 7o, Dorothy Hoyt, Elizabeth Milne, S. Niles Haight, Albany, junior, whose speech was acclaimed the best of its kind in the state by Henry P. O'Hara, editor of the Binghamton, who delivered an eloquent address for the seniors; Melanie K. Hamm, who told of the class' hopes for its sister class, and Richard A. Jensen, North Troy freshman, whose remarks were addressed mostly to the rival class of sophomores.

President Brubacher awarded News Board pins to the following major officers of the College News for the year: Harry S. Godfrey, editor-in-chief; Dorothy Hoyt, managing editor; Margaret Benjamin, business manager; and Helen Elliott, business manager, and nominated Dr. Harold W. Thompson, of the English department, had previously announced that the senior singing was announced that the senior singing was deferred.

Nine hundred students, faculty, alumni and others crowded the college and town center to hear President A. R. Brubacher read the picture of future Moving-Up Day of a few years hare.

Then came selection of the twelve students of the junior class upon whom the college's mostcoveted undergraduate honor is conferred each year. This is selection to membership on Myskania, honorary council of seniors, which governs all student activities. The twelve 1925 members, ranged upon the platform in alphabetical order, according to their names, went down one by one into the group of juniors and, announcing the name of the student selected, called him forth and pinned upon him the Purple and Gold college ribbons, signifying the choice. Then amid cheers and applause from the assemblee the student was led to the platform.

Marled L. Werlein was announced as the successful candidate for presidency of the student body by Edmund H. Crane, present president. Other sections announced were: treasurer, Margaret Grant, 27; secretary, Richard A. Jensen, 28; faculty members of finance board, Professor George M. York, head of the Commerce department; treasurer, Ethel DiRado, 27; song leader, Harry Flanagan, 26. Students then formed a long double line headed by the old and new members of Myskania out over the campus and up Western Avenue to Albany High School. Class numerals were formed on the campus and Mildred E. Hammersley, 25, delivered the invocation. A group from the Thumb and St. Marys, college song leader, led the singing of the Ivy song, Bertha Zajan accompanied with the violin.

The student body, with four big floats, a battle of prep school cadets, and twenty-one piece bands, then paraded through Albany's downtown business section to stimulate interest in the Residence Hall campaign. In front of each class was carried a large banner blanketed with announcements at hat brought cheers from the crowd lining the streets.

Picture cameras wound around as the parade wound up State Street. Students sang the Alma Mater and other college songs on the approach of the Capital and later on the steps of the State Education Building.

At the head of the line of march were President Brubacher, Mayor William S. Hackett of Albany, Mr. John T. D. Blackburn, chairman of the Residence Hall campaign; Miss Anna E. Pierce, dean of women, and Mrs. William Bayard Yum Reeslander, prominent Albany society and social work leader. Seniors marched in caps and gowns; junior girls wore cap of their class blue over their white dresses. Sophomores were dressed in white with sweaters in the class green. Freshmen paraded in yellow and white costumes. Scores of placards, the official class banners, and flags were carried.

In the afternoon freshmen-sophomores rivalry for the year ended with athletic events for women students at Ridgefield Park. At night the Step-Step was centered on the approach of the Administration Building. Seniors in caps and gowns sang their class song and each class also sang five numbers. Then the seniors filed off into the darkness out "into the wide, wide world," while the juniors, singing, moved up to the graduates' places on the steps.

Dr. Harold W. Thompson, of the English department, had previously announced that the senior singing was adjudged best of the evening. The prize for the best class float went to the freshmen. The total points scored by freshmen for the year in rivalry events, including the sophomore score near-rival, was 16, and the total of their sophomore rival, 31%. Seniors and sophomores tied in the Ridgefield events, the Thompson announced, with twenty-two points each. Two college women's records were broken, one was equalled, and the general average was the highest recorded, according to Miss Johnston.

Following the Step-Step, there was a dance in the gymnasium. Naturally, Myskania class gave a party there for the seniors, and a few sororities had dances.

The marshaled for the day's events was Margaret L. Hutchins. Myskania had general charge and Florence Craddock was program chairman. Large audiences from each class prepared the floats and others carried on the two weeks' drive that resulted in student form pledges totalling $80,270.

While students were conducting the Step-Step at the college, Albany's civic and educational leaders were gathered 400 strong in the ballroom of the Hotel Ten Eyck for the opening dinner of the dorm drive. Mrs. Florence E. Knaap, Secretary of State, President Brubacher, State Senator William T. Byrne, Mr. Blackburn, and others spoke. Thousands all over the country listened to a part of the program broadcast by radio.

Simultaneously there were gatherings, at dinner, of State College alumni in every city in New York state and in every state in the United States, in China, in England, in Australia, and many other countries. In New York state, alumni gathered together in every hamlet in which there are as many as five graduates. Many of the groups convened to the main meeting in Albany by radio. It was the largest alumni gathering since the seventy-fifth anniversary and semi-centennial anniversary jubilee, and probably the largest in the college's eighty-one years of history.

James F. Herrick, director of publicity for the drive, has sent this letter to Edmund H. Crane, president of the Student Association:

"The parade could not have been surpassed as a method of bringing home to the people of Albany the story of the campaign.

"Every comment I have heard on the display was of the highest quality. We are most grateful for the cooperation of Myskania, and the splendid body as a whole."
Pedagogue Board—1924-25

The Pedagogue is the college year book, an elaborate, beautiful book, usually containing over 250 pages. It is published annually in May by the senior class. Six hundred copies are printed for.

The State College Book, prepared by a committee of students and faculty, is also widely read. It contains a complete list of all colleges and universities and much valuable and up-to-date information. Each summer a committee from the junior class establishes the Pedagogue Handbook better known as the "Frosh Bible." This tells everything the college entrance student, advises and instructs incoming freshmen, and furnishes them with a compact reference book for their first year. It is given free to all freshmen by the college.

EIGHT SORORITIES AND TWO FRATERNITIES IN COLLEGE

State College has eight sororities and two active fraternities. Loyals, friendships and good fellowship are the principal objectives of these organizations, and their membership to the social life of the students is an important factor in the college calendar. In the fall all classes are held for the entering freshmen, and during the year the individual sororities and fraternities hold house dances. A lunchroom is given by each sorority annually for its active membership and alumnae organization. As the concluding event of the year, an inter-sorority ball is held on May 1 at the Hotel Ten Eyck. Both sororities and fraternities furnish something of dormitory life, as each maintains a house.

Membership in sororities is by invitation only and is restricted by a scholarship standard established by the Intersorority Council, and applicable only to those sororities which are members of the Council. Fraternity membership is also by invitation only.

The presidents of the sororities for 1925-26 are: Delta Omegia—Richard Roberts, Marjorie Bellows; Gamma Gamma—Phi Ruby, Ruby Merman; Kappa Delta—Dorothy Bingle, Margarette Roberts; Lambda Mu—Betty A. Magg, Mary Dardess; Mu Epsilon—Ethel C. White, Betsey Joseph; Nu Omegia—Muriel Wozniak, Sigma Chi; Omicron Delta—Helen Olgar, Zeta Marcia Chatfield; Pi Mu—Karen M. Buell; Phi Chi—Evelyn F. McDonald, Sigma Chi; Chi Sigma—Bessie Bingle, Gamma Gamma; Chi Omega—Muriel Wozniak, Omicron Delta; Pi Kappa Alpha—Sandra L. Barnhart, Lambda Mu; Zeta Phi—Grace E.当局, Sigma Chi; Chi Omega—Muriel Wozniak, Omicron Delta; Pi Kappa Alpha—Sandra L. Barnhart, Lambda Mu; Zeta Phi—Grace E.

STATE CO-OP

The State College "Co-op" is the only small-sized cooperative bookstore in the country giving a five per cent reduction on new books besides paying postage. The "Co-op" is run entirely by students. The present management, which will continue next year, wants it to be of more and more service to students. Constructive criticism and praise are always invited, and in general, it may be said that the old adage "no news is good news" does not apply to the "Co-op."

Next year the same name will prevail, dependent upon the fact, however, that students continue the good habit established this year in coming promptly for books ordered. The book department will open again with a new up-to-date system for handling the books submitted. Ruth Lane, 26; Ruth Kelly, 28; and Myra Bouch, 27, will have charge. Students are urged to leave all salable books before the end of examinations, plainly marked with name and address. Settlement will be made twice a year, before Thanksgiving and before the spring break.

"Co-op" will also have all composition books, tablets, and commercial papers marked with the name and seal of State College. A greater reduction on all quantities used in quantities is contemplated. The secret of saving time for the students and the "Co-op" lies in promptness.

Alumni Dinner

The first event of the social season at State is the Faculty Reception to the freshmen. In the years past, dinners have been given to the freshmen by Dean Metzler and various faculty members, and the freshmen were fortunate to meet their instructors of the coming year. The Sophomore Joint Reception to meet the freshmen in the annual General Diploma Banquet. The incoming class is duly initiated and made to feel the superiority of the Sophomore. To compensate for this hardships, the juniors give the students a dinner at a Jolly time at a masquerade. The final welcome to the freshmen comes from Intersorority in the form of a tea, to which all students are welcome.

Social events anguish a bit until after mid-year, when junior socials bring Prom, the biggest social events of the year, and the Junior Luncheon. Prom is usually held at the Ten Eyck, and Junior Luncheon at the Colony Club.

Senior Hop, the last informal social of the class, is usually held after the first real party of the season, but at the Ten Eyck, early in May. Intersorority, One of the most colorful affairs of the season, is held at the Ten Eyck, at which the sororities give an informal party to the sister classes.

Further Senior Appointments; List Grows

The following seniors have been added to the list of those who have positions for the ensuing year: Furrman, Kathleen; Browne, Margarette; Hallett, Mary Elna; Behrens, Karen; Scottish, Wilmer; Casper, Kappa Delta; Beck, Joaunt; Marita, Lillian; Kersey, Mary; Ossinan; Vail, Madeline; Osborn, Eunice; Rice, Mabel; Anderson, Roberta; Rose, Myra; Bouch, Elizabeth; Bailey, Albany High School; Bell, Mary, Albany Business College; Finley, Madeleine, Newcomb; Wheeler, Ellen; CHABOT, Eula, Albany Public Schools; Ian, Louisa, Farmers, Ben­ con; Livingston, Marjorie, California; Sutherland, Mildred, Weldall, Martin, Albany Public Schools; Weldall, Virginia, Albany Public Schools; Weldall, White, Arthur, Mildred Superior; Roberts, May, Ellenville.

Further Senior Appointments; List Grows

The following seniors have been added to the list of those who have positions for the ensuing year: Furrman, Kathleen; Browne, Margarette; Hallett, Mary Elna; Behrens, Karen; Scottish, Wilmer; Casper, Kappa Delta; Beck, Joaunt; Marita, Lillian; Kersey, Mary; Ossinan; Vail, Madeline; Osborn, Eunice; Rice, Mabel; Anderson, Roberta; Rose, Myra; Bouch, Elizabeth; Bailey, Albany High School; Bell, Mary, Albany Business College; Finley, Madeleine, Newcomb; Wheeler, Ellen; CHABOT, Eula, Albany Public Schools; Ian, Louisa, Farmers, Ben­ con; Livingston, Marjorie, California; Sutherland, Mildred, Weldall, Martin, Albany Public Schools; Weldall, Virginia, Albany Public Schools; Weldall, White, Arthur, Mildred Superior; Roberts, May, Ellenville.
Interclass Rivalry
Rules As Amended

SECTION I
Traditions

1. Seniors shall march out of assembly first, all others standing in their places until the seniors have left the auditorium, then following in the order of classes. Freshmen shall remain until all others have left the auditorium.

2. Freshmen must be segregated from sophomores and upperclassmen at basketball games.

3. Freshmen shall neither enter nor leave college by the front door from the first day of classes to Moving-Up Day. No freshman shall sit in the rounds.

4. When two or more students of different ranks enter a building or any room of that building at the same time, deference must be shown to upperclassmen.

5. There shall be no cutting across the lawns of the campus at any time.

6. Freshmen shall be required to know "College of the Empire State" by November 1.

7. Identification: Freshmen girls shall wear a regulation button from October 1 to Moving-Up Day. Freshmen must wear regulation white caps from October 1 until snow flies and from April 1 until Moving-Up Day. Regulation toques shall be worn between the above mentioned dates. These means of identification need not be worn during vacation or out of the city.

SECTION II
Sophomore Rules

If the sophomores choose to have Sophomore Rules, they must submit them to Myskania for approval between Moving-Up Day and Graduation. Methods of enforcing rules must also be submitted for approval.

SECTION III
Inter-Class Rivalry

All events of rivalry between the freshmen and the sophomores take place under the direction of Myskania.

1. Banner Rivalry:
   a. Freshman and sophomore banners may be honestly stolen.
   b. Banner rivalry shall not begin until both classes are in possession of a banner.
   c. Each class shall possess a book of three banners.
   d. Banners shall be in charge of the men during the first semester and in charge of women during the second semester (beginning in the year 1925-26).
   e. Any interference on the part of the men while the women are in possession of the banner and vice versa shall be considered a serious offense.

2. This interference means that all banner rivalry shall cease immediately for the remainder of the college year, and 5 points shall be given to the class against whom the offense is committed.

3. The sophomores and freshman banners shall be out of competition from the first day of classes to Moving-Up Day, if not before November 15, on the night of the Sophomore Soiree.

4. Opportunities for banner rivalry shall be afforded both semesters under the direction of Myskania.

5. Both the freshman and sophomore banners must be kept in the college building (executive offices excepted) or on the campus one college week in each semester, not before November 15 or after Moving-Up Day. Either banner may be lawfully stolen during three periods:

   a. September 1 to November 1.
   b. November 1 to Moving-Up Day.

   These periods are to be filed with Myskania.

6. The class in possession of the banner and vicinage shall be unproved by Myskania before the invitation is given.

7. At this time the sophomores shall present the freshmen with caps, toques, and numerals engraved thereon.

8. A button shall be one inch in diameter bearing the class colors and numerals—while a white background and border and numerals of class colors.

9. Toques and felt caps shall have a green button and border (or binding). The body of the cap shall be of class colors.

10. The class must yield to the other to one of the following forms of rivalry:

   a. Sing.
   b. Debate.

11. Mascot Hunting (Rules to go into effect 1925-26):

   a. The class possessing the mascot (a small statue not more than 8 inches high and weighing not more than 10 lbs) shall hide it.
   b. This statue is to be shown in installation the week preceding the contest and then hidden somewhere on the campus or in the college buildings (executive offices are excepted) and not to be moved during the contest; it cannot be buried in the ground.
   c. A sealed record of the hiding place is to be filed with Myskania.
   d. The rival class shall hunt for the mascot and then hidden someplace on the campus or in the college buildings. The rival class shall have a green button and border (or binding). The body of the cap shall be of class colors.

12. The challenge shall be made by the president of one class to the president of the other class three days after the challenge has been approved by Myskania.

13. The answer must be made in the same manner within one week.

14. Failure to respond will be considered as a victory for the challenging class.

15. Victory in this hunt will be 3 points.

16. The class receiving the greater number of points in all the above events of the day shall receive 5 points.

V. Get-Wise Meeting:

1. The sophomores shall invite the freshmen to a Get-Wise Party before November 1.

2. The program of activities shall be handed down from year to year.

3. At this time the sophomores shall supply the freshmen with buttons, caps, and toques.

4. Banners shall be one inch in diameter bearing the class colors and numerals—while a white background and border and numerals of class colors.

5. Toques and felt caps shall have a green button and border (or binding). The body of the cap shall be of class colors.

VI. Point System:

1. The class having the most points under the Inter-Class Rivalry shall be awarded a silver loving cup at the end of the Moving-Up Sing. This cup shall be handed down from year to year.

2. The class winning it shall have its numerals engraved thereon.

Amendments

1. Suggestions for amendments may be submitted to Myskania—permanent amendments shall require the approval of Dr. Brubacher and shall be read to the student body one week before they are submitted for ratification. Two-thirds of those present shall be required for adoption.
The Past Year One Of Success In G. A. A.; Varsity Basketball Team Victorious Over Russell Sage

It has been said of human-kind that its greatest hope lies in its method of relaxation, and to some extent, at least, it is true. To the college student, college life is very strenuous business and consequently demands a strenuous form of relaxation. If his development is to be evenly balanced, in State College that chance to relax comes through G. A. A. It means the chance for each to pick out the sport that's the most fun for her, and to play at that with as little or as much energy as she desires. It isn't fun for just the few who can do things well; it's fun for every student in the college who wishes to share in that fun.

This year, more than any other, has put G. A. A. with the highest of things that are worth while in college. It centers its interest, at first, in the freshmen. G. A. A. planned to show these lonesome, bewildered infants the beauties of the outskirts of Albany by a hike; but the powers that be deemed it necessary to show them, rather, the weaknesses of Albany's outdoors—its parks, etc. Then they took them into the Albany High School, a hike; but the powers that be, still deeming it necessary to show them something real, sent them to the base of the Indian Ladder to see the Indian Ladder Hike, that glorious semi-annual trip up to the mountain tops, in time to see all the autumn beauty of the color at its best. Tired and dusty everyone returns from Indian Ladder convinced of two things—her love of college and her love of the out-of-doors.

The best of all the year was the “Vanderveer.” Secretly, quietly, a dream of a few, who see big things, had been coming into reality in G. A. A. The college has always a desire for entertainment, and G. A. A. had talent. The answer of G. A. A. to this desire of the college was a real “sure stuff” Vanderveer show, given in the auditorium. It was the kind of thing that pleased the big and the little, and a bigness being either mental or physical.

Three weeks elapsed before the next event on the G. A. A. calendar—the Indian Ladder Hike, that glorious semi-annual trip up to the mountain tops, in time to see all the autumn beauty of the colors at its best. Tired and dusty everyone returns from Indian Ladder convinced of two things—her love of college and her love of the out-of-doors.

Next, the first gym frolic of the year happened. The freshmen, who had it, wore their hair down. The upper classmen became youthful, casting aside the cares of a strenuous form of relaxation. It centers its interest, at first, in the freshmen. G. A. A. planned to show these lonesome, bewildered infants the beauties of the outskirts of Albany by a hike; but the powers that be, still deeming it necessary to show them something real, sent them to the base of the Indian Ladder to see the Indian Ladder Hike, that glorious semi-annual trip up to the mountain tops, in time to see all the autumn beauty of the color at its best. Tired and dusty everyone returns from Indian Ladder convinced of two things—her love of college and her love of the out-of-doors.

It is a dream compared to the possibilities of the year that is to come. The very fact that this year’s dreams have come to be realized such a large extent makes those who will be the dreamers and the doers for the coming year more bold.

All year long G. A. A. has been busy planning fun and benefits for the college people. It has been a glorious year of successes for them, but it is only a dream compared to the possibilities of the year that is to come. The very fact that this year’s dreams have come to be realized such a large extent makes those who will be the dreamers and the doers for the coming year more bold.

G. A. A. has always stood for clean cooperation and friendship. It has expressed it more successfully this past year and hopes to express it still more successfully and still more broadly in the coming year. Meanwhile, it invites cooperation and friendship.

CLASSICAL CLUB

The aim of Classical Club is to increase interest in the life and literature of the Latin and Greek peoples. Membership is open to all students who have passed Latin I or Greek I. The officers for 1925-1926 are: first counsel, Marion Chesworth; 2nd counsel, Helen Vinc, 2nd scribe, Sylvia Estabrook; 3rd scribe, Ruth Lammon; 4th scribe, Nellie Wood, 28.
BASKETBALL VARSITY TEAM

Basketball and Football Season

Winning six straight victories on the home court, State College's Purple and Gold basketball varsity came through a successful season. Starting off with a 33 to 15 defeat by Union, State was trimmed two nights later by Brooklyn Law, playing Nadel, for three years a Walker Camp All-American forward for C. C. N. Y. Then it broke into the winning column, defeating St. Michael's College from Winooski Park, Vermont, a disastrous Christmas trip to New York, with a crippled team, resulted in three losses, but on the return the team was whipped back into shape and the players administered a 33 to 11 drubbing to Jamaica Teachers Training School of New York. Then, in order, the Alumni, Oswego, and Cortland Normals, and Rochester College of Optometry fell victims to the squad, Rochester pushing up a splendid fight in the final game.

With five games won and five lost and with the season scoring just one point behind that of the opponents. State forced ahead in the final two minutes of the season and won the game by one point. John Gainor, of Salem, New York, placed the team through the season with his play in every game. Gainor was not outjumped by any other center throughout the schedule. Clarence A. Nephew, was manager. The gymnasium and the athletic field offer pleasant laboratories where the student is guided to work out a health regime and to discover the type of exercise and recreation best suited to her needs. Appreciation of outdoor living is cultivated by frequent cross-country hikes, and one-night camping trips under supervision. Basketball is offered for those who wish to play, and hockey, volleyball, and swimming, with instruction. Men's athletics parallel those offered for women. The department aims to study the mental health needs as well as the physical. Opportunity is provided for consultation with the college physician, for any type of health problem. The gymnastics and the health offices work together constantly to help the student toward the goal of strong, sane, happy living.

STATE COLLEGE NEWS, MAY 29, 1925

Page Seven

H. E. CLUB

The Home Economics Club was organized in 1922 with Etta Leonard as president emeritus. The purpose of this club is to promote good fellowship among the students of the department, and to inspire loyalty to the department and to the college.

The following officers have been elected for 1925-26: president, Rachel Westfall; vice-president, Elizabeth Doyle; secretary, Mildred Graves; treasurer, Jacqueline Maville; junior editor, Zéléma Gorman; senior editor, Estelle Bender; reporter, Rachel Westfall; marshal, Carol Ann Jesslyn and Beatrice Wright.
DEPARTMENTS OFFER VARIETY OF COURSES

MUSIC ASSOCIATION

In closing the college year 1924-25, Professor Kirtland would like to thank all who have in any way helped to make this, its sixth year, a successful and enjoyable one. During the bi-monthly meetings of the Association, the following members have given musical programs consisting of selections for violin, piano and voice:

Misses Gillies, Mary Westenwod-vick, Ruby Herman, Zelma Gorman, Ruth Lounsbury, Jeannette Mansuelle, Mureh Loomax, Margaret Taylor, Agatha Flick, Ruth Leinmel, Margaret Martin, Ruth Van Zand, Henriette Flint, Esther Pedder, Bertha Zalens, Cordelia Williams, Violet Pierce, Marion Veder, Anna Murray, Mary Turrent, Carolyn Josslyn, David Neville, Willard Retallick, Percy Briggs, Harry Godfrey, Felix Pasta, Anne Raymond, Miss Poole, Jeannette Wright, Mary Reine, Katherine Hammerschmidt.

Much credit is due for the successful planning of the program is given to Ruth Johnston, chairman of the program committee for 1924-25.

During the year the Association brought before the people of Albany two major concerts. The first was a recital by Odys Gabrielson, who presented a program of vocal and instrumental music. The second concert was held in Chancellors' Hall, December 12. In the spring, April 29, the association presented the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and pianist of international repute, Itzhak Stern.

This concert was given May 9 in the College Auditorium. The college mid-winter concert was also held in Chancellors' Hall, February 6. The college orchestra, mixed chorus, and women's chorus gave a varied program. Zofia Szczoty, Hungarian violinist, was the assisting artist.

The annual spring concert was given May 9 in the College Auditorium. This concert also represented State's contribution to music work. The college orchestra, mixed chorus, and women's chorus participated.

A college sing before the holidays, December 16, in the college auditorium, was sponsored by the association. Special features included the rendition by a mixed chorus of a carol composed for the college. At this time, the mixed chorus made its appearance, and with a small echo chorus sang a selection from seventeenth century carols.

The above activities of the Music Association council for the coming year are as follows: Thaga Bevier, president; Will Therien, treasurer; Helen Arthur, secretary; Nettie Gilbert, chairman of membership committee; Marion O'Connor, chairman of program committee.

Two concerts will be given next season under the auspices of the Music Association: a pantomime recital by Percy Granger, and a recital of chamber music by the Flowsly Quartet.

SPANISH

Because of the fertilizer interest, for both commercial and social reasons, in the language of South America, the Spanish department is particularly popular for high school study. The courses offered in this department embrace one in commercial Spanish, one in which the moxh of Spanish-American are read and discussed and one in contemporary Spanish drama.

To accelerate general interest in the countries of the life of Castle and South America, the Spanish Club gives a annual card each year. Here, in the spirit of the days of South the full 6-tens, and typical street scenes are created.

CHANGES IN COURSES

Several important changes in courses will be made this year, Dr. A. R. Brubacher, announced today. Professor Brubacher explained that these changes are chiefly in the department of education and are listed in the 1925-26 catalog as follows:

The department of education has a three-fold aim: to teach the students to know and appreciate literature of all kinds and types, to represent Literature in declamation and dramatization, and to create literature in public speech and in writing.

Stress is laid not only on the literature itself, but also in relating the lives of the various authors and the customs of the people to the productions. Elective courses in the study of Shakespeare's plays, language, and scenes from the plays, are given. Each drama is presented in the course "English Literature," and the general reader.

Students interested in original literary production are offered a course in advanced composition as well as a course in short story writing and criticism. The Lalch Lovenstein prize in English encourages work along this line.

Oral English is a valued part of the work of this department. To increase interest in the course in this subject, which all freshmen are required to take, the president each year offers a prize for a speaking contest to be held in May. Besides the required courses, students interested in directing plays may take part in three one-act plays, directed by students of the advanced course, which are presented throughout the college year.

A full-length play, directed by Miss Almira T. Roper, the instructor, is presented by this class in May. The play this year is to be a modern三条, a play that may not have won the Pulitzer prize. The production will be given tomorrow night in the Vivian Auditorium.

The students participating are those who have chosen the department of drama and English literature. The play will be presented on the campus of the college and to the public.

BIOLOGY

The work of the department includes courses in evolution and physiology. These last courses, embracing the subjects of geology, mathematics and logic, are especially popular with students, both inside and outside the department. The year the following courses have been added to those at present offered by the department:

1. A course in short story writing and criticism.
2. An advanced course in drama, play production is given.
3. The interest student may have the opportunity of choosing, directing, and directing plays. The students of the advanced course take part in three one-act plays presented at the completion of their course, and frequently are given works in the one-act plays, directed by students of the advanced course, which are presented throughout the college year.

A full-length play, directed by Miss Agnes R. Potterer, the instructor, is presented by this class in May. The play this year is to be a modern drama, a play that has won the Pulitzer prize. The production will be given tomorrow night in the Vivian Auditorium.

The students participating are those who have chosen the department of drama and English literature. The play will be presented on the campus of the college and to the public.

PHYSICS

The department of physics is designed to develop independence and rigid thinking on the part of the student. To this end considerable work has been done in the development of wireless in connection with the Physics department. A wireless station is maintained where individual student work may be done. The various topics can be studied and an opportunity is given to set up the various sets and find them in actual practice.

Besides the various experimental setups used in the laboratory, there is in operation an excellent vacuum tube receiving set, which is in connection with the loud speaker, makes it possible to receive programs from a considerable distance.

The work of the department includes courses in evolution and physiology. These last courses, embracing the subjects of geology, mathematics and logic, are especially popular with students, both inside and outside the department. The year the following courses have been added to those at present offered by the department:

1. A course in short story writing and criticism.
2. An advanced course in drama, play production is given.
3. The interest student may have the opportunity of choosing, directing, and directing plays. The students of the advanced course take part in three one-act plays presented at the completion of their course, and frequently are given works in the one-act plays, directed by students of the advanced course, which are presented throughout the college year.

A full-length play, directed by Miss Almira T. Roper, the instructor, is presented by this class in May. The play this year is to be a modern drama, a play that has won the Pulitzer prize. The production will be given tomorrow night in the Vivian Auditorium.

The students participating are those who have chosen the department of drama and English literature. The play will be presented on the campus of the college and to the public.

The work of the department includes courses in evolution and physiology. These last courses, embracing the subjects of geology, mathematics and logic, are especially popular with students, both inside and outside the department. The year the following courses have been added to those at present offered by the department:

1. A course in short story writing and criticism.
2. An advanced course in drama, play production is given.
3. The interest student may have the opportunity of choosing, directing, and directing plays. The students of the advanced course take part in three one-act plays presented at the completion of their course, and frequently are given works in the one-act plays, directed by students of the advanced course, which are presented throughout the college year.

A full-length play, directed by Miss Almira T. Roper, the instructor, is presented by this class in May. The play this year is to be a modern drama, a play that has won the Pulitzer prize. The production will be given tomorrow night in the Vivian Auditorium.

The students participating are those who have chosen the department of drama and English literature. The play will be presented on the campus of the college and to the public.

The work of the department includes courses in evolution and physiology. These last courses, embracing the subjects of geology, mathematics and logic, are especially popular with students, both inside and outside the department. The year the following courses have been added to those at present offered by the department:

1. A course in short story writing and criticism.
2. An advanced course in drama, play production is given.
3. The interest student may have the opportunity of choosing, directing, and directing plays. The students of the advanced course take part in three one-act plays presented at the completion of their course, and frequently are given works in the one-act plays, directed by students of the advanced course, which are presented throughout the college year.

A full-length play, directed by Miss Almira T. Roper, the instructor, is presented by this class in May. The play this year is to be a modern drama, a play that has won the Pulitzer prize. The production will be given tomorrow night in the Vivian Auditorium.

The students participating are those who have chosen the department of drama and English literature. The play will be presented on the campus of the college and to the public.

GOVERNMENT

The Government department aims to turn out intelligent and well-informed public officers of American Government who will aid in the schools of training and developing better citizens. The courses include a study of the fundamental principles of state, city, county, and town government, with a detailed study of the government of New York State. Constitutional law of America and England is considered, and principles of political science are discussed. A seminar in government and constitutional history trains the student to do historical research.
STATE COLLEGE NEWS, MAY 29, 1925

CHEMISTRY

The elementary courses in this department aim not so much at making the student a chemist as at awakening in him a quick perception and recognition of a chemical problem. This recognition was made important to a business man or woman as its subsequent solution by a trained expert. From these courses, one learns to cease to be a patron of failure with the sale of proprietary and expensive cosmetics, synthetic foods, fat removers, strength builders, and similar nostrums.

The advanced courses develop the technique of the student in laboratory procedure, both for analysis and synthesis, and trace the development of chemistry from its Egyptian inception through the German and French contributions to the present advances made by America in the late war and since. The application of chemistry to industry is stressed.

The teacher, a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, the students are educated to the part of full fledge chemists. Before this group, both in Algebra and Scehesetady.

MUSIC

The music department functions not only to encourage and develop individual talent, to give instruction in the rudiments of harmony and composition, but also to give all the student an opportunity to enjoy the fine music and to increase their appreciation of it. To this end, opportunity for ensemble playing and choral singing is provided. These groups give a concert every spring in an upper chapel on various occasions. The department gives impetus to the many organizations of the college and the various activities of the Pedagogue, the senior year book, and the Student Council, its purpose and its methods.

In order to give Professor Kirtland an opportunity to develop this course and to give also two other lecture courses in the department, Dr. Harry W. Kirtland, head of the department, next year, President Brubacher said.

DRAMATIC AND ART

All students are members of the Dramatic and Art Association, the purpose of which is to further dramatic and artistic interest. A governing body, known as Art Council, is composed of two members from each of the three upper classes, and three faculty members. The following year, in addition to the dramatics class plays, "Art Club" and "The Broadway Boys" and "Overtones" in January, and "The Telephone," just before the end of the school year, are to be produced. Under the direction of Miss Futterer, the Dramatics and Art Department has furnished several of the works that are used in the courses. These include a change of the history of art course, a course in psychology, and a course in pedagogics.

The Art Council is also responsible for the Dramatics and Art Department. The courses in the department include a course in the history of art and a course in the history of literature. The department aims at making the student an artist and an appreciator of the arts.

PHILOSOPHY

In order that the student may become a satisfactorily educated teacher, the department of philosophy aims at making the student an artist and an appreciator of the arts. The department's purpose is to give a knowledge of mental life, that which is to be found in the study of psychology, and of the human sciences, such as sociology and economics.

In order that the student may become a satisfactorily educated teacher, the department of philosophy aims at making the student an artist and an appreciator of the arts. The department's purpose is to give a knowledge of mental life, that which is to be found in the study of psychology, and of the human sciences, such as sociology and economics.

In order that the student may become a satisfactorily educated teacher, the department of philosophy aims at making the student an artist and an appreciator of the arts. The department's purpose is to give a knowledge of mental life, that which is to be found in the study of psychology, and of the human sciences, such as sociology and economics.

In order that the student may become a satisfactorily educated teacher, the department of philosophy aims at making the student an artist and an appreciator of the arts. The department's purpose is to give a knowledge of mental life, that which is to be found in the study of psychology, and of the human sciences, such as sociology and economics.
Myskania

Myskania, founded in 1917, acts as a student council in supervising student activities and guiding college traditions. Myskania is composed of fourteen elected officers, chosen on Moving-Up Day of their junior year. Two members are chosen by popular vote of the student body; the others are appointed by the outgoing Myskania. They are chosen as leaders in scholarship, literary effort, dramatics, athletics, and undergraduate affairs generally. The duties of Myskania are:

1. To supervise all forms of inter-class rivalry.
2. To foster college tradition, and to see that it is upheld.
3. To foster the college spirit to the undergraduates.
4. To organize the freshman class, and to work in the spirit of all the undergraduates.
5. To hold a retreat at the Academy each fall.

The members for 1925-1926 are: president, Ruth Empie; vice-president, Harold Ferguson; editor-in-chief, Lillian Gannett; business manager, Margaret F. Benson; editor of the Pedagogue, Elizabeth R. Strong; manager of Girls' Athletics, Mildred A. Humes; business manager of Pedagogue, Mildred M. Humes; associate editors of Pedagogue, Elizabeth R. Strong, Muriel L. Venzel, Elizabeth A. Milmine, Kathleen E. Hurley, Elizabeth A. Milmine, Loretta M. Shaffer, Miriam B. Snow.

CLASS OFFICERS

The following are the senior officers for 1925-26: president, Ruth Empie; vice-president, Ethel Van Embock; secretary, Coribel Pa.Luc. '26; treasurer, Margaret TaWor '27; finance board, Ethel Van Embock, Elva Jochumcn, Mildred M. Humes.

The junior officers for 1925-26 are: president, Miriam Snow, '26; vice-president, Marjorie H. Beilows, '26; editor-in-chief, Marion Landon, '26; senior editor, Miriam B. Snow, '26; treasurer, Marion Landon, '26; reporter, Percy Briggs, '26.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The aim of Mathematics Club is to further the interest and increase the perspective of students in mathematics. At the semi-annual meetings, topics on a mathematical nature are represented by members of the club or by speakers from outside college. The meetings this year have been a stimulating factor in the growth of the club. The purpose of the club is to bring girls of the college in closer contact with the sciences, and to further the interest and increase the knowledge of the members in this branch of learning.

The officers for the ensuing year, 1925-26, are: president, Ruth Empie; vice-president, Harold Ferguson; editor-in-chief, Mildred M. Humes; business manager, Elizabeth R. Strong; associate editors of Pedagogue, Elizabeth R. Strong, Muriel L. Venzel, Elizabeth A. Milmine, Kathleen E. Hurley, Elizabeth A. Milmine, Loretta M. Shaffer, Miriam B. Snow.

MATH CLUB

This club is to aid in the development of mathematical ability through the cooperation of students. The purpose of the club is to promote a spirit of co-operation and to encourage the development of individual mathematical ability. The officers for the ensuing year, 1925-26, are: president, Jane Barry; vice-president, Margaret F. Benson; editor-in-chief, Mildred M. Humes; business manager, Elizabeth R. Strong; associate editors of Pedagogue, Elizabeth R. Strong, Muriel L. Venzel, Elizabeth A. Milmine, Kathleen E. Hurley, Elizabeth A. Milmine, Loretta M. Shaffer, Miriam B. Snow.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club is to interest all students in the customs and history of the French people, and to arouse a genuine appreciation of French art and literature. The meetings of the club are semi-monthly. This year the club conducted a very successful French Fête, April 24.

The officers for 1925-26 are: president, Ruth Empie; vice-president, Margaret F. Benson; editor-in-chief, Mildred M. Humes; business manager, Elizabeth R. Strong; associate editors of Pedagogue, Elizabeth R. Strong, Muriel L. Venzel, Elizabeth A. Milmine, Kathleen E. Hurley, Elizabeth A. Milmine, Loretta M. Shaffer, Miriam B. Snow.

SPANISH CLUB

The aim of the Spanish Club is to promote the study of Spanish, literature, and the customs and history of the Spanish people. Meetings of the club are held semi-monthly. Each meeting has been a series of lectures in Spanish by a Spanish-speaking professor from the University of Madrid, and in the past two years the principal features of the Spanish language have been included. The Spanish Club exists to bring students closer to the Spanish-speaking world, to foster a spirit of Spanish-speaking interest, and to provide a platform for the expression of Spanish-speaking ideas.

The officers for the ensuing year, 1925-26, are: president, Miriam Snow, '26; vice-president, Coleman Gillett; editor-in-chief, Miriam Alexander; treasurer, Harold Campbell, '26; secretary, Anna Hazenberg, '26.
Do what Toledo did

Once Toledo had a nuisance, a tract of swamp land near the lake, a breeder of mosquitoes, foul odors and fogs.

But an automatic pumping station, equipped with motors made by the General Electric Company, turned the swamp into dry land—and abolished the menace to the city.

This is one example of what electricity can do. As you meet life's problems, think of electricity as a valiant and ever-ready ally.

GENERAL ELECTRIC

KOHN BROS.

125 Central Avenue
at Lexington

OPEN EVENINGS

FLOYD H. GRAVES

845 Madison Avenue
ALBANY, N.Y.

DRUGS AND PHARMACEUTICALS
DISTINCTIVE GIFTS
FOR THE GRADUATE AND THE BRIDE
At
The Kraft Shop
10 CENTRAL AVENUE

CHEERFUL SERVICE SHOP
JOS. A. WALSH, Prop.
Hosiery for People Who Care - - Lingerie
Gents' Furnishings
5% Off To College Students
Have you seen the new fancy silk gloves, and the slipper heel
hosiery, all shades
107 CENTRAL AVENUE BELOW LEXINGTON AVENUE

KIMBALL'S
RESTAURANT
H. R. KIMBALL, Prop.
SPECIAL DINNERS 40 and 50 cents
A LA CARTE SERVICE
MEAL TICKETS A LA CARTE SERVICE
SUNDAY CHICKEN DINNER 60c
206 Washington Ave. Telephone West 3464
4 doors above Lark St.

ATTENTION
SENIORS AND FACULTY WRITE ME—I HAVE A MESSAGE
FOR YOU
HOWARD A. SHEARER
467 Broadway Albany

Hosler's Ice Cream
MADE IN DAIRYLAND
FLAVORED IN FAIRYLAND
Hosler Ice Cream Co.

H. E. STAHLER'S RESTAURANT
"THE BEST IS NONE TOO GOOD"
Candies, Ice Cream, Soda, Cigars
307 CENTRAL AVE. Albany, N. Y. Phone West 6448

H. B. HARBINGER & BRO.
PRINTERS—ENGRAVERS—JEWELERS
RULING — BINDING — STITCHING
ADDRESSING — FOLDING — MAILING
DIE STAMPING—PLATE ENGRAVING
LEATHER & SILVER NOVELTIES
46 NORTH PEARL STREET MAIN 9985 W

VACATION
Girls' Camp Pinnacle
Helderburg Mountains, Near Albany
Altitude 1623 ft.
Write for Circular Before May 30
to
281 State St., Albany Summer Address, R.F.D. Voorheesville
REGISTER EARLY TO INSURE RESERVATIONS!

SPORTING GOODS
ALBANY AUTO SUPPLY, INC.
145 Central Ave.
West 1616
H. B. SMITH
Masquerade Costumer
Masks, Wigs, Beards, etc
122 Quail St. West 40-J
Opposite Car Barns Albany, N. Y.

Try Us Out
VARIETY STORE
203 Ontario Street
Dress Goods—Ready Made Dresses—Dresses Made To Order—School Supplies—Noveltes of All Sorts
Open Evenings Until 10 o'clock

COLLEGE BARBER SHOP
CONRAD HEYES, Prop.
Drop in between Classes
82 ROBIN STREET

LAST BUT NOT LEAST
The Gateway Press
QUALITY PRINTING
AT YOUR ELBOW—WEST 2037
336 Central Avenue