Cavanaugh's 34 Propells Danes To 98-77 Romp

As Offensive Display Buries C.W. Post

by Paul Schwartz

Barry Cavanaugh has scored more points in one game than any player in NCAA history. And he did it with overwhelming ease. The Danes' 98-77 victory over C.W. Post was the latest in a series of one-sided thrashings inflicted by Albany.

SUNY Budget Increase Sliced

The 1974-75 SUNY budget proposed by Governor Carey is being pared back by state legislators. The budget, which was presented to the Legislature in January, included a $20 million increase in state funding. However, the budget was cut by $4 million, and the SUNY Board of Trustees was asked to come up with another $6 million in cuts.

SA Magazine To Be Re-Focused

By Fred Collins and June Marion

In an effort to focus on the needs of students, SA magazine is undergoing a re-focus. The new focus will be on issues of student life, including academics, campus life, and current events. The magazine plans to publish articles that are more relevant to students and to increase the frequency of publication. Readers are encouraged to submit their ideas and suggestions for future issues.

Syracuse Dome Project

Source of Controversy

By Nancy Grimes

The Syracuse Dome Project, a proposed stadium for the Syracuse University football team, has become a source of controversy. The project, which would cost $250 million, has sparked debate among local residents, students, and university administrators. Some are concerned about the impact on traffic and parking, while others support the project as a way to boost the economy.

Continued adherence to the rights of all Civil Rights movements have become obvious, as if progress has become the only way to move the situation of the black community. The issue is now more one of whites trading race for status and privilege, and that is the source of the problem.

Cheating: They Give It The Old College Try

How far out on a limb would you go for a grade?

Would it be worth it in the end?

What does the SUNYA faculty think of academic dishonesty?

What can happen if you're caught cheating?

Robin Goldberg

I have seen many methods of cheating. The SUNYA psychology major here gives a good example of how to study in her class on the subject of cheating.

The psychology major here uses a technique called "self-cheating," which involves intentionally failing to study for an exam or test, and then cheating off another student's answers. This technique is said to be effective because it allows the student to "cheat" in a way that is both subtle and difficult to detect.

According to Dr. John Keating, the SUNYA psychology major who uses this technique, "self-cheating" is a useful tool for students who want to avoid the inconvenience of studying, but still achieve good grades.

Dr. Keating explains that "self-cheating" is a technique that involves intentionally failing to study for an exam or test, and then cheating off another student's answers. He says that this technique is effective because it allows the student to "cheat" in a way that is both subtle and difficult to detect.

Dr. Keating also notes that "self-cheating" is a technique that is often used by students who are not interested in the material being studied, or who simply do not have the time or energy to study.

According to Dr. Keating, "self-cheating" is a useful tool for students who want to achieve good grades without having to put in the effort of studying.

Up In The Sky
It's Superman!

For those who remember the comic book hero, the movie Superman was a revelation. The film starred Christopher Reeve as the Man of Steel, and it was a massive success, grossing over $270 million worldwide.

The plot of the movie follows Clark Kent, a mild-mannered reporter for the Daily Planet, who has the ability to fly as Superman. The movie opens with Clark witnessing the death of his adopted parents and realizing his true identity. He then decides to use his powers for good, fighting crime and protecting the innocent.

The movie was praised for its special effects, which were state-of-the-art at the time. The actors, who played Superman and Lex Luthor, were also praised for their performances. The movie was a huge hit, and it led to a sequel, Superman II.

The movie also had a cast of supporting characters, including Margot Kidder as Lois Lane and Marlon Brando as Jor-El, Clark's adoptive father.

In conclusion, Superman is a classic movie that has stood the test of time. It is a great example of how a well-crafted story and talented actors can create a movie that will be remembered for generations to come.
SUNY Dollars and Sense

When it comes to politics, Hugh Carey is no dummy. He didn't point to the hope that he would kick the budget for SUNY. He didn't say that the SUNY budget should be cut, but rather that the SUNY Board of Trustees should be cut.

Carey's proposed budget is an affront to every SUNY student. It is not the budget that we need. Not only does it fail to address the problems that SUNY faces today, but it also fails to address the problems that SUNY will face tomorrow.

Take up arms against the administration, SA, UAS and other loathsome organizations...

swimmer, freshman Monica Rossi, who hails from Scarsdale where she won the individual medley in the race, and also qualified for the New York State Championships. Albany State's women's swimming team was in part responsible for a loss on Jan. 27 when the Danes, managed to earn only the one point needed to keep them from a complete loss in their meet against the University of Vermont. Rossi gained two seconds in the 50-yard fly, two seconds in the 100-yard backstroke, and one second in the 50-yard breaststroke.

In diving action, Charlotte Golem of the Cygnets placed second with a score of 239.33. Meghan Hoke and Elyse Fritts placed second and third, respectively. JSC Free University presents first program for semester Hebrew Calligraphy Sunday Feb. 4 Fine Arts 228 1-2:30 pm

Women swimmers lose at home
by Janet J. Cesar
The women's swimming team was trimmed to the tune of 13 points to 9 by the Owls of Orlando on Jan. 27 at the University of Vermont. It was an action packed meet for the Owls which shutout the Owls in the meet. The Owls had only two more points to add to their meet total and the Cygnets scored a total of 9 points to their meet total. Esther Mason of the Cygnets swam 12 seconds to the finish line of the 100-yard backstroke, Charlotte Golem of the Cygnets placed second with a score of 239.33. Meghan Hoke and Elyse Fritts placed second and third, respectively.

After Muhammad Ali goes to the ground at University Gym last night he was awarded a points decision in the Atlantic-United States Women's and Men's Gotham Invitational. The highlight of the event was the bout between Ali and George Foreman of New York. Ali won the bout by a score of 20-17. Rossi had another great meets against the Owls. She won the 50-yard backstroke, 100-yard backstroke, 200-yard backstroke, and 200-yard individual medley.
