Danes Face Tough Pair

Fresh off an inspiring two-point win over Siena College, the Great Dane basketball team faced a hard weekend in the Armory, playing with Montclair State tonight and the University of Buffalo tomorrow night.

The outcome of these two contests will go a long way in determining the forecast for the season, as both games are highly and evenly matched.

The Danes are looking to bounce back after a 90-80 loss to Virginia Tech last weekend, but they are confident in their ability to compete against both teams.

The Greek alphabet is a system of letters that has been in use for over two thousand years. It is used to represent Greek words and phrases, and is the basis for many modern alphabets.

The Greek alphabet was developed by the ancient Greeks and is one of the oldest alphabets in use today. It was originally used for writing the Greek language, but has since been adapted to represent other languages as well.

The Greek alphabet consists of twenty-four letters, each of which has two or three different forms depending on its position in a word. The letters are written from left to right.

The Greek alphabet has been influential in the development of many other alphabets, such as the Latin alphabet, which is used to write most of the world's languages.

The Greek alphabet has also been used in various other contexts, such as in the creation of the Greek flag, and in the design of many logos and symbols.

The Greek alphabet is an important part of the history and culture of the ancient Greeks, and is still used today in various forms around the world.
Crocco Standout In Dane Losses, Tallies 35 for Armory Mark

by Dave Odedhal
Albany State's Great Dane basketball team lost its first two games of the season last weekend, as Skidmore defeated the Danes Friday night, 86-76, and the University of Buffalo upset the homestanding Saturday, 80-66. The only consolation of the two home losses was that freshman transfer student from Illinois Valley Community College, Mike Crocco, and veteran center Dan Zigler tied the FDU freshmen, 33-10 in a con­ference game.

It was the first game of the year for the Danes, and Matten overwhelmed Dob Kott, de­feat. Smith overwhelmed Dob Kott, de­feat. To win a conference game.

Central Council Lists Organizations Requiring Mandatory SA Membership

Central Council accepted the recommendations of the Ad Hoc Committee on Student Tax last meeting, which defined eligibility, in Student Association. A list of eight recommendations, the council acted on, was submitted in a report presented by the president.

The policy adopted by Central Council may be to close many organizations which are not organized, financed, or operated by student association. This would affect many groups, among them the Student Association, the Greek organizations, and the student government.
