Eagles to Play Niagra Tonight In Page Hall Gym

JV's Loss to Siena

The loss to Siena on Saturday evening was not unexpected in view of the difference in teams. The Garnet's, fighting for their lives, played a very good game, but the Siena team, with its greater experience and skill, made the difference. The score was 21 to 13 in favor of the Visitors. The Garnet's season is now over, as they are not scheduled to play again.

Pre-Induction Courses

The state college of New York has announced that a new set of pre-induction courses will be offered this fall. The courses are designed to help students prepare for military service and will be offered at all state college campuses.

Golf Tournament

The annual golf tournament sponsored by the state college's athletic department was held last weekend. The tournament attracted a large number of participants, and the competition was fierce. The winner was announced as the individual who achieved the lowest score.

Basketball League Games Rolling Along

The state college basketball league is in full swing, with teams from all over the state competing for the championship. The league consists of both men's and women's teams, and each team plays a series of games against other teams.

State College for Teachers

The state college for teachers is offering a new program this fall. The program is designed for teachers who want to advance their skills and knowledge in the field of education. The program will be taught by experienced educators and will cover a variety of topics.

Art Collection Shown in Milne

An art collection is currently on display in Milne, the art department building on campus. The collection includes works by a variety of artists, including some local artists.

Fresh, Upperclassmen Inducted by Greeks

The Beta Zola sorority inducted two upperclassmen into their organization last week. The inductees were welcomed into the group with a ceremony that included speeches and a meal.

Registration at the State College for Teachers

The state college for teachers is currently accepting registrations for the fall semester. Students interested in registering should contact the registrar's office for more information.

Man shortage cancels comedy

The state college theater department has canceled an upcoming comedy show due to a shortage of performers. The show was scheduled to take place next week, but the cancellation was announced to prevent the show from going forward without sufficient performers.
The Bill of Rights

This week the American people are being reminded of the importance of the Bill of Rights. It is a time for us to appreciate the freedoms and liberties that we enjoy in this country. The Bill of Rights is a document that guarantees certain fundamental rights to all Americans. These rights include freedom of speech, the right to bear arms, and the right to a fair trial.

Volumes for Victory

As the war continues, the demand for paper increases. Many people are now using their unused notebooks and scrap paper for important documents. It is important that we conserve paper to ensure that we have enough for the war effort.

Communications

The weekly bulletin is being altered to fit the needs of the war effort. The paragraphs will be shorter and the content will be more concise. This change will allow us to conserve paper and ensure that we have enough for important documents.

Rommel Offense in North Africa

The Axis forces in North Africa are making a determined effort to break through the Allied防线. Rommel's tanks are advancing rapidly, and it is possible that they may reach the coast in the near future.

Sports Chatter

Like the War front, the basketball field also has its heroes. The figures of the game can be seen in the stands. The heroes of the past are now the women of today. The women players are showing their skill and determination.

State Bows to St. Michael's In Final Home Game, 54-46

In a thrilling game, the State team defeated St. Michael's by a score of 54-46. The game was closely contested, and the State team showed great spirit and determination.

K-B Hands Potter First I-M Defeat

The K-B team defeated Potter in their first game of the season. The score was 60-50, and the K-B team showed great skill and teamwork.

Cager Spotlight

Kleemeyer's Bread

Holsum (White Bread)

Kleen-Maid Wheat

Holsum Cracked Wheat

KIMMEEY'S BREAD

In a friendly, comfortable atmosphere

WAGAR'S Western at Quail

STATE COLLEGE NEWS, FRIDAY FEBRUARY 19, 1943

STATE COLLEGE NEWS, FRIDAY FEBRUARY 19, 1943

PAGE 1

PAGE 2

War fronts by Taggertown

Rommel Offense in North Africa

Make Bid for Elbow Room

The Weekly Bulletin

KIMMEEY'S BREAD
Life in the WAAC

Some questions and answers of interest to every patriotic college woman.

The drilling sounds so strenuous—!

[Answers to various questions about life in the WAAC, including training, responsibilities, and opportunities for women in the military.]

First of all, is the WAAC really needed?

[Explanations why the WAAC is needed, highlighting the role women can play in the war effort.]

Fun the WAAC really help win the war?

[Details on how the WAAC contributes to the war effort, both locally and internationally.]

What can my college education contribute?

[Discussion on how college education can be applied in the WAAC and how it benefits the service.]

But isn't life comfortable on a WAAC ship?

[Descriptions of the living conditions, dietary arrangements, and leisure activities available to WAAC personnel.]