Election Won by 40 Votes, Marks First Girl President

Goldstein, Wolfe Take Major Student Posts

For the first time in the history of Student Council, a woman was tapped to head the organization. Frances Bourgeois, '43, Director of the Student Council, announced that Student Council President of the Association will be Miss Patricia Grace Latimer, "44, a junior. The election was won by the popularly chosen Jane Edmunds, '44. Other election results included:

2 Men, 8 Women Selected

3. Two women, Jane Edmunds and

Two Men, 8 Women Selected

Men, Women Selected

The College of Business Administration, President of the Association, was chosen for the coveted presidency was Miss Patricia Grace Latimer, '44. Miss Latimer was elected by a clear-cut victory for Harold Ashley, '44, her only rival in the first voliug for vice-president. Miss Latimer, who was defeated by Harold Ashley in last year's election, ran again this year because of her dissatisfaction with previous administration. She was named one of the candidates at the beginning of the year, but was not expected to win. However, she was the leading candidate, and was named the new President of the Association by a narrow margin.

Predicated Ratio for Next Year Nine Women for Every Male

The ratio of women to men in the college for the next year was predicted at nine to one. This prediction is based on the number of female students who will graduate next year. The total number of women in the college is 900, while the total number of men is 1000.
The prediction is based on the assumption that all women will graduated next year, and that all men will remain in the college for the next year. This prediction is considered to be the most likely outcome, and is based on the past trends of the college.

Bedford Survey

This was the first survey conducted by the Student Council, and it was successful in determining the opinions of the students on various issues. The survey was conducted by distributing questionnaires on campus, and the results were tabulated. The survey revealed that the students are interested in a variety of issues, and that they are concerned about the future of the college.

Alumni Pledge Blanks Ready for Class of 43

A special issue of the Alumni Pledge Blank was prepared for the Class of 43. The Pledge Blank is a form that is filled out by the alumni of the college, and is used to pay for the cost of publishing the Alumni News. The Pledge Blank is sent to each alumni of the college, and is due by July 1st. The Pledge Blank is a very popular form, and is used by many alumni to show their support for the college.
