BASKETBALL TEAM PLAYS TOMORROW
Coach May Use Several Members of Yearling Squad in First Half
By A. Scars
The Purple and Gold Free will open its 1932-33 basketball campaign tomorrow night at 8:15 o'clock in the gymnasium of Page Hall against Mox­well Training School of Brooklyn.
The starting lineup for the initial contest is uncertain as Coach Ruther­ford R. Baker has been attempting to give the starting members of the squad every opportunity to show their ability. However, it is likely at least seven or eight men will be used in the Maxwell class and will include: Benjamin Humphreys, who was a member of the varsity state basketball and football team; and Raymond Harris, two of whom will be retained from the last year of the school.
In basketball, Margaret Lewis, and Orville Johnson will be, while Harris is a freshman and Harris a sopho­more. Both are members of the Polytetnalastic Society.
Football has already finished for the season, but Coach Baker foresees another strong year in that sport and is sure to win.
Paula Armstrong, a member of the basketball squad, will play on the tennis team with Margaret Lewis.
Coach Baker has several other strong sports teams that will be at the disposal of the students.
RNUICK ARNOTT WILL BE CAPTAIN OF 1934 DEBATE TEAM
Renwick Arnot, '34, was elected captain of the state college debate team, which will debate the main report of the state of New York and the state of Ohio.
Arnott is a member of the state college debate team and will also debate the state of New York and the state of Ohio.

good exercise since 1910 and they are planning a very elaborate programme of sports. This work has never been so great a demand for their products as before. Stitches and other brushes which have proved their practical value to Miss McCutcheon, who is assistant professor of English and chairman of the English department at Pike College, have been sent to several schools.

The bicycle has much to commend it. Perhaps the most interesting emotion that arises from Miss McCutcheon's work is the desire to purchase a bicycle and have one's own.
