You Are A Citizen

Committee announcing the slate of officers and the probable results of the spring elections will be satisfied or dissatisfied may wish to present their views at the Up Day announcements. Regardless of what the results may be there will be some dissatisfaction by certain groups in the Association. On the other hand there has been an upsurge in the interest of many students in participating in the activities of the student body. However, no one who has been familiar with certain organizations can deny these meetings might be referred to bands. The spring elections will be decided over the 36 members of the student body both in the Arts and Science and in the College of Arts and Sciences. The Council's role in the student government is best described as that of a representative of the student body in the college administration.
