VARSITY TO PLAY FROSH

Worcester Defeats State College

Football between State and the Colgate freshmen will be a feature of the afternoon program on Campus Day tomorrow. The committee in charge of the event will stage the first of two home games against the yearlings from Hamilton at Ridgefield Park. The game promises to be a battle in which both teams will put up a hard fight.

College students will tomorrow afternoon, have the first opportunity of the season to submit team en masse.

The Worcester game proved that State has a football team of which she should be proud. The game, although ending with a tie, was a fine one, and it is said that Worcester's favor, should be considered a victory for State. Our men, by their hard work, showed the prospects bright for a winning team at State.

Worcester opened the game with a kick that reached nearly to our ten yard line. Since raised the ball, ran back five or six yards and was tackled. Since could not gain through the line, State now kicked. Worcester took the ball in midfield and made several gains that brought them again to our ten yard line. Through a fourth effort, however, the ball became loose on the field. Johnson then succeeded in getting the ball, but was tackled after a run of fifty yards. State in rapid succession made seven inches to the one and again kicked. The first half ended with Worcester having the ball on our forty yard line. Time 0-0. At the beginning of the second half, Worcester kicked to State. The ball was run back a few yards, and on the down State kicked. Worcester started a series of gains and then runs. Failed by a few breaks, they forced an afternoon on the end of the third quarter. State then rallied, and in the fourth completed two forward passes which covered twenty-five yards. All during this quarter the ball was in State's possession. The score at the end was 7-0 in favor of Worcester.

The line-up was as follows:

R. E.-Danielle L. C.-Junior
R. T.-Crawford L. E.-Johnson
R. G.-Owen B.-Craig
J. H.-Hobbs E. L.-Story
L. G.-Ferns R. H.-Canwell

Juniors Entertain Freshmen To-Night

Freshmen, don't feel blue. Here's a party that you've all been going to.

The junior-freshman party will be held tonight at State College. As it is nearing Hallowe'en, the party is to be in masquerade. However, those unable to come in masquerade, are equally welcome. The first part of the program will be held in the auditorium at 8:15. There will be an address to the freshmen, auditoire dancing, and a comedy played by comically inclined committees. Sara Breitweiser, Isabelle Plake, Niles Hartwig, and Carlton Moore. The rest of the program will be held in the gymnasium, where there will be refreshments and dancing. Prizes will be given for the best costumes.

The chairman of the committees are as follows: Arrangements, Myrtille Hallock; Decoration, Harry Godfrey; Catering, Mary Swart; Music, Harry Godfrey.

Facility Passes Resolutions

The faculty members of New York State College for Teachers, do herewith submit some slight expression of the deep sense of personal and professional loss that we feel at her early death, and our hearty appreciation of the charm of "those who pour" to be sent to the faculty of Middlebury College. Father Dimney presented to the members the significant offering of digging the soil with a new viewpoint to the details of everyday life, and, in conclusion, further emphasized the educational opportunities at State College. In behalf of the Newman Club, Mrs. Newman, the president, also expressed her pleasure at the queen's obvious loyalty to its work and those of the college. Father Dimney addressed the committee members individually.

SOPHOMORES MUST RETURN BUTTONS

Insignia Too Large

Freshmen girls Friday, removed the class pins they were wearing, handed them to one of their members and announced that since, in their opinion, they are larger than legal size, they need not be worn.

The freshmen assert that the buttons are not regulation, since they are more than one inch in diameter, they say they removed them and wish to have them destroyed. Sophomores, who have discovered the act, pursued the girl who collected the pins. The sophomores say that the class of 1928 was not within its rights in removing the buttons without permission, regardless of their size. This week they circulated a petition asking Myshkin to compel freshmen to wear the insignia until new ones can be provided.

A resolution has been issued by Myshkin declaring that the freshmen class that it members wear some form of identification, other than until new pins, until the college conform to regulation requirements, can be secured by the sophomores.
STATE COLLEGE NEWS, OCTOBER 17, 1924

ADVANTAGES OF STATE

"Why did you come to State when you had your choice, and could select from so many colleges?" somebody asked me.

"Because I want to teach," I replied.

I know that is the principle reason why some of those who entered State College. I began to think of my life's work, I have had an earnest desire to become a teacher. State College is the place where I first began to have any ambition towards having my particular desire, and also provides an opportunity of developing and cultivating that desire.

From the very best authority, I learned that the courses at State were as good, if not better, than those at the most famous universities in the United States.

The three chief reasons why the students of Slate College are so happy are:

1. The students are not only taught at Slate College, but also have an opportunity of working for their own education.
2. The students are not only taught by the teachers of the college, but also have an opportunity of working for their own education.
3. The students are not only taught by the teachers of the college, but also have an opportunity of working for their own education.

THE COLLEGE AND ITS TEAM

"Great athletes owe a part of their greatness to great situations. Great situations give rise to the birth of great athletes. Great situations aid in the development of great athletes. Great situations help to perfect great athletes."

The Chamber of Commerce Club held its first meeting of the college season. The officers present present were:

President: George W. H. Waller
Vice President: Louis E. Brown
Secretary: William J. Sullivan
Treasurer: John B. Boardman

The Chamber of Commerce Club will be a representative part at the Chamber of Commerce dinner, and another, an appropriate address to the student body.

PRESIDENT TO SPEAK

Dr. Bruchaker will address the students of Putnam County at Poughkeepsie, Tuesday, October 22, and the teachers of Long Island, Friday, October 24, at Amityville.

The annual report of the State Teachers' Association Board was read before the faculty at their meeting last Monday.

SYDNIUS HALL NOTES

Joyce Dwyer and Irene Gaingell, both 24, spent the week-end here, Miss Dwyer is teaching at Middlebury College, and Mrs. Margaret Dwyer, 26, has transferred to Simmons College, Boston.

Marguerite Bowers, 25, spent the week-end at the home of her mother, Jacqueline Montague, 27.

Miss Helen Monck, 26, is in St. Peter's hospital recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

Miss Mary Shway, instructor in Home Economics, College, visited Edith Higgins, 25, over the week-end.

Pol Gamma entertained over Columbus Day, Thursday, October 10. The officers present were:

President: H. H. H. Waller
Vice President: Louis E. Brown
Secretary: William J. Sullivan
Treasurer: John B. Boardman

The Chamber of Commerce Club will be a representative part at the Chamber of Commerce dinner, and another, an appropriate address to the student body.

PRESIDENT TO SPEAK

Dr. Bruchaker will address the students of Putnam County at Poughkeepsie, Tuesday, October 22, and the teachers of Long Island, Friday, October 24, at Amityville.

The annual report of the State Teachers' Association Board was read before the faculty at their meeting last Monday.
Value of Tests

When the psychology and education departments examined the results of tests each day, they asked their students if they believed that they were industrious, hard or easy, or if they were satisfied or dissatisfied with their performance. The students were asked to indicate how they thought their work was going. Did they think they were making good progress or were they lagging behind?

Some of the students who were asked these questions were able to tell the psychologists that they had been working hard but that they did not think they were making any progress. Others said that they had been working diligently but that they did not think they were going to get very far.

The psychologists found that the students who were satisfied with their work tended to be more satisfied with their progress than the students who were not satisfied. They also found that the students who were making good progress were more likely to be satisfied with their work than the students who were not making good progress.

Some of the students who were asked these questions were able to tell the psychologists that they were working very hard but that they did not think they were making any progress. Others said that they were working diligently but that they did not think they were going to get very far.

The psychologists found that the students who were satisfied with their work tended to be more satisfied with their progress than the students who were not satisfied. They also found that the students who were making good progress were more likely to be satisfied with their work than the students who were not making good progress.

Some of the students who were asked these questions were able to tell the psychologists that they were working very hard but that they did not think they were making any progress. Others said that they were working diligently but that they did not think they were going to get very far.

The psychologists found that the students who were satisfied with their work tended to be more satisfied with their progress than the students who were not satisfied. They also found that the students who were making good progress were more likely to be satisfied with their work than the students who were not making good progress.

Some of the students who were asked these questions were able to tell the psychologists that they were working very hard but that they did not think they were making any progress. Others said that they were working diligently but that they did not think they were going to get very far.
HEADSNAMED

Class Teams Formed

The upper class basketball teams have the following officials to pilot them through the games this season: Senior team, Alice Daly, captain; manager yet to be elected; juniors, Janette M. Wright, captain; Elizabeth A. Miles, manager; sophomores, Eilleen Doolis, captain; Mary Neville, manager.

That this year's victory may bring victory to N. Y. S. C., as did the 24 team, is the aim of the twenty-five enthusiastic attending practices. Watch the G. A. A. bulletin board for time of practices, and go out for the team or help them by not tempting them to break training.

HIKE ENJOYABLE

"Coffee's ready now," and on that invitation, the Indian Laddies sprang up to renew their supply of spaghetti in the kitchen. An old one扩

The members of Dr. Douglas' identification course, utilized the occasion to hold a class picnic, as a result they may tell wild tales of a snake captured and allowed to escape.

The hike was satisfying. Especially fortunate the group who spent the whole hike on the trail, and spent the night there. Among members of the faculty attending were: Dr. Crouse, Dr. Morris, Miss Van Denhurgh and Miss Scotland.

CITIZEN SCOUTS BUSY

The Girl Scouts of Albany will hold a very important meeting Saturday afternoon at three o'clock in the drill room of the armory on Washington Avenue. A very diverting program is in store for those who attend.

The Citizen Scouts are at present meeting on Room H in the State College for Teachers, every other Wednesday. Two or three more meetings are being initiated for talks on citizenship and for an intensive training course enabling the troops to be better Scouts.

G. A. A. PROLIC

Come and see the sophomores have no more plans to entertain G. A. A. at the frolic to be held October 25.

A business meeting will precede the stunts. At this meeting proposed changes in the present constitution will be voted on. These amendments, which have passed the G. A. A. Council, are concerned with a clause in the date of nominations for officers and in the manner of winning class emblems. These proposed changes are on the G. A. A. bulletin board and should be studied in order that the voting may be a true index of opinion.

WORTH SEEING

"Hell-Bent for Heaven," staged at the Capitol theater tonight and tomorrow night, has been well received. Agnes E. Putter added that the play was "too good a show" for the prize last year.

Tickets for the play can be secured in the balcony for a dollar and scattered throughout the auditorium for 50 cents, a feature vender, there is no question but that one's money would be well invested in procuring a ticket for the portrayal.

CALENDAR

Friday, October 17
Chemistry Club, 4:00 P. M., Room 250, Junior Freshmen Party, Gym
Saturday, October 18
Campus Day
Tuesday, October 21
Y. W. C. A., 3:00 P. M., Auditorium
Chamber of Commerce Club, 4:00 P. M.
Thursday, October 23
Musical Club, 4:00 P. M., Auditorium

Best Pedagogue

Freshmen, you've only just begun to be acquainted with all the events and new ideas State has to offer you! What is it now? The Pedagogue!! And what is that? No, not a new required course of study, but that wonderful College Year Book which is issued each year in May on Moving-Up Day.

Words cannot describe its inestimable value in place in collegiate life. Pedagogue includes pictures of the faculty and of the seniors, with appropriate biographical sketches. Class photos are given with lists of the members of each class. Snapshots and jokes hold no minor part in creating general interest. The yearly publication of the Pedagogue features something new and everyone wonders when the Board has "up its sleeve" this time. Under the direction of Mildred Hammersley, Editor-in-Chief.

There are pages left blank for autographs in the back of the book which will mean much more, and very much more after graduation.

When the opportunity is given you, sign your name and the date. The usual cost is from three to three and one-half dollars.

Famous Speakers

Alexander Wollcott, New York drama critic, and John Barrow, playwright, have both signed contracts to lecture at State College during the Dramatic and Art Association's program this season. It was announced by the council today.

Mr. Wollcott will open the season at the college auditorium most likely sometime in December or early next month with "Enchanted Isles," Mr. Farrar will lecture on "The Modern Drama" early in February.

The Brooklyn Society of Etchers will exhibit etchings during the season and Miss Eunice A. Purine will deliver a lecture on "The Art of Etching" at a later date. An oil painting by an old master will also be shown.

BREACH OF PROMISE CASE

Floyd Landon has a case on some one the Board has "up its sleeve." He has been charged with a breach of promise. The case was presented at a previous meeting.

STATE COLLEGE NEWS, OCTOBER 17, 1924