Marchen Falter at Hiram;
Monaco Individual Victor

On Saturday, November 28, Albany's men traveled to Hiram, Ohio, for an outstanding match won by the finest wrestling teams in the nation. Eugene Monaco, team co-captain, captured the 130 pound division title, and 117 pound Ron Zimmett received the award for his weight class. The team placed third, scoring 17 points. Albany won the tournament with 80 points. Coach Joe Zima was delighted with the performance.

ASP Thanks Contributors

The ASP’s drive to raise funds for the Foster Child did not come to an end. The original goal, the minimum cost of $180 required by the Foster Parent Plan for the adoption of a child for the period of one year. We would like to thank the students and faculty of this University for the support they extended to the ASP’s campaign. A great portion of the total was obtained through participatory solicitations, the balance being supplied through the Benevolence and Greek organizations.

The Foster Child Plan represents a personalized method of charitable donation by which individual and organizational funds can be channeled to a direct recipient. It serves a worldwide purpose in attempting to alleviate in part some of the dire misery experienced as a way of life by slums dwellers all over the world. We would hope that the entire university community will consider Graziella Garci, the recipient of BCCNA funds, as their personal “Foster Child.” The ASP has communicated with Graziella at various times during the past year. If anyone wishes to submit a letter to Graziella at any time, we will be happy to forward it to the Foster Parent Plan headquarters to be translated and sent to Graziella and her family in Bogota, Colombia.

Courage to Be a Coward

By David Chidles

There comes a time in every young man’s or woman’s life when he or she must make a decision. When should you make your decision? When you choose to be a leader, it is not when you are in any particular situation, but when you are in a situation that has an impact on your life. The time is now. The time is to make your decision. The time is to make your decision.

State Rumps Over St. John's 75-49.
February 6, 1964

Tight Defense Overwhelms Indians

by Mike Ginewar

Staten's Peds thoroughly trimmed St. John's Indians before a packed crowd at the Washington Armory Saturday night. Playing an excellent defensive game, Staten ran away with the contest early as Coach Fadla Hoffman's team played inspired ball and was determined to clinch the last year's 36-22 upset of the Indians. Albany started an all-senior team with Davis, Crouse and Darnell at the center. Tom O'Donnell at the point and Ray Seely and Bob Zahn as the guards.

Mattmen Defeat Brooklyn

As Szymanski, Koening Pin

Scoring pins in the 147, 157, and 177-pound divisions, State's powerful mattmen triumphed over Brooklyn Polytech 31-15 in the team's dual meet of the year. Bob Verrigni, Tom Koenig, and Dick Szymanski won their matches by pins, while Howie Merriam and Gene Monaco, who spotted his opponent 14 pounds, won by points.

Coach Gardner's Peds were outweighed for the most part as Gardner moved one of his wrestlers into heavier divisions to add to the strength of the Brooklyn team. It was only three matches.

Staten's Boone Keane took the 197-pound match with a pin over Bill Smith.

H. J. Koenig accounted for State's 157-pound match win and with a 15-second pin over Frank Shein.

Szymanski's pin victory in the 147-pound match carried the Peds to the dual meet victory.

In the 137-pound battle, Hiram Weeks did an outstanding job in pinning St. John's Bob Szymanski as his opponent tried to make a comeback but had to be stopped by the blue-shirted Keane.

Tom Koenig accounted for State's 167-pound match win and with a 15-second pin over Frank Shein.

Koenig's pin victory in the 137-pound match carried the Peds to the dual meet victory.

The plot of "How He Lied" revolves around a beautiful socialite who may be considered a short sequel to the stylization of language and social mores of the day.

The two performing groups are Alpha, Beta Zeta, Chi Sigma Theta, the group directed by Pat Fannon and the group directed by John Folia.

The annual Christmas Program of the New Campus is up to each dorm to provide the annual Christmas production. One helper will divide his time among the productions and remain at the New Campus.

The December 11-12 U.S. News and World Report, sponsored by the Music Department, is titled "Sail Carol" arranged by Heifer, "Cradle Hymn" by Rubbra, the "We Three Kings of Orient," and "St. Louis" by Peterson.

The two student directors are Pat Fannon and John Folia.

The judges for the competition will include Directors of the Modern Dance and the Directors of the Players.

The Modern Dance will be held in Bru following the performance of "How He Lied." The audience will be seated from the balcony as the judges will be seated in the auditorium.

The Peds found themselves on the late lead before State could mount an all senior team with Diok Crossett and Dan Zeh in the year's 36-32 upset for Dick Lange. The two teams met for the first time in 1963.

The Muck brothers took over for the first time in 1963.

The New Campus will present "How He Lied" at 8:00 p.m. on Tuesday, December 11.

Golden Eye Faculty Panel Probes 'Absurd University'

The golden eye faculty panel called "Absurd University" was held Monday evening in the Armory. Ten faculty members presented a "mock trial" of the University of Albany as a way of presenting the "absurdity" of university life.
